PART 1. THE LAW AND POLICY OF SENTENCING

Chapter 1. Introduction to Sentencing ........... 3
A. The Purposes of Criminal Sentences .......... 4
   1. Traditional Sentencing Purposes .......... 4
   2. An Emerging New Paradigm: Restorative Justice .............. 10
B. Limiting the Use of Incarceration: Proposals for Reform .......................................... 14

Chapter 2. Guilty Pleas and Plea Bargaining ........................................... 17
A. The Due-Process Requirement of an Intelligent and Voluntary Guilty Plea .......... 19
   1. “Intelligent” Guilty Pleas .................. 20
   2. Voluntary Guilty Pleas and the Factual Basis for a Plea ....................... 24
B. The Sixth Amendment Right to Counsel ....... 27
C. Claims Relinquished Through the Entry of Guilty Pleas ........................................... 31
D. Breaches of Plea Agreements .................. 34
E. Constraints on the Government in Offering Incentives to Plead Guilty ....................... 38
Chapter 3. The Sentencing Process ............... 51
   A. Rights During Sentencing.......................... 51
      1. The Right to Counsel.............................. 51
         a. Retained and Appointed Counsel .......... 51
         b. Right to the Effective Assistance of Counsel .................................... 53
      2. The Rights to Have Access to, and to Rebut, the Presentence-Investigation
         Report ........................................... 56
      3. The Rights to Make a Statement to the Sentencer and to Present Evidence .......... 59
      4. The Right to Confrontation and Cross-
         Examination..................................... 62
      5. The Right to a Statement of Reasons for the Sentence Imposed ............................ 64
         a. Mitigating Factors .......................... 66
         b. Distinguishing Aggravating Factors and Elements of a Crime .................... 66
         c. Aggravating Factors ........................ 73
      7. Double Jeopardy .................................. 74
     8. Nonconstitutional Sources of Sentencing
        Rights ............................................ 76
   B. Factors Considered at Sentencing ............. 77
      1. Criminal Conduct and Convictions ........... 77
      2. A Defendant’s Refusal to Cooperate with Authorities or Make Incriminating
         Statements ....................................... 79
      3. First Amendment Limitations .................. 81
      4. False Information ............................... 82
      5. Unconstitutional Convictions ................. 84
      6. Illegally Obtained Evidence .................... 87
      7. Victim-Impact Evidence ........................ 89
Chapter 4. Sentencing Statutes and Guidelines................................................................. 93

A. Indeterminate Sentencing Statutes .......... 94
B. Determinate Sentencing Statutes .............. 97
   1. Determinate-Discretionary Sentencing.................................................. 97
   2. Presumptive Sentencing .................................................. 99
   3. Mandatory Sentences ............................................. 100
C. Sentencing Guidelines .................................. 104
   1. Presumptive Guidelines ......................................... 104
   2. Advisory Guidelines ........................................ 109
   3. Other Variations in the Structuring of Sentencing Guidelines............. 112
D. Ex Post Facto Limitations on Sentencing Statutes and Guidelines................. 116

Chapter 5. Community-Based Sanctions ...... 121

A. Community-Based Sentencing Options ...... 123
   1. Probation ...................................................... 123
   2. Day Reporting Centers .............................. 126
   3. Home Confinement and Electronic Monitoring .................. 127
   4. Fines ..................................................... 129
   5. Restitution, Fees, and Denial of Government Benefits ........... 134
   6. Community Service ........................................... 137
B. Comprehensive and Integrated Sentencing and Corrections Systems .................. 138
   1. Community-Corrections Acts ........................... 138
   2. Multi-Tiered Sentencing Structures ..... 142
   3. Problem-Solving and Restorative Courts ...................................... 145
   4. Nonimprisonment Guidelines ......................... 147
Chapter 6. The Death Penalty .......................... 149
A. Constitutionality in General....................... 149
B. Racial Disparity in the Imposition of the Death Penalty........................................ 154
C. Vague and Mandatory Death-Penalty
   Statutes.................................................. 157
D. The Right to Present Mitigating Evidence in Capital Cases...................................... 160
E. Death Sentences for Particular Crimes and Categories of People .................................. 162
   1. Rape................................................ 162
   2. Felony Murder .................................... 163
   3. Intellectually Disabled Defendants ...... 165
   4. Juveniles ........................................... 166
   5. Insane Prisoners ................................... 168
F. Modes of Execution.................................. 169
G. The Policy Debate.................................... 172

Chapter 7. Cruel and Unusual Punishment and Noncapital Cases ................................. 175
A. Disproportionality Claims: Challenges
   Regarding the Length or Amount of a
   Criminal Sanction .................................... 175
   1. Case-Specific Analysis of Gross
      Disproportionality ................................. 175
   2. Categorical Bans on Certain
      Sentences .......................................... 186
   3. The Right to Individualized
      Sentencing.......................................... 190
B. Challenges Regarding the Nature of a
   Criminal Sanction ................................. 192
   1. Shame Sentences ................................. 192
   2. Medical Interventions ......................... 194
Chapter 8. Parole Release and Probation and Parole Revocation .................................. 197
A. Probation and Parole Revocation ............... 199
   1. Due Process ........................................... 199
   2. The Fifth Amendment Privilege
      Against Self-Incrimination ..................... 208
   3. The Fourth Amendment ......................... 212
      a. Scope of Rights .................................. 212
      b. Fourth Amendment Exclusionary
         Rule ................................................. 217
   4. Policy Issues ............................................ 219
B. Parole Release and Special Release
   Mechanisms .............................................. 220
   1. Due Process: Liberty Interests .............. 220
   2. Due Process: Procedural Safeguards ....... 224
   3. Compassionate Release ......................... 229

Chapter 9. Enmeshed Penalties ("Collateral Consequences") ....................................... 231
A. The Reintegration of Released Prisoners into Society: Practical Obstacles .............. 231
B. The Reintegration of Released Prisoners into Society: Legal Obstacles .................. 233
   1. Employment Restrictions ....................... 234
   2. Restrictions on Government
      Benefits ............................................. 235
   3. Restrictions on Political Rights ............ 236
   4. Restrictions on Drivers’ Licenses and the Possession of Firearms ..................... 239
   5. Restrictions for Sex Offenses ............... 239
      a. Registration and Community-
         Notification Laws ................................ 240
      b. Civil-Commitment Laws .................... 243
c. Residency and Other Restrictions .................................. 247

C. Restoration of Rights and Other Steps to Limit or Eliminate Enmeshed Penalties ..... 247
   1. Pardons .......................................................... 247
   2. Restoration-of-Rights Procedures .......... 249
   3. Expungement and Sealing of Criminal Records .......................... 249
   4. Limits on the Denial of Employment to People with Criminal Convictions.... 250
   5. Comprehensive Review of, and Limits on, Enmeshed Penalties .................. 252
   6. Sentencing Advocacy ......................................... 253

D. The Reintegration of Released Prisoners into Society: An Integrated Approach ....... 254

PART 2. THE LAW AND POLICY OF CORRECTIONS

Chapter 10. Prisoners’ Rights: An Introduction .............................................. 259

A. Constitutional Rights for Prisoners? .............. 259
B. History of Prisoners’ Rights—A General Overview ........................................ 259
   1. “Slaves of the State”—Through the 1800s .............................................. 259
   2. The “Hands-Off Doctrine”—The Early to Mid-1900s .................................. 260
   3. The Prisoners’ Rights Era—The 1960s and ’70s ........................................... 261
   4. Prisoners’ Rights Today ................................................. 264
C. The Purposes of Incarceration ........................... 265
OUTLINE

Chapter 11. First Amendment Rights .......... 269
A. Freedom of Speech ............................ 269
B. Freedom of Association ...................... 286
C. Freedom of Religion .......................... 291
   1. First Amendment Claims ................. 291
   2. Statutory Claims ............................ 295

Chapter 12. Right of Access to the Courts .... 301
A. Court Appearances and Communications .... 302
B. Communications with Attorneys .............. 304
C. Restrictions on Access to Jailhouse Lawyers ........................................ 308
D. Governmental Assistance in Securing Court Access: Appointed Counsel, Law Libraries, and Other Legal Assistance .................. 310
E. Retaliation for Filing a Lawsuit .............. 318

Chapter 13. Prison Disciplinary Proceedings ........................................ 321
A. Procedural Due Process ........................ 321
B. Miranda and the Privilege Against Self-Incrimination in the Correctional Context ........................................ 331
   1. Miranda Rights .............................. 331
   2. The Privilege Against Self-Incrimination: Inmates’ Silence During Disciplinary Hearings ............ 332

Chapter 14. Transfers, Classification, and Procedural Due Process .................. 335
A. Liberty Interests ............................... 336
   1. Constitutionally Derived Liberty Interests ........................................ 336
2. State-Created Liberty Interests .......... 338
3. Pretrial Detainees ................................ 345
B. Procedural Safeguards .......................... 346

Chapter 15. The Privilege Against Self-Incrimination, Discrimination, and Prison Programs ........................................ 357
A. The Fifth Amendment Privilege Against Self-Incrimination ................................. 357
B. Equal Protection of the Law .................... 360
   1. Racial Discrimination .......................... 360
   2. Gender Discrimination ........................ 364
   3. Other Equal-Protection Claims ............... 366
C. Inmate Labor and Legal Restrictions on Prison Industry Programs ......................... 367

Chapter 16. Searches, Seizures, and Privacy Rights ........................................ 371
A. The Fourth Amendment ............................ 372
   1. Cell Searches and Property Seizures .... 372
   2. Body Searches ..................................... 375
B. Right of Privacy ..................................... 380
   1. The Source of the Right ....................... 380
   2. Same-Gender and Cross-Gender Surveillance and Searches .................. 382

Chapter 17. Due-Process Claims for Personal Injuries and Property Deprivations ............................... 393
A. The “Deprivation” Needed to Trigger Due Process .................................. 393
B. The Requirements of Due Process .......... 396
Chapter 18. Cruel and Unusual Punishment .................................................. 401
A. Medical and Mental-Health Care..................... 402
   1. The Right to Receive Medical Treatment ........................................... 402
   2. The Right to Refuse Medical Treatment ........................................... 407
B. Conditions of Confinement ............................ 411
C. The Failure to Protect Inmates ......................... 418
D. Use of Force Against Inmates.......................... 419

PART 3. PRISONERS’ RIGHTS LITIGATION

A. The Filing and Processing of the § 1983 Complaint ........................................... 429
   1. Elements of a Cause of Action Under § 1983 ............................................ 430
   2. Bivens Actions ........................................ 436
   3. Jurisdiction ......................................... 438
   4. The Role of Federal Magistrate Judges in the Processing of Prisoners’ Complaints ........................................... 438
   5. Filing Fees .......................................... 439
   6. The PLRA’s “Three-Strikes” Provision ............................................... 441
   7. Sufficiency of Complaints and Sua Sponte Dismissals .............................. 442
   8. Appointment of Counsel to Represent an Indigent Inmate ...................... 444
B. Affirmative Defenses ........................................ 444
   1. Immunity .................................................. 445
      a. Sovereign Immunity .................................. 445
      b. Personal Immunity .................................. 448
   2. Statute of Limitations ................................. 454
   3. Mootness .................................................. 455
   4. Exhaustion of Remedies .............................. 456

Chapter 20. Remedies ........................................ 459
A. § 1983 Suits .................................................. 459
   1. Damages .................................................. 459
      a. General Rules ........................................ 459
      b. The PLRA’s Restrictions on Damages .............. 461
   2. Equitable Relief ......................................... 465
      a. General Rules ........................................ 465
      b. The PLRA’s Restrictions on Equitable Relief .... 471
   3. Attorney’s Fees .......................................... 474
      a. General Rules ........................................ 474
         i. Prevailing Party .................................. 474
         ii. Reasonable Attorney’s Fee ..................... 477
      b. Restrictions Under the Prison Litigation Reform Act .... 480
B. Modifying and Terminating Court Orders ................. 482
   1. General Rules .......................................... 482
   2. Restrictions Under the Prison Litigation Reform Act .... 489
C. Enforcing Court Orders Through Contempt Proceedings and Other Means .... 493
D. Other Remedies ............................................. 494

INDEX ................................................................ 497