

Table of Contents

---

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS .....	III
INTRODUCTION .....	V

PART 1. THE FOUNDATIONS OF BRAND PROTECTION—TRADEMARK LAW AND BEYOND

Chapter 1. A History of Brand Marketing from the Legal Perspective.....	3
A. Pre-Civil War Brand Identity Protection Efforts .....	5
B. The Late 1800s—Expanding Brand Identity Protection with Trademark Registration.....	6
C. 1905–1945: Trademark Law Enables the Promotion of Brand Identity to Create Brand Equity .....	10
D. 1946–Present: The Expansion of Trademark Law’s Protection of Brand Identity.....	18
I. Expanding the Types of Legally Protectable Brand Identifiers .....	19
II. Restricting Trademark Use by Non-Competitors.....	22
III. Trademark Licensing to Third Parties .....	24
IV. Other Expansions.....	27
E. Trademark Law and Modern Brand Management .....	28
F. Conclusion.....	30
Chapter 2. Trademark Protection.....	31
A. Introduction .....	31
B. Trademark Strength .....	32
C. Establishing Trademark Rights.....	38
D. Federal Registration Procedure.....	42
E. Enforcement .....	46
F. Conclusion.....	54
Chapter 3. Verbal Brand Identifiers—Names and Logos .....	57
A. Introduction .....	57
B. Selecting a Brand Name.....	58
C. Numerical Names .....	64
D. Combining Brand Names and Brand Architecture.....	65
E. Nicknames.....	67
F. Families of Trademarks and Brands .....	68
G. Logos.....	74
H. Conclusion.....	80

Chapter 4. Sensory Brand Identifiers: Symbols, Characters, Product Design and Color, and Non-Visual Brand Identifiers .....	81
A. Introduction .....	81
B. Visual Marks.....	85
I. Trade Dress—Packaging vs. Product Configuration .....	86
II. Color .....	89
III. Symbols and Ornamental Designs.....	90
IV. Character Marks.....	91
V. Motion Marks.....	93
C. Non-Visual Sensory Marks.....	95
I. Sound Marks.....	95
II. Scent Marks .....	96
III. Flavor Marks?.....	98
IV. Tactile Trademarks .....	101
D. Conclusion.....	102
Chapter 5. Protecting Your Brand from Imitation—A Legal Portfolio Approach .....	105
A. Introduction .....	105
B. The Weaknesses of Trademark Law .....	109
C. Supplemental Brand Element Protection .....	112
I. Protecting Expression—Copyrights and Design Patents.....	112
II. Advantages of Copyrights and Design Patents .....	116
III. Weaknesses of Copyrights and Design Patents.....	118
D. Protection from Unfair Competition.....	123
I. Passing Off .....	123
II. Disparagement .....	125
III. Brand Criticism .....	126
E. Conclusion.....	129
Chapter 6. Domain Names and Product Category Names .....	131
A. Introduction .....	131
B. Domain Names .....	131
I. Selecting a Domain Name.....	133
II. Cybersquatting.....	137
III. Brand Marketer Protection for the Generic gTLD Program....	139
C. Product Category Label Selection and Possible Protection.....	141
I. Top Level Domain Names .....	142
II. Collective and Certification Trademarks .....	144
III. Deception and Identity Standards .....	145
IV. Geographical Indications .....	147

D. Hashtags ..... 150
 E. Conclusion..... 151

Chapter 7. Slogans—Brand Promoters and Possible Brand

Identifiers ..... 153
 A. Introduction ..... 153
 B. Background on Slogans..... 154
 C. Trademark Protection of Slogans..... 155
     I. The Source Identification Function ..... 156
     II. Slogans Must Be Distinctive for Trademark Protection ..... 158
     III. Merely Descriptive Slogans Are Not Protected as Trademarks ..... 159
     IV. Use of Descriptive or Common Words..... 161
     V. Purely Laudatory Phrases Are Disfavored ..... 162
     VI. Slogans vs. Jingles ..... 163
 D. Trademark Enforcement ..... 164
 E. Slogans Must Not Be Deceptive ..... 168
 F. Conclusion..... 171

PART 2. PROMOTING THE BRAND

Chapter 8. Avoiding Deceptive Advertising When Promoting

Brand Attributes and Performance..... 177
 A. Introduction ..... 177
 B. Initiation—Challenging Deceptive Advertising..... 177
 C. Interpretation—Message Conveyed to Consumers ..... 181
     I. Types of Implied Claims ..... 183
         a. Exaggerated Significance ..... 183
         b. Confusing Presentation..... 184
         c. Promises of Proof..... 188
         d. Ineffective or Nonexistent Qualification ..... 189
     II. Visual Claims ..... 190
 D. Deception—Likelihood of Misleading Consumers..... 192
 E. Verification—Accuracy of the Advertising Claims ..... 194
 F. Remediation ..... 196
     I. Injunctive Relief..... 197
     II. Other Remedies ..... 198

Chapter 9. Cajolery—The First of the 3 Cs of Attracting Brand

Interest..... 203
 A. Introduction ..... 204
 B. Personal Selling..... 206
 C. Pressure to Buy..... 207
 D. Targeting to Exploit Vulnerabilities..... 210

E.	Repeat Solicitations (Without Permission) .....	215
F.	Ad-Ware.....	222
G.	Conclusion.....	224

Chapter 10. The 3 Cs of Attracting Brand Interest:

	Compensation.....	227
A.	Introduction .....	227
B.	Price Promotions.....	229
	I. Sale Proclamations.....	230
	II. Comparisons to Former (and Future) Prices.....	233
	III. “Up to,” Savings and Percentage-Off Claims.....	234
	IV. Price Comparisons Between Different Products .....	236
	V. Comparisons with Third-Party Prices.....	237
	VI. Everyday Low Prices and Price Matching Guarantees .....	239
	VII. Rebates—Post-Purchase Price Discounts.....	242
C.	“Free” Products: Sampling, Bundling and Premiums.....	244
D.	Price Promotions and Antitrust.....	246
E.	Sweepstakes and Prize Promotions.....	247
F.	Consumer Loyalty/Frequency Reward Programs .....	250
G.	Conclusion.....	252

Chapter 11. Connection (and Masked Marketing) ..... 255

A.	Personalized Recommendations.....	256
B.	Masked Marketing.....	258
C.	Masked Marketing Practices.....	259
	I. Posers.....	260
	II. Buzz and Viral Marketing.....	263
	III. Advertainment.....	264
	IV. Advertorials and Native Advertising .....	267
	V. Urgent Ad-Formation.....	270
	VI. Ad-Sults from a Query.....	271
D.	General Legal and Regulatory Issues .....	272
	I. Disclosure of the Commercial Connection.....	273
	II. Genuineness of Statements.....	275
	III. Regulation of Particular Marketing Methods.....	276
E.	Conclusion.....	279

Chapter 12. Connection: Secondary Brand Associations and

	Endorsements.....	281
A.	Introduction .....	281
B.	Legal Background.....	283
C.	Vague Associations .....	286
D.	Descriptions .....	288

E. Endorsements and Certifications ..... 290
 F. Identity Associations ..... 295
 G. Conclusion..... 297

Chapter 13. Connection: Using Celebrities to Connect with

Consumers..... 299
 A. Introduction ..... 299
 B. Historical Development..... 300
 C. Early Legal Developments ..... 301
 D. The Development of Post-Mortem Rights..... 305
 E. Current Legal Analysis ..... 306
     I. Right of Publicity..... 306
     II. Other Laws ..... 313
     III. Defenses..... 316
 F. Conclusion..... 319

PART 3. JUDO BRAND DIVERSION—THE LEGAL ISSUES OF USING ANOTHER’S BRAND TO YOUR ADVANTAGE

Chapter 14. Introduction to Judo Brand Diversion and

Neutralization Tactics..... 325
 A. Introduction to Judo Brand Diversion..... 325
 B. Strategy Background..... 326
 C. Neutralization Tactics..... 333
     I. Trademark Preemption..... 333
     II. Adopting an Abandoned Trademark ..... 334
     III. Genericide..... 335
 D. Conclusion..... 340

Chapter 15. Judo Brand Diversion Comparison Tactics ..... 343

A. Introduction ..... 343
 B. Copycat Products ..... 343
 C. Comparative Advertising ..... 348
 D. Descriptive Use ..... 354
 E. Conclusion..... 356

Chapter 16. Judo Brand Diversion Unauthorized Extensions..... 357

A. Resellers ..... 358
 B. Compatible Products and Services..... 360
 C. Vague Associations ..... 361
     I. Ornamental Products..... 362
     II. Ambush (Suggested Affiliation) Marketing..... 365
     III. Brand Parody Products..... 369

IV. Parody Advertising.....	372
V. Parody as Social Commentary.....	374
D. Conclusion.....	375

Chapter 17. Interruption and Misdirection Judo Brand

Diversio .....	377
A. Introduction.....	377
B. Interruption.....	377
I. Pop-Up Ads/Sponsored Results .....	378
II. Offering Similar Products .....	382
C. Misdirection .....	383
D. Conclusion.....	388
E. Practical Advice for Judo Brand Diversio .....	389

PART 4. BIG BRANDS BEWARE

Chapter 18. Issues for Growing Within and Across Markets..... 395

A. Introduction.....	395
B. Reverse Confusion.....	395
C. Monopolizing Conduct by Market Dominating Brand Marketers ....	397
I. Brand Extensions and Proliferation .....	400
II. Bundling and Tying .....	406
III. Trademark Licensing and Cartels .....	409
D. Distribution Issues.....	410
E. Gray Market Imports.....	413
F. International Trademark Pre-Emption .....	417
G. Conclusion.....	418

Appendix A. References ..... 419

Appendix B. Table of Cases ..... 455

INDEX.....	483
------------	-----