

OUTLINE

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	III
TABLE OF CASES	XVII

Introduction. Why Study Legislation and Regulation?	1
--	----------

PART 1. UNDERSTANDING LEGISLATURES AND AGENCIES

Chapter 1. Sources and Hierarchy of Lawmaking Authority	9
A. Constitutional Democracy: Lawmaking Authority Derives from the People.....	10
1. The United States Constitution.....	11
2. State Constitutions.....	13
3. Local Governments.....	17
B. From Constitutions to Legislatures: Legislative Structures and Limitations.....	18
1. Constitutional Structures of Congress....	18
2. Constitutional Structures of State Legislatures	21
3. Constitutional Limits on Congressional Legislation.....	24
4. Constitutional Limits on State Legislation.....	27
C. From Legislatures to Agencies: Delegation of Lawmaking Authority.....	29

Chapter 2. The Nature of Democratic Representation	35
A. Conceptions of the Role of the Legislator	36
1. Legislators as Agents	37
2. Legislators as Trustees	39
3. Hybrid Conceptions of the Legislator's Role	42
4. Legislators as Constituting a Collective Microcosm, a Portrait-in-Miniature	47
B. Conceptions of the Role of the Legislature	48
1. Classical Liberal or Pluralist Conceptions	49
2. Republican Conceptions	51
3. Critical Theories	54
C. Perspectives on the Operation of the Administrative State	56
1. Lawmaking Procedures as Hurdles to Overcome	56
2. Government as the Locus of Interest Group Bargaining	60
3. The Impact of Institutional Dynamics on Lawmaking	63

Chapter 3. Electoral Structures, or How American Legislatures Are Populated	69
A. Qualifications to Serve as Legislators	71
1. Eligibility to Serve in Congress	71
2. Eligibility to Serve in State Legislatures	72
3. Judging Members' Qualifications	73
4. Discipline of Legislators	75
a. Purpose of Legislative Discipline	75
b. Types of Legislative Discipline	76

B.	Drawing (and Redrawing) Legislative Districts.....	78
1.	The Growth of Gerrymandering	79
a.	The Impact of the One-Person, One-Vote Requirement.....	80
b.	The Impact of Technology	83
2.	Federal Constitutional and Statutory Constraints.....	85
a.	Limits on the Use of Race in Drawing Political Districts.....	86
b.	Limits on the Use of Party in Drawing Political Districts.....	91
3.	State Constraints on Redistricting Processes	95
a.	Substantive Limits on Legislative Redistricting.....	95
b.	Alternative Redistricting Procedures.....	99
C.	Conducting Legislative Elections	103
1.	Who Votes?—Towards Universal Suffrage	104
2.	General Election Processes	109
3.	Primary Election Processes	111
4.	Filling Legislative Vacancies: Appointments and Special Elections.....	114
5.	Resolving Disputed Elections	116
a.	State Processes	116
b.	Legislative Review of Contested Elections	118
D.	Legislative Term Limits.....	119
1.	The Justification for Legislative Term Limits	120

2. Types of State Legislative Term
Limits 122
3. Impacts of Legislative Term Limits 124

Chapter 4. Campaign Financing, Lobbying, and Bribery: The Impact of Money in Politics 127

- A. Campaign Finance Regulation 130
 1. The Role of Money in Legislative Races..... 130
 2. Why Regulate Campaign Financing? 132
 3. Specific Efforts to Regulate Campaign
Financing 134
 - a. The Federal Election Campaign
Act..... 136
 - b. Buckley v. Valeo 139
 - c. The Bipartisan Campaign Reform
Act of 2002..... 145
 - d. *McConnell v. Federal Election
Commission* 148
 - e. *Citizens United v. Federal Election
Commission* 151
 - f. State Laws Regulating Campaign
Financing..... 155
 4. The Contemporary Debate 158
- B. Lobbying and Its Regulation 160
 1. Direct and Indirect Lobbying..... 162
 2. Early Efforts to Regulate Lobbying:
The Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act
of 1946 163
 3. The Burgeoning of an Industry 165
 4. The Federal Lobbying Disclosure Act
of 1995 168
 5. Contemporary Lobbying Practice 172

C.	Other Anti-Corruption Measures	174
1.	Bribery and Unlawful Gratuity Prohibitions.....	174
2.	Conflict of Interest Rules and Ethics Measures	179

Chapter 5. Inside the Legislature, or How a Bill Becomes a Law 181

A.	How a Bill Becomes a Law: From Introduction to Publication.....	183
1.	External Rules, Internal Rules, and Norms	185
2.	Bill Introduction and Committee Referral	190
3.	Committee Consideration	192
4.	Committee Reports.....	195
5.	Getting a Measure to the Floor.....	197
6.	Floor Debate and Voting	198
7.	The Second Body—Bicameralism in Action.....	202
8.	Conference Committees	203
9.	Presentment to the President or Governor.....	205
10.	Fostering Robust Deliberation: Legislative Privilege	207
B.	Distinctive Features of State Legislatures ...	211
C.	Budget and Appropriations Measures	215
D.	Structure and Organization of Typical Statutes	218
E.	Direct Democracy	220

Chapter 6. Inside the Administrative State: The Authority and Operation of Government Agencies.....	225
A. Agencies Are Subject to Substantial Legislative Control.....	226
1. Federal Agencies Are Creatures of Statute.....	227
2. State Agencies Also Are Largely Creatures of Statute.....	234
3. Delegation of Authority to Administrative Agencies.....	235
4. Legislative Veto of Agency Action.....	239
5. Fiscal Control of Agencies.....	240
6. Control of Agencies Through Other Forms of Legislative Oversight.....	242
B. Types of Administrative Authority.....	243
C. Procedural Constraints on Agency Operations.....	247
1. The Administrative Procedure Act.....	248
2. State Analogs of the APA.....	253
3. Due Process Constraints.....	254
D. Judicial Review of Agency Action.....	254

PART 2. UNDERSTANDING STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

Chapter 7. The Challenge of Textual Interpretation.....	265
A. The Basic Problem of Meaning and Interpretation.....	266
B. The Need for Textual Interpretation in Law.....	269
1. Examples of Interpretive Problems in the Law.....	269

2.	Categories of Common Interpretive Problems.....	275
a.	Incomplete or Inapt Definitions.....	275
b.	Drafting Errors, Including “Scrivener’s Errors”	277
c.	Absurd Results.....	280
d.	Changed Circumstances.....	281
e.	Unanticipated Consequences	283
f.	Conflicting Provisions.....	285
C.	What the Law Is: Essential Roles of Courts, Legislatures, and Agencies	287
1.	Legal Formalism and Legal Realism: Early Answers.....	289
2.	Legal Process Theory: A 20th-Century Reply.....	293
3.	Lingering Concerns About Willfulness in Interpretation: Who Is to Say “What the Law Is”?	295

Chapter 8. Theories of Statutory

	Interpretation.....	303
A.	Early Approaches to Problems of Statutory Interpretation	305
B.	Intentionalism	314
C.	Purposivism	323
D.	Plain Meaning Interpretation: A Textualist Approach	331
E.	(New) Textualism	341
F.	Pragmatic and Dynamic Interpretation	354

Chapter 9. Canons of Construction and
Other Intrinsic Tools of Interpretation ... 363
A.	Textual Canons as Tools of Interpretation ... 365
1.	Linguistic Canons: Interpretation Using Maxims of Word Meaning and Association 366
a.	Noscitur a sociis 367
b.	Ejusdem generis 369
c.	Expressio unius est exclusio alterius 371
2.	Grammar Canons 374
a.	The Punctuation Canon 375
b.	The Last Antecedent..... 376
c.	May Versus Shall..... 377
d.	And Versus Or..... 378
e.	Plural Versus Singular Nouns; Gendered Pronouns 379
3.	The Whole Act Rule and Its Corollaries 380
a.	The Rule Against Surplusage 383
b.	The Rule of Consistent Usage and Meaningful Variation 384
c.	Titles and Headings..... 384
d.	Preambles, Legislative Findings, and Statements of Purpose 385
e.	Provisos and Exceptions..... 386
f.	The Whole Code Rule 386
B.	Substantive Canons as Tools of Interpretation 387
1.	The Rule of Lenity 388
2.	The Constitutional Avoidance Canon ... 389

3.	The “New Federalism” Canons—Rules That Discourage Intrusions on State Sovereignty	392
4.	Presumption Against Preemption of State Law	395
5.	Statutes in Derogation of the Common Law Are to Be Narrowly or Strictly Construed.....	396
6.	Remedial Measures Are to Be Broadly Construed.....	397
C.	Some Concerns About Canons—Determining Their Proper Scope and Application	398
1.	Karl Llewellyn’s “Thrust and Parry”	399
2.	Interpretive Directions in Statutes	400
3.	Canons as “Neutral” Tools—or Not	402

Chapter 10. Legislative History and Other Extrinsic Tools of Interpretation 405

A.	Interpretation Based on Common Law.....	407
1.	Statutes as Remediating Common Law Defects	408
2.	Statutes as Adopting Common Law Definitions.....	409
3.	Common Law Principles as an Aid to Resolving Ambiguity	410
B.	Interpretation Based on Other Statutes.....	411
1.	“Borrowed” and “Modeled” Statutes.....	411
2.	Statutes “ In Pari Materia ”	413
3.	Coherence with Other Law	415
4.	Presumption Against Implied Repeals	417

C.	Interpretation Based on Legislative History.....	419
1.	Types of “Legislative” and “Statutory” History.....	420
2.	Introductory Note About Objections to Using Legislative History in Interpretation	424
3.	Primary Kinds of Legislative History ...	428
a.	Committee Reports	429
b.	Statements of Sponsors and Drafters	437
c.	Floor Debate and Remarks at Committee Hearings.....	443
d.	Other Contemporaneous Legislative History Materials	446
e.	Post-Enactment Legislative Action and Inaction	450
D.	Addressing Interpretive Problems That Arise from Direct Democracy	456

Chapter 11. Agency Interpretation of Legal

	Text.....	461
A.	Agency Delegation Reprise: Legislative Reliance on Agency Implementation and Interpretation	463
B.	Two Important Agency “Virtues”	466
1.	Agency Expertise	466
2.	Agency Political Accountability	468
C.	Impact of Expertise and Political Accountability on Agency Action	471
1.	Agency Rulemaking	471
2.	Agency Adjudication	474

D. Agencies' Subsequent Revisions of Interpretations of Statutes They Administer (or Their Own Regulations) 476

E. Presumption of Reviewability..... 478

Chapter 12. Judicial Review of Agency

Interpretations 481

A. The Chevron Decision 484

 1. Statutory Issue and Agency Treatment 485

 2. The Supreme Court Decision 486

B. Chevron in Context..... 490

 1. NLRB v. Hearst Publications..... 490

 2. Skidmore v. Swift 493

 3. From Skidmore to Chevron 494

C. The Chevron Doctrine 497

 1. Questions About Chevron Step One 497

 2. Questions About Chevron Step Two..... 505

 3. United States v. Mead: Supreme Court Acknowledgement of a Chevron “Step Zero” 511

D. Lingering Contemporary Puzzles..... 518

 1. What Degree of Deference Should Courts Show to Agency Interpretations That Raise Serious Constitutional Issues? 519

 2. What Degree of Deference Should Courts Show to Agency Interpretations That Implicate Federalism Concerns? 522

 3. What Degree of Deference Should Courts Show to Agency Decisions Regarding Questions of Federal Preemption? 524

4.	What Degree of Deference Should Courts Show to Agency Interpretations of Matters Involving Foreign Affairs or National Security?	526
5.	What Degree of Deference Should Courts Show to Agency Interpretations of Issues of Criminal Law?	527
6.	Should Courts Defer to an Agency's Interpretation of Its Own Jurisdiction or the Scope of Its Delegated Authority?	528
7.	What Degree of Deference Should Courts Show to an Agency's Interpretation of Its Own Regulations and Rules?	530
8.	Does Chevron Deference Permit an Agency to Revise a Previous Judicial Interpretation of a Statute That the Agency Would Otherwise Have Had Congressionally Delegated Authority to Construe Itself?	532
9.	Is There a "Major Questions" Exception to Chevron Deference?	533
E.	State Doctrine	535
	Appendix: Representative Canons of Statutory Interpretation	539
	INDEX	549