Table of Contents

Preface to the Second Edition .......................................................... V

Preface to the First Edition ............................................................ VII

Acknowledgments ............................................................................. XI

Table of Cases ................................................................................... XLI

Chapter I. A Framework for U.S. Human Rights Advocacy .......... 1

I. Introduction ......................................................................................... 1

II. Defining Human Rights Norms for U.S. Advocacy ....................... 2

   A. Human Rights in the Modern Era .................................................. 3

      Louis Henkin, The Age of Rights .............................................. 4

      Notes & Questions ..................................................................... 8

      Oscar Schachter, “Human Dignity as a Normative Concept” .... 9

      Notes & Questions ................................................................ 12

   B. Formalizing Human Rights ............................................................ 14

      The Universal Declaration of Human Rights ............................. 15

      Notes & Questions ................................................................ 20

      Notes & Questions ................................................................ 24

   C. Critiquing Human Rights ............................................................... 27

      i. Feminist Critiques ................................................................. 27

         Hilary Charlesworth, Christine Chinkin, and Shelly Wright,
         “Feminist Approaches to International Law” ......................... 28

         Tracy E. Higgins, “Anti-essentialism, Relativism, and Human Rights” .................................................................. 33

         Notes & Questions .............................................................. 36

      ii. Cultural Relativism and Essentialism ..................................... 37

         Makau wa Mutua, “Savages, Victims, and Saviors: The Metaphor of Human Rights” ............................................... 38

         David Kennedy, “The International Human Rights Movement: Part of the Problem?” .................................... 42

         Notes & Questions .............................................................. 44

III. Using Human Rights Strategies to Advance U.S. Advocacy .......... 45

   Margaret Huang, “‘Going Global’: Appeals to International and Regional Human Rights Bodies” .................................................. 47

IV. Case Study: Challenging Juvenile Life Without Parole: How Has
   Human Rights Made a Difference? .................................................. 51

   Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 65
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter II. The Place of Human Rights in the United States .......... 67

I. Human Rights in the Foundational Era .................................. 67
   A. Founding Philosophies ................................................. 67
      Paul Gordon Lauren, “A Human Rights Lens on U.S. History:
      Human Rights at Home and Human Rights Abroad” .......... 68
      Louis Henkin, “Rights: American and Human” .................... 71
      Notes & Questions ..................................................... 73
   B. The Judicial Branch and Human Rights: The Paquete Habana . 74
      The Paquete Habana ...................................................... 75
      Notes & Questions ..................................................... 77

II. American Rights and Human Rights in the 20th Century .......... 78
   A. Human Rights and Constitutional Interpretation .................... 78
   B. Human Rights and Government Obligations .......................... 79
      Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Address to Congress (“The Four Freedoms Speech”) ...................................................... 80
      Elizabeth Borgwardt, “FDR’s Four Freedoms and Wartime
      Transformations” ......................................................... 82
      Notes & Questions ..................................................... 86
   C. Human Rights and Domestic Advocacy ................................ 88
      i. American Exceptionalism and Advocacy for Racial Justice ... 88
         Carol Anderson, “A ‘Hollow Mockery’: African Americans,
         White Supremacy, and the Development of Human Rights in the United States” ........................................ 89 Cynthia Soohoo, “Human Rights and the Transformation of the ‘Civil Rights’ and ‘Civil Liberties’ Lawyer” .................. 91
         Notes & Questions ..................................................... 94
      ii. Public Interest Advocacy ............................................. 95
         Scott Cummings, “The Internationalization of Public Interest Law” ............................................................ 96
         Notes & Questions ..................................................... 98

III. Contemporary Relationship to Human Rights—U.S. Exceptionalism ... 98
   John McCain, Why We Must Support Human Rights ................... 103 Jack Landman Goldsmith, “International Human Rights Law and the United States Double Standard” .................................... 106
   Notes & Questions ..................................................... 111
   U.S. Human Rights Commitments and Pledges on Joining the U.N.
   Human Rights Council .................................................. 113
   U.S. Human Rights Network, Executive Summary of U.S.
   Stakeholders’ Reports .................................................... 117
   Alan Jenkins and Kevin Hsu, “American Ideals and Human Rights:
   Findings from New Public Opinion Research from the Opportunity Agenda” ...................................................... 121
   Notes & Questions ..................................................... 124
Table of Contents

Chapter III. The United States and the U.N. Human Rights Treaties

I. The Status of Human Rights Treaties in Domestic Law

* A. The Ratification Debates: CEDAW and CRPD .......................... 128

  President Barack Obama, Letter of Transmittal to the Senate of the United States ....................................................................... 132

  Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 134

  Skills Exercise ............................................................................ 135

  B. Limiting the Impact of Ratification—Reservations, Understandings, and Declarations ..................................................... 136

  U.S. Senate Executive Report 102–23 ............................................. 137

  Louis Henkin, “U.S. Ratification of Human Rights Conventions: The Ghost of Senator Bricker” .................................................. 143

  Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 148

  C. What Effect? The Problem of Unratified Treaties .................. 151

  Curtis A. Bradley, “Unratified Treaties, Domestic Politics, and the U.S. Constitution” ................................................................. 152

  Brief of the European Union and Members of the International Community as Amici Curiae in Support of Respondent, Roper v. Simmons ................................................................. 153

  Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 156

II. Enforcing Treaty Rights in United States Courts ............... 157

* A. Defining Non-Self-Execution ...................................................... 158

  David Sloss, “The Domestication of International Human Rights: Non-Self Executing Declarations and Human Rights Treaties” ................................................................. 158

  Carlos Manuel Vázquez, “Treaties as Law of the Land: The Supremacy Clause and the Judicial Enforcement of Treaties” ................................................................. 162

  Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 165

  B. Determining Whether a Treaty Is Non-Self-Executing ........ 166

  White v. Paulsen ........................................................................ 166

  Medellin v. Texas ........................................................................ 169

  Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 175

  Skills Exercise ............................................................................ 178

III. Implementing Legislation .................................................. 180

* A. The Power to Implement .......................................................... 181

  Margaret E. McGuinness, “Foreword” ........................................ 181

  State of Missouri v. Holland .......................................................... 183
Curtis A. Bradley, “The Treaty Power and American Federalism” ................................................................. 187
Notes & Questions .................................................................................................................................................. 190
B. Designing Implementing Legislation .............................................................................................................. 194
   Implementing Legislation” ................................................................................................................................. 194
   Notes & Questions ................................................................................................................................................ 197
C. Focus on: The Haitian Refugee Litigation ........................................................................................................ 197
   Sale v. Haitian Centers Council, Inc. .................................................................................................................. 199
   Notes & Questions ................................................................................................................................................ 210

Chapter IV. Customary International Law in U.S. Courts .............................................................................. 213
I. Introduction ......................................................................................................................................................... 213
II. Defining Customary International Law ........................................................................................................... 214
   A. The Restatement (Third) ................................................................................................................................. 214
      Restatement (Third) of Foreign Relations Law, § 102 ................................................................................. 214
      Restatement (Third) of Foreign Relations Law, § 103 ................................................................................. 216
   B. Customary International Law Norms and Jurisprudence .......................................................................... 217
      Filartiga v. Pena-Irala ..................................................................................................................................... 217
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................... 222
      Skills Exercise ................................................................................................................................................ 224
III. Customary International Law in the U.S. Legal System ............................................................................. 224
   Louis Henkin, “International Law as Law in the United States” ................................................................. 225
   Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................................ 232
IV. Enforcing Customary International Law .................................................................................................... 235
   A. Charming Betsy ............................................................................................................................................. 236
      Beharry v. Reno .............................................................................................................................................. 236
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................... 240
   B. The Alien Tort Statute ................................................................................................................................. 243
      Sosa v. Alvarez-Machain ................................................................................................................................. 244
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................... 250
      Kiobel v. Royal Dutch Petroleum Co. ........................................................................................................... 252
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................... 260
      Kiobel v. Royal Dutch Petroleum Co. ........................................................................................................... 262
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................... 267
V. The ATS and the Torture Victim Protection Act ....................................................................................... 270
   Enahoro v. Abubakar ....................................................................................................................................... 271
   Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................................. 275
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter V. Using Foreign and International Law as Persuasive Authority

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Introduction</td>
<td>277</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Supreme Court’s Citation of Foreign and International Law</td>
<td>278</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roper v. Simmons</td>
<td>278</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Graham v. Florida</td>
<td>288</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>290</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Foreign Citation Debate</td>
<td>291</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Remarks by Sandra Day O’Connor, Associate Justice, United States Supreme Court</td>
<td>292</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Constitutional Relevance of Foreign Court Decisions</td>
<td>294</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>301</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vicki C. Jackson, “Constitutional Comparisons: Convergence, Resistance, Engagement”</td>
<td>302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roger P. Alford, “Misusing International Sources to Interpret the Constitution”</td>
<td>305</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State v. T. Makwanyane and Another</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>311</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brief of Amici Curiae Human Rights Advocates et al. in Support of Respondents, Fisher v. University of Texas at Austin</td>
<td>313</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>321</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skills Exercise</td>
<td>322</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Foreign and International Law in State Courts</td>
<td>329</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. International Law as Direct Authority</td>
<td>330</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>i. Raising Treaty Obligations in State Courts:</td>
<td>330</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commonwealth v. Gautreaux</td>
<td>331</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>334</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ii. Raising Customary International Law in State Courts</td>
<td>335</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brief of Amici Curiae Center for Economic and Social Rights et al., Sojourner v. New Jersey Social Services</td>
<td>337</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>338</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Using International and Foreign Law as Persuasive Authority in State Courts</td>
<td>339</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>i. Justifications for Raising International and Foreign Law in State Courts</td>
<td>339</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Martha Davis, “The Spirit of Our Times: State Constitutions and International Human Rights”</td>
<td>344</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>349</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Table of Contents

ii. International and Foreign Law as Persuasive Authority in State Constitutional Interpretation
- Sterling v. Cupp ................................................. 351
- Moore v. Ganim .................................................. 353
- In re Mark C.H. .................................................. 355
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 357

iii. International and Foreign Law as Persuasive Authority in State Statutory and Common Law Interpretation
- Boehm v. Superior Court ........................................... 361
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 363
- Helen Hershkoff, “‘Just Words’: Common Law and the Enforcement of State Constitutional Social and Economic Rights” .................................................. 364
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 369

iv. State and Local Resistance to International & Foreign Law
- Martha F. Davis and Johanna Kalb, “Oklahoma and Beyond: Understanding the Wave of State Anti-Transnational Law Initiatives” .................................................. 370
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 376
- Skills Exercise .................................................... 376
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 381

Chapter VI. State and Local Implementation ........................................ 383

I. Introduction .................................................. 383

II. Human Rights Implementation by State and Local Governments .... 385

A. The Case for Local Implementation .................................. 386
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 392

B. Strategies for Implementing Human Rights at the Local Level ... 395

i. Adopting Human Rights Commitments .................................. 395
- Carrboro, North Carolina Board of Alderman, A Resolution Adopting the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as Guiding Principles .................................................. 395
- City Council of Chicago, Expression of Support for Convention on the Rights of the Child .................................................. 397
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 398
- United States Conference of Mayors, Resolution, Promoting and Encouraging International Human Rights .................................................. 399
- Notes & Questions ............................................... 401

ii. Reframing Local Concerns as Human Rights Issues ................. 401
- Common Council of City of Madison, That Housing Be Recognized as a Human Right, and That the City of Madison Will Work with Dane County, Surrounding Municipalities, and Community Partners to Develop a...
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Housing Plan and Address Housing Issues in the Region ................................................................. 402
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 404

iii. Conducting Human Rights Based Audits and Impact Assessments ........................................ 404
San Francisco Department on the Status of Women, CEDAW in Action: Local Implementation in the City and County of San Francisco .......................................................... 405
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 409

iv. Reporting on Local Compliance with Human Rights Treaties .................................................. 411
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 411

C. The Role of State, Local, and Tribal Human Rights Commissions ............................................ 412
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 413

D. Challenges to Human Rights Implementation by State and Local Governments ......................... 413
i. Pre-Emption ................................................................................................................................... 413
Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council ...................................................................................... 414
American Insurance Association v. Garamendi ............................................................................. 420
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 426

ii. Coordination and Capacity ........................................................................................................ 429
Risa E. Kaufman, “By Some Other Means: Considering the Executive’s Role in Fostering Subnational Human Rights Compliance” ................................................................. 429
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 431
Remarks of Mary McLeod, Acting Legal Adviser, to the National Association of Attorneys General National Conference ........................................................................................................ 432
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 435

iii. Backlash: State and Local Opposition to Ratification ............................................................ 435
Urging the Members of the United States Senate to Oppose Ratification of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child ........................................................................ 436
Notes & Questions ............................................................................................................................. 438
Skills Exercise ...................................................................................................................................... 438

Chapter VII. The Interdependence of Rights: Advancing Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights Alongside Civil and Political Rights in the U.S. .......................................................... 439

I. Introduction ..................................................................................................................................... 439
A. Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights in the U.S. Legal System ........................................... 439
B. The Content of Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights ........................................................... 440

II. The United States’ Stance on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights ........................................ 442
President Franklin D. Roosevelt, State of the Union Address ......................................................... 443
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Notes &amp; Questions</th>
<th>........................................................</th>
<th>445</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Philip Alston, “Putting Economic, Social and Cultural Rights Back on the Agenda of the United States”</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>446</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>454</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. The Challenges of Engaging in Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights Advocacy</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>455</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>457</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>463</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Theoretical Approaches to Advancing the Full Spectrum of Rights in the U.S.</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>464</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cathy Albisa, “Drawing Lines in the Sand: Building Economic and Social Rights Norms in the United States”</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>465</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>470</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gillian MacNaughton, “Untangling Equality and Non-Discrimination to Promote the Right to Health Care for All”</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>471</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>475</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Practice-Oriented Approaches to Integrating a Human Rights Frame into ESC Rights Advocacy</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>476</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Martha F. Davis, “Human Rights in the Trenches: Using International Human Rights Law in Everyday Legal Aid Cases”</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>477</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. Peter Sabonis, Using a Human Rights Framework at the Maryland Legal Aid Bureau</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>482</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>485</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Risa E. Kaufman, “Framing Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights at the U.N.”</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>486</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>489</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI. Case Study and Skills Exercise: Right to Housing</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>491</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Case Study: The Human Right to Housing</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>492</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>i. International Law</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>492</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ii. International Human Rights and U.S. Housing Law and Practice</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>494</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>iii. Comparative Precedents</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>496</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>iv. Local Resolutions in the U.S.</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>498</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Skills Exercise: Human Right to Housing</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>498</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>i. The Facts and the Challenge</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>498</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ii. The Law: Selected Domestic Constitutional and Charter Provisions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>499</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>........................................................</td>
<td>501</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chapter VIII. Engaging International and Regional Mechanisms for Domestic Advocacy ............................................. 503
I. Introduction ............................................................................................. 503
II. U.N. Mechanisms ................................................................................. 504
   A. U.N. Human Rights Treaty Monitoring Bodies ......................... 504
   U.N. Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, Concluding Observations on the Combined Seventh to Ninth Periodic Reports of the United States of America .... 516
   Notes & Questions .................................................................................. 516
   Columbia Law School Human Rights Institute and American Civil Liberties Union, United States’ Compliance with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, Suggested List of Issues to Country Report Task Force on the United States ......................................................... 520
   List of Issues in Relation to the Fourth Periodic Report of the United States of America, Addendum: Replies of the United States of America to the List of Issues ........................................ 525
   American Civil Liberties Union, “United States Compliance with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, Shadow Report to the Fourth Periodic Report of the United States” ................................................................. 528
   U.N. Human Rights Committee, Concluding Observations on the Fourth Periodic Report by the United States ............ 532
   Notes & Questions .................................................................................. 533
   Kerstin Martens, “NGOs in the UN System: Examining Formal and Informal Mechanisms of Interaction” ................................. 534
   Steven Groves, “The Inequities of the U.N. Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination” ....................................... 535
   Notes & Questions .................................................................................. 537
   Rebecca Ingber, “Interpretation Catalysts and Executive Branch Legal Decisionmaking” ......................................................... 538
   Notes & Questions .................................................................................. 539
Rights Shadow Reporting: A Strategic Tool for Domestic Justice ................................................................. 540
Notes & Questions .............................................................................................................................................. 542
B. U.N. Charter Bodies .......................................................................................................................................... 543
   i. Universal Periodic Review ............................................................................................................................ 543
      Report of the United States of America, Submitted to the U.N. High Commissioner for Human Rights, in Conjunction with the Universal Periodic Review ............................................................................................ 545
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 550
      Harold Hongju Koh, Legal Adviser, U.S. Department of State, Statement upon Adoption of Universal Periodic
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 555
   ii. Special Procedures ....................................................................................................................................... 558
      Human Rights” .............................................................................................................................................. 559
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 564
      Report of the Special Rapporteur on the Human Right to Safe Drinking Water and Sanitation, Addendum:
      Mission to the United States of America (22 Feb.–4 Mar. 2011) ................................................................ 566
      Letter From Catarina de Albuquerque, U.N. Special Rapporteur on the Human Right to Safe Drinking
      Water and Sanitation, to Kevin Johnson, Mayor of the City of Sacramento ................................................. 573
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 576
      Joint Press Statement by Special Rapporteur on Adequate Housing as a Component of the Right to an Adequate
      Standard of Living and the Right to Non-discrimination in This Context, and Special Rapporteur on the Human Right to Safe Drinking Water and Sanitation, Visit to City of Detroit (United States of America) .................... 579
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 583
      Complaint to U.N. Special Rapporteur on Extreme Poverty and Human Rights Regarding U.S. Failure to Protect
      Legal Service Providers’ Access to Migrant Farmworkers ............................................................................ 586
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 588
   C. Leveraging U.N. “Wins” Back in U.S. Courts ............................................................................................ 588
      Brief of Amici Curiae the Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights et al. in Support of Respondents Regarding Medicaid Expansion, National Federation of Independent Business v. Sebelius ........................................... 589
      Notes & Questions ........................................................................................................................................ 593
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Skills Exercise: Engaging with U.N. Mechanisms</td>
<td>594</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. The Inter-American Human Rights System</td>
<td>598</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Introduction</td>
<td>598</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>606</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Case Study: Engaging the Inter-American System to Address Violence Against Women</td>
<td>610</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jessica Lenahan (Gonzales) v. United States</td>
<td>611</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>617</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Editorial, “A Phony Human Rights Case”</td>
<td>621</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jessica Lenahan, Guest Commentary, “Failing Victims of Violence”</td>
<td>621</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>623</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skills Exercise</td>
<td>623</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners, Resolution</td>
<td>623</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Expressing the Board’s Intent to Declare That the Freedom from Domestic Violence Is a Fundamental Human Right</td>
<td>623</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>625</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Case Study: Using Human Rights Mechanisms to Mobilize for Domestic Change: The Western Shoshone</td>
<td>629</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>636</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chapter IX. Human Rights Reporting</td>
<td>639</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Introduction</td>
<td>639</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Initial Considerations: Legitimacy and Impact</td>
<td>640</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>644</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. Guidelines for Conducting Human Rights Fact-Finding</td>
<td>646</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.N. Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, Chapter 5:</td>
<td>647</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Basic Principles of Monitoring</td>
<td>647</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>658</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Fact-Finding Methodology</td>
<td>659</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Human Rights Watch, “About our Research”</td>
<td>660</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes &amp; Questions</td>
<td>665</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
TABLE OF CONTENTS

V. Integrating Fact-Finding into Advocacy

Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 673

VI. Spotlight: Human Rights Reporting on Alabama Immigration Law

Human Rights Watch, “No Way to Live: Alabama’s Immigrant Law” ............................................................................. 675

Joey Kennedy, Editorial, “Bear Witness to a Wrong, Then Tell All” .................................................................................... 682

Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 684

Chapter X. Community Mobilization

I. Accounts of Human Rights and Mobilization in the United States

Fernando Garcia, “Human Rights and Immigration in the U.S.: An Experience of Border Immigrant Communities” ......................... 689

Greg Asbed, “Coalition of Immokalee Workers: ‘¡Golpear a Uno Es Golpear a Todos!’ To Beat One of Us Is To Beat Us All!” .................. 693

Mariah McGill, “Human Rights From the Grassroots Up: Vermont’s Campaign for Universal Health Care” ........................................... 701

Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 706

II. Human Rights in U.S. Organizing: Uneven Acceptance

Sally Engle Merry, Peggy Levitt, Mihaela Serban Rosen and Diana H. Yoon, “Women’s Human Rights and Social Movements in New York City” ........................................................................ 710

Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 714

III. Human Rights in the U.S.: Re-Framing the Conversation

Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 717

IV. Case Study: Mobilization, Human Rights and Legal Advocacy After Hurricanes Katrina and Rita

Davida Finger and Rachel E. Luft, “No Shelter: Disaster Politics in Louisiana and the Struggle for Human Rights” ......................... 720

Stand With Dignity, “Through My Eyes: Louisiana’s First Independent Evacuation Shelter Monitoring Report” ............................. 724

Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 727

Chapter XI. Ethics and Domestic Human Rights Lawyering

I. Professional Ethics Codes and Human Rights

A. A Survey of Legal Ethics Codes .................................................. 732

  i. The ABA Model Rules ................................................................. 732

  Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 734
TABLE OF CONTENTS

- ii. The Japanese Regulations ................................................................. 735
  - Basic Regulations for Attorneys’ Duties (Bengoshi Shokumu Kihon Kitei) ................................................................. 735
  - Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 736
- iii. The International Bar Association Principles ............................... 736
  - International Bar Association: International Principles on Conduct for the Legal Profession ........................................... 737
  - Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 738

B. Would Lawyers Behave Differently if Ethics Rules Referenced Human Rights? ................................................................. 740
- i. Specific Ethics Standards ................................................................. 740
  - Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 742
- ii. The Torture Memos ....................................................................... 743
  - Notes & Questions ........................................................................ 746

II. Corporate Social Responsibility and Legal Practice ......................... 747
- American Bar Association Report Accompanying the Resolution Endorsing the Guiding Principles ........................................ 752
- Notes & Questions ............................................................................ 756
- Skills Exercise .................................................................................... 756

III. Human Rights and Public Interest Lawyering ................................ 757
- Dina F. Haynes, “Client-Centered Human Rights Advocacy” ............. 758
- Scott Cummings, “The Internationalization of Public Interest Law” .... 759
- Notes & Questions ............................................................................ 763
- Skills Exercise .................................................................................... 765

Appendix A. Select Human Rights Instruments of the United Nations ................................. 767

Appendix B. Select Instruments of the Inter-American Human Rights System ................................................. 911

INDEX ........................................................................................................... 941