

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	III
ALSO BY THE AUTHORS	VII

PART I. INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1. A Philosophy of Drafting	3
A. The Characteristics of Good Legal Writing	3
1. Accuracy	4
2. Clarity	5
3. Concision	5
4. Simplicity	6
5. Tone	6
B. Three Types of Legal Writing	6
1. Normative Writing	7
2. Discursive Writing	7
3. Litigation-Related Writing	7
C. The Ultimate Consequence of Drafted Normative Documents	8
D. Drafting as a Facilitator of Self-Government and Economic Enterprise	8
E. Drafting as a Form of Preventative Lawyering	9
F. Drafting as an Intellectual Exercise	9
1. Knowledge of the Law	10
2. Investigation	10
3. Conceptualization	11
4. Forethought	12
5. Organization	12
G. Drafting as a Literary Exercise	12
1. Words	13
2. Sentences	14
3. Other Word Construction Techniques	14
4. Headings	14
H. Drafting as an Ethical Exercise	15
I. The Costs of Bad Drafting	16
1. Social Costs	16
2. Client Costs	16
3. Drafter Costs	17
J. Drafting from Scratch	17
Chapter 2. Contract Drafting	19
A. Basics	19
B. The Context: The Deal Timeline—Whether Big or Little, Deals Follow a Pattern	20

C.	The Role of the Contract Drafter.....	22
D.	Recurring Problems in Contract Drafting	23
	1. Unintended Contracts	23
	2. Documents Intended to Be Contracts That Fail.....	24
	3. Contracts Containing Gaps.....	25
	4. Ambiguous and Unintended Vague Terms	26
	5. Unanticipated Events	26
E.	Types of Contracts	27
F.	The Parts of a Contract	28
	1. Caption or Heading	28
	2. Introductory Paragraph	29
	3. Recitals.....	29
	4. Definitions.....	31
	5. Statement of Consideration and Agreement	32
	6. Substantive Provisions.....	32
	7. Housekeeping Provisions or Boilerplate	33
	8. Signature Blocks.....	36
	9. Date	37
	10. Notarization	37
	11. Appendices, Exhibits, Schedules	37
G.	Exemplar Considerations	39
H.	Amending Contracts	39
Chapter 3. Legislative Drafting		43
A.	Who Drafts Legislation?	43
B.	The Function of the Legislative Drafter	44
C.	Legislation Compared to Private-Law Documents	45
	1. Nature and Size of the Audience	46
	2. The Need for Precision	47
	3. Policy Considerations	48
	4. The Need for Factual Data	48
	5. Political Considerations	48
	6. Fitting the Document into an Existing Body of Law	49
	7. Legal Limits	49
	8. Legislative History	50
	9. Form, Style, and Usage.....	51
D.	The Parts of a Statute	52
	1. Heading and Title.....	52
	2. Enacting Clause.....	52
	3. Short Title Section.....	52
	4. Statement of Purpose or Findings.....	52
	5. Definitions.....	53
	6. Substantive Provisions.....	53
	7. Enforcement Mechanisms.....	54
	8. Remedies or Penalties	54
	9. Housekeeping Provisions	54

E.	Amending Statutes.....	56
1.	When Are Amendments Drafted?.....	56
2.	The Parts of an Amendment.....	56
3.	What Amendments Do.....	57
4.	Amendments Changing a Judicial Interpretation or Construction.....	58
Chapter 4. The Rules of Interpretation		61
A.	Statutory Rules.....	61
B.	Common Law Rules	62
1.	Intent Controls	62
a.	The Plain Meaning or Four Corners Rule.....	63
b.	The Mischief Rule and Other Evidences of Intent	63
c.	Effect on Drafters	64
2.	The Rule of Strict Construction.....	65
a.	Criminal Statutes	65
b.	Statutes in Derogation of the Common Law.....	65
c.	Statutes Depriving a Court of Jurisdiction.....	66
d.	Statutes in Derogation of Sovereignty	66
3.	The Rule of Liberal Construction	66
4.	The Rule of Expressio Unius Est Exclusio Alterius	67
5.	The Rule of Ejusdem Generis	68
6.	The Rule of Noscitur a Sociis	69
7.	The Rule of Reddendo Singula Singulis	69
8.	The Rule of Last Modification	70
9.	The Rule That Handwritten Words Prevail over Typed or Printed Words.....	70
10.	The Rule That Written Amounts Prevail over Arabic Number Amounts	70
11.	The Rule That Specific Language Prevails over General Language or Provisions.....	71
12.	The Borrowed Language Rule	71
13.	The Rule Favoring Agency Interpretation.....	71
14.	The Rule That a Document Must Be Read as a Whole.....	72
15.	The Rule of Construing Statutes in Pari Materia	72
16.	The Rule Disfavoring Repeals by Implication	73
17.	The Rule of Lex Posterior Derogat Priori	73
18.	The Rule of Construing a Document Against the Drafter	74
19.	The Rule of Adopting a Construction That Favors Validity	74
20.	The Rule Favoring the Construction of Contracts in a Manner Consistent with Public Policy	74
	Exercise 1	77
Chapter 5. Drafting Ethics		81
A.	Solicitation	81
1.	Advertising Specialization or Concentration.....	81
2.	Mass Mailings.....	82

3. Solicitation of Former Clients, Family, and Friends	82
B. Competence and Diligence	82
C. Scope of Representation	83
1. Objectives and Means	83
2. Criminal, Fraudulent, and Otherwise Prohibited Transactions	84
D. Communication	86
E. Fees	86
F. Confidentiality	87
1. Ethical Requirements	87
2. Attorney-Client Privilege	88
G. Conflict of Interest	89
1. Representation Against a Current Client	89
2. Representation Against a Former Client	92
3. Imputed Disqualification	92
4. Former Government Lawyer-Drafters	93
H. Dealings with Third Parties	93
I. Litigation Ethics	94
J. Aiding the Unauthorized Practice of Law	95
K. Providing Free Drafting Services	95
Exercise 2	96

Chapter 6. An Overview 101

A. Determine the Client's Objectives	101
B. Identify the Audience	102
C. Explore the Broader Legal and Factual Context of the Document	102
D. Research the Law	104
E. Determine Substance	104
F. Get the Facts	105
G. Identify the Proper Legal and Factual Concepts	105
H. Develop an Organization	106
I. Write the Document	107
1. Ambiguities	107
2. Rules of Style and Usage	107
3. Definitions	108
4. Terms Creating Legal Consequences	108
5. Format	108
J. Review the Document for Substance and Style	108
K. Post-Execution Monitoring	109
L. 25 Contract Drafting Considerations That Comprise a Philosophy	109
Exercise 3	111

PART II. PREPARATION AND PLANNING

Chapter 7. Getting Started 115

A. Determine Client Objectives	115
1. The Basic Questions	115
2. How the Information Is Used	116

3.	Objectives from a Variety of Perspectives	117
a.	Other Parties to the Transaction.....	117
b.	Scope of Anticipated Use.....	118
c.	Multiple-Client Objectives	118
4.	Evaluating Client Objectives.....	119
B.	Know the Audience	120
1.	Identity of the Audience.....	120
2.	Characteristics of the Audience.....	121
3.	Accommodating the Various Audiences.....	121
C.	Determine the Context of the Document.....	122
1.	Legal Context.....	122
2.	Factual Context	124
Exercise 4		125
Chapter 8. Drafting Within the Law		127
A.	Form	127
B.	Meaning	128
C.	Substance.....	129
1.	Prohibition	129
2.	Requirement	130
3.	Permission and Authorization.....	130
4.	Denial of Permission or Authorization.....	131
5.	Other Consequences.....	131
6.	Implied Terms.....	131
D.	Creating Legal Checklists.....	132
E.	Drafting with Statutory Language in Mind	132
F.	Validation Concerns.....	134
Exercise 5.....		134
Discussion		138
Chapter 9. Determining Substance.....		139
A.	Types of Provisions.....	139
1.	Required by Law.....	139
2.	Going to the Essence of the Transaction.....	139
3.	Extremely Important	140
4.	Optional.....	140
B.	Substantive Term Checklists	141
1.	Commercially Prepared.....	141
2.	Drafter Prepared	141
C.	The Elements of a Legal Rule.....	147
1.	The Person	147
2.	The Conduct.....	147
3.	The Object of the Action.....	147
4.	The Circumstances	148
5.	The Consequences	148
D.	Substantive Gaps	149
Exercise 6.....		151

Chapter 10. Choosing the Right Concept	153
A. Definition	153
B. The Importance of Concepts in Drafting	153
C. Types of Concepts	154
1. Legal Concepts	154
2. Factual Concepts	155
a. General Versus Specific	155
b. Vague Versus Precise	157
c. Abstract Versus Concrete	161
D. Choosing the Right Word to Reflect the Concept	162
Exercise 7	162
Chapter 11. Organization	167
A. Division	167
B. Classification	169
C. Sequence	170
1. Chronological	170
2. Importance	171
3. Frequency of Occurrence	171
4. Familiar Before Unfamiliar	171
5. Rules Before Exceptions	172
6. What Before How	172
7. Substance Before Procedure	172
Exercise 8	172

PART III. DRAFTING TECHNIQUES

Chapter 12. Avoiding Ambiguities	177
A. Definition	177
B. The Consequences of Ambiguity	177
C. Types of Ambiguity	178
1. Contextual Ambiguity	178
2. Semantic Ambiguity	180
a. Homonyms	180
b. “And”	181
c. “Or”	183
d. “And/Or”	183
e. Specific Dates	185
f. Time Spans	186
g. Days, Weeks, Months, and Years	187
h. “Bimonthly,” “Biannually,” “Biennially,” “Semimonthly,” and “Semiannually”	189
i. Hours	189
j. Relational Words	190
k. Ages	190
l. “Provided That”	190
m. Legalese	191

n.	Shall, May, Will, and Must	192
o.	“Among” and “Between”	193
3.	Syntactic Ambiguity	193
a.	Pronoun Reference.....	194
b.	Modifiers.....	194
c.	Participles	197
d.	Chain Prepositions	197
e.	Negative Pregnants	197
f.	“If . . . Then” Sentences	198
g.	“Because” Clauses.....	198
h.	“Unless” Clauses	198
i.	“Only”	199
j.	Truncated Passive	200
k.	“Which” and “That”.....	200
l.	Plural Nouns	201
m.	Commas and Semi-Colons.....	202
	Exercise 9	205
Chapter 13. Drafting Style and Usage		211
A.	Consistency	211
1.	Consistent Terminology	211
2.	Consistent Grammatical Structure	212
3.	Consistent Document Structure and Approach.....	213
B.	Concision	213
1.	Unnecessary Content	214
2.	Cross-References and Section/Paragraph References.....	214
3.	Repetitious Substance	214
4.	Redundant Couplets, Triplets, and Other Chain Synonyms.....	215
5.	Other Redundant Expressions	219
6.	Legalese.....	221
7.	Compound Prepositions and Prepositional Phrases	223
8.	“The Fact That”	225
9.	Rhetorical and Transitional Words and Phrases	226
10.	The Phrase “Of the . . .”	227
11.	Unnecessary “Who’s,” “Which’s,” and “That’s”	227
12.	Substantive Numbers and Redundant Numeration	228
13.	Expletives.....	228
14.	Nominalizations.....	229
15.	Passive Voice.....	230
16.	“To Be” Verb Forms	231
C.	Clarity and Simplicity	232
1.	Short Sentences	232
2.	Simple Sentence Structure	232
3.	Present Tense	234
4.	Simple, Ordinary Words	234
5.	Terms of Art.....	237
6.	Technical and Trade Terms	238

7.	Foreign Words and Phrases	238
8.	Words Ending in “-ee” and “-or”	239
9.	Compound Adjectives and Noun Phrases	239
10.	Unconventional Capitalization	240
11.	Positive Versus Negative Expression	240
12.	Exceptions	240
13.	Personal Pronouns	241
D.	Some Basic Rules of Grammar Relevant to Drafting	241
1.	Forming the Possessive	241
a.	Form the Possessive Singular of Nouns by Adding “ ’s”	241
b.	Form the Possessive Plural by Adding an Apostrophe	242
c.	Its, It’s, His, and Hers	242
2.	Use of the Semicolon Versus the Colon	242
a.	The Semicolon	242
b.	The Colon	242
3.	Slashes	243
4.	Subject and Verb Agreement	243
5.	Parentheses	243
6.	Quotation Marks	244
7.	Spacing After Sentences	245
E.	Misused and Abused Words and Expressions	245
F.	Gender-Specific Language	246
	Exercise 10	249
Chapter 14. Definitions		255
A.	General Principles of Usage	255
1.	Terms with Established Meanings	256
2.	Terms of Art and Technical Terms	257
3.	Humpty-Dumpty Definitions	257
4.	Circular Definitions	258
5.	One-Time Definitions	259
6.	Definitional Mazes	260
B.	Substantive Matters	260
C.	Definitions Incorporated by Reference	262
D.	Types of Definitions and Terminology	263
1.	Defined Terms	263
2.	Full Definitions	264
3.	Partial Definitions	265
a.	Enlarging Definitions	265
b.	Limiting Definitions	266
4.	Combining Full and Partial Definitions	267
5.	Examples	267
E.	Methodology	268
1.	Use More Familiar Terms	268
2.	Use More Precise Terms	268
3.	Identify Components	268
4.	Identify Specific Referents	268

5. Indicate Relationship to a Larger Unit	269
F. Location of Definitions	269
G. When to Draft Definitions	269
H. Testing Definitions	270
Exercise 11	271
Chapter 15. Terms Creating Legal Consequences	273
A. The Importance of These Terms	273
B. Identifying and Creating the Appropriate Legal Consequences	273
C. The Suggested Conventions	274
1. Duties	274
2. Negation of Duties	276
3. Rights	276
4. Negation of Rights	277
5. Surrendering Rights or Causes of Action—Waiver and Releases	278
6. Privileges	278
7. Negation of Privileges	279
8. Immunity	280
9. Conditions	280
a. Definition and Types	280
b. Terminology	284
c. Objective Versus Subjective Conditions	285
D. Covenants	285
E. Representations, Warranties, Releases, Guaranties, and Indemnities	286
1. General Rules and Techniques: Typical Representations and Warranties	287
2. Representations	287
3. Warranties	289
4. Guaranties and Indemnities	289
5. Indemnities	290
6. Releases	290
7. Conclusion—Cautionary Procedures	290
F. Exceptions	291
G. Events of Default and Remedies	292
H. When Not to Follow These Conventions	294
Exercise 12	295
Chapter 16. Document Typography and Layout	297
A. Physical Appearance	297
1. White Space	297
2. Type Size and Font	297
3. Limited Use of All Capitals and Underlining	298
4. Line Length	299
5. Justification	300
6. Line Spacing	300

7. Blank Spaces.....	300
8. Sections and Paragraphs	301
B. Text.....	301
1. Table of Contents.....	301
2. Numbered Pages.....	301
3. Hierarchical Paragraph Headings.....	302
4. Lists and Enumerations.....	303
5. Tabbing	305
6. Charts and Graphs	305
7. Computations.....	306
Exercise 13.....	306
Chapter 17. Reviewing and Revising Drafted Documents.....	309
A. Prepare a Flowchart.....	309
B. Document Review.....	311
1. Review by the Drafter	311
a. Review for Content—A Ten Point Checklist.....	312
b. Review for Style and Usage	314
c. Prepare a Summary.....	316
2. Review by Other People	317
a. Your Colleagues and Supervisors	317
b. Review by the Client.....	319
c. Review by Opposing Counsel	320
C. Proofread the Document	322
Exercise 14.....	322
PART IV. ADDITIONAL EXERCISES
Exercise 15: Surety Agreement.....	327
Exercise 16: Contract Boilerplate	327
Exercise 17: Contract for the Sale of a Car	328
Exercise 18: Public Drinking Ordinance	329
Exercise 19: Age Discrimination Waiver	329
Exercise 20: Employment Contract	330
Exercise 21: Apartment Lease.....	332
Exercise 22: No-Smoking Ordinance	333
Exercise 23: Anti-Stalking Statute	334
Exercise 24: The Waterfall	336
Exercise 25: Attorney’s Retainer Agreement	342
Exercise 26: Homeowners’ Association By-Laws	344
Exercise 27: Requirements Contract	346
Exercise 28: Independent Contractor Agreement.....	348
Exercise 29: Confidentiality Agreement.....	349
Exercise 30: Structuring the Deal for the Right Remedy.....	356
Appendix.....	359
INDEX.....	363