

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	V
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	VII
Introduction	1
Chapter 1. The English Common Law Background of American Law	11
Chapter 2. The Common Law and Popular Sovereignty.....	29
Chapter 3. Towards an American Common and Constitutional Law	45
Chapter 4. Law as Science?	61
Chapter 5. The Life of the Law as Experience	77
Chapter 6. An Elite Legal Intellectual as Moralistic and Reformer	95
Chapter 7. Towards Sociological Jurisprudence.....	111
Chapter 8. Advancing American Legal Realism	133
Chapter 9. The Harvard School of Reflexive Judicial Deference.....	151
Chapter 10. The Law Professor as Fictional Modern Cambridge Don and Denizen of the Corridors of Power	183
Chapter 11. Are There Neutral and General Principles of Constitutional Law?	227
Chapter 12. Justifying the Warren Court	243

Chapter 13. The American Law Professor as Aloof Olympian.....	259
Chapter 14. Critical Legal Studies: Law and the Movement.....	277
Chapter 15. The Economic Approach to Law	297
Chapter 16. Popular Constitutionalism and the Unwritten Constitution	315
Chapter 17. Towards a Feminist Critique of Law ...	331
Chapter 18. Against the Impoverishment of Legal Discourse.....	347
Chapter 19. The Lawyer as Romantic.....	367
Chapter 20. Towards Originalism and Textualism	385
Chapter 21. Critical Race Theory	405
Chapter 22. Changing the Legal Fabric of the National Government Towards Libertarian Paternalism	421
Chapter 23. The Law Professor as President.....	439
Chapter 24. Conclusion	455
INDEX.....	475