

OUTLINE

---

PREFACE TO THE FIFTH EDITION.....	V
TABLE OF CASES .....	XVII

PART ONE. BACKGROUND AND METHODOLOGY

Chapter I. Text, History and Theory .....	3
A. The Marketplace of Ideas Model .....	8
B. The Self-Government Model—Civic Republicanismand Civic Virtue Revived .....	10
C. The Liberty Model—Self-Fulfillment and Autonomy.....	14
D. Additional Theories of Free Expression.....	15
E. Critics of Special Protection for Free Expression.....	17
Chapter II. First Amendment Methodology... ..	19
A. Categorization and Balancing .....	19
B. Content-Based vs. Content-Neutral Regulations .....	27
C. Overbreadth and Vagueness .....	43
D. Prior Restraint.....	55

PART TWO. CONTENT-BASED REGULATION AND LOW-VALUE SPEECH

Chapter III. Advocacy of Illegal Conduct.....	71
Chapter IV. Dangerous and Offensive Speech.....	89
A. Fighting Words .....	89
B. Hostile Audiences.....	95

- C. Offensive Speech ..... 99
- D. True Threats ..... 103

Chapter V. Obscenity and Indecency ..... 109

- A. Obscenity ..... 109
- B. Child Pornography ..... 121
- C. Indecent Speech..... 129
- D. First Amendment “Due Process” ..... 146

Chapter VI. Defamation, Privacy and

Mental Distress..... 151

- A. Constitutionalizing Libel Law ..... 151
- B. Public Figures and Public Issues ..... 156
- C. Public Figures and Private Figures ..... 157
- D. Public Speech and Private Speech ..... 162
- E. Privacy ..... 165
- F. Intentional Infliction of Mental Distress ..... 170

Chapter VII. Commercial Speech ..... 173

- A. Commercial Speech in the Chrestensen Era:
A Categorical Approach ..... 173
- B. The Problem of Defining Commercial
Speech ..... 174
- C. Virginia Pharmacy and New Protection for Commercial Speech ..... 176
- D. Commercial Speech Differentiated from Other Forms of Protected Speech..... 179
- E. The Central Hudson Test: Special or Diminished Protection for Commercial
Speech?..... 182
- F. The Fox and the Central Hudson Test
Revised ..... 185

G.	Lawyer Advertising .....	188
1.	Routine Services .....	188
2.	In-Person Solicitation.....	190
3.	Solicitation Through Print Advertising and Targeted Mailings .....	192
4.	Statements of Certification and Specialization.....	195
H.	Truthful Advertising About Lawful but Harmful Activity .....	197

Chapter VIII. New Categories? .....	211
A. Racist and Abusive Speech .....	211
B. Pornography and Feminism .....	223
C. Refusal to Create New Categories of Unprotected Expression.....	227

PART THREE. GENERAL APPROACHES

Chapter IX. The Public Forum .....	237
A. Regulating the Public Forum .....	237
B. The Nonpublic Forum .....	245
C. Private Property .....	255

Chapter X. Expressive Conduct .....	263
A. Standards for Expressive Conduct.....	264
1. The Definitional Problem.....	264
2. The O'Brien Test.....	267
B. Flag Burning.....	272
C. Nude Dancing .....	279

Chapter XI. Freedom of Association and Belief .....	287
A. Regulation of Group Membership .....	290
B. Government Employment and Benefits.....	291

C.	Registration and Disclosure.....	293
D.	Compelled Association .....	299
E.	The Electoral Process.....	318
F.	Regulating Spending in the Electoral Process—Contributions and Expenditures...	325

Chapter XII. Government Sponsored

	Environments .....	341
A.	Student Speech.....	343
B.	Government Employment.....	355
	1. Defining Public Interest Speech .....	357
	2. Political Activity .....	372
	3. Political Patronage .....	374
C.	Subsidized Speech: Sponsorship or Censorship?.....	379
D.	Summary.....	404

Chapter XIII. Freedom of the Press .....

	407
A.	The Press Clause—"Or of the Press" .....	407
B.	Journalist's Privilege .....	411
	1. Protecting Confidentiality.....	411
	2. Burning the Source.....	421
C.	Gagging the Press .....	425
	1. Introduction .....	425
	2. The Nebraska Press Case.....	428
D.	Silencing the Bar and Other Trial Participants .....	430
E.	Access to the Courtroom .....	435
	1. Trial Proceedings.....	436
	2. Pretrial Proceedings.....	440
	3. Summary.....	444
F.	Access to the Media .....	445
	1. Access to the Electronic Media .....	445

PART FOUR. FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Chapter XIV. Text, History and Theory of the Religion Clauses ..... 461

Chapter XV. The Antiestablishment
Clause ..... 477

A. Government Financial Aid to Religious
Institutions ..... 482

B. Religion in the Schools ..... 495

    1. Released Time and Equal Access ..... 495

    2. Religious Exercise in the Schools ..... 507

    3. Religion and Curriculum Control ..... 515

C. Government Acknowledgement of Religion ..... 517

D. Related Establishment Clause Problems ..... 534

    1. Taxation and Tax Exemptions ..... 534

    2. Sabbath Day Observance Laws ..... 538

    3. Establishment Clause Miscellany ..... 540

E. The Establishment Clause Today ..... 545

Chapter XVI. The Free Exercise Clause ..... 547

A. Belief/Opinion or Conduct ..... 549

B. Direct or Indirect Burdens ..... 552

C. The Reign of Compelling Interest
Analysis ..... 554

D. The Problem of Judicial Exemptions ..... 563

    1. Religion in Government-Sponsored
Environments ..... 565

    2. The Burdens That Count ..... 569

    3. Neutrality, Exemptions and Ascendant
Accommodationism ..... 574

INDEX ..... 593