

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1. Introduction to the Death Penalty .....	1
I. William Henry Furman and the Death Penalty.....	1
II. Ancient and Medieval History .....	6
III. The Early American Experience.....	8
A. English Common Law, Colonial Practice, and the Founding .....	8
B. The Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century .....	10
IV. Furman v. Georgia .....	12
A. The Trial.....	13
B. Litigating the Supreme Court Case .....	14
C. The Decision.....	15
1. The Abolitionist Opinions.....	16
2. The Retentionist Opinions .....	17
3. The Median Opinions .....	19
V. Aftermath as Prelude .....	21
A. Legislative Response .....	21
B. Academic Response.....	23
C. The Contemporary American Death Penalty .....	24
D. The Death Penalty Internationally .....	24
VI. Roadmap.....	25
 Chapter 2. Eligibility and Selection .....	 29
I. Introduction .....	29
II. Penal Theory of Capital Punishment.....	33
A. Retributivism .....	34
B. Consequentialism (and Deterrence) .....	35
C. Synthetic Theory.....	37
III. Eligibility (Narrowing) .....	38
A. Eligibility Doctrine .....	41
1. Degree and Specificity of Eligibility Restriction ....	41
2. Institutional Source of Eligibility Restriction .....	44
3. Judicial Remedies for Invalid Eligibility Criteria .....	45
4. Appropriate Phase for Eligibility Restriction .....	46
5. Applying Eligibility Restrictions: Judges v. Juries .....	47
B. Eligibility in Practice .....	49
IV. Selection (Individualization).....	52
A. Selection Doctrine .....	53
1. Early Cases on Jury Consideration of Mitigating Evidence .....	54
2. The “Penry” Cases.....	56
B. Selection in Practice .....	59
V. Conclusion .....	62
 Chapter 3. Categorical Exemptions .....	 65
I. Introduction .....	65
II. Penal Theory .....	66
III. Legal Doctrine.....	67
A. Eighth Amendment Background Cases .....	68

TABLE OF CONTENTS

B.	Categorical Offense Exemptions.....	70
1.	Rape .....	71
2.	Felony Murder.....	75
C.	Categorical Offender Exemptions.....	77
1.	Execution Competency .....	78
2.	Intellectual Disability.....	79
3.	Juveniles.....	82
IV.	Modern Rules and Questions .....	85
Chapter 4. Race and the Death Penalty .....		89
I.	Introduction .....	89
II.	Pre-Modern History .....	90
III.	The Baldus Study and McCleskey v. Kemp .....	93
A.	The Litigation .....	94
B.	The Decision.....	96
IV.	Post- McCleskey Treatment of Race Effects.....	99
A.	Criminology and Empirical Research.....	99
B.	Race Effects and State Law .....	100
V.	Race and Jury Selection.....	102
A.	Questioning Potential Jurors .....	103
B.	Batson and Peremptory Challenges .....	104
VI.	Conclusion .....	109
Chapter 5. Patterns .....		111
I.	Introduction .....	111
II.	The American Law of Comparative Proportionality .....	111
A.	Eighth Amendment Comparative Proportionality Rule.....	112
B.	Sub-Constitutional Comparative Proportionality Rules .....	114
III.	Normative Issues Involving Consistent Treatment .....	115
A.	Particularizing Equality.....	115
B.	Equality as Derivative or Stand-Alone Principle .....	116
C.	Reconciling Equality with Other Commitments.....	119
IV.	What Dictates Patterns.....	120
A.	“Perfect” Administration .....	120
B.	Major Drivers of Capital Punishment Activity.....	122
V.	Conclusion .....	128
Chapter 6. Capital Trials .....		131
I.	Introduction .....	131
II.	Defense Counsel.....	131
A.	Providing Counsel.....	134
B.	Investigation and Capital Defense .....	136
C.	The Sixth Amendment Right to Reasonable Investigation .....	138
D.	Defense Counsel’s Plea Bargaining Obligations.....	142
III.	The Prosecutor .....	144
A.	Constitutional Obligations .....	145
B.	Plea Bargaining .....	149
IV.	Jury Selection .....	151
A.	Death Qualification and Other Constitutional Rules .....	152
1.	Death Qualification.....	152

TABLE OF CONTENTS

V.	2. Other Constitutional Rules .....	154
	B. Innovation in Jury Selection .....	156
V.	Constitutional Rules of Evidence .....	158
	A. Future Dangerousness .....	158
	B. Victim Impact Evidence .....	162
VI.	Conclusion .....	163
Chapter 7. Post-Conviction Litigation .....		165
I.	Introduction .....	165
II.	Relitigation.....	166
	A. Finality Doctrines .....	167
	B. The Need for Post-Conviction Litigation.....	170
	C. Post-Conviction Litigation in Capital Cases.....	172
	1. Federal Claims Common to Capital and Noncapital Litigation.....	173
	2. Federal Claims Specific to Capital Litigation .....	174
D.	State Post-Conviction Remedies .....	176
E.	Federal Post-Conviction Remedies .....	178
	1. Limits on Relief Specific to State Inmates .....	179
	2. Limits on Relief Common to State and Federal Inmates .....	182
III.	Litigation Under Warrant.....	183
	A. Executing the Condemned .....	185
	B. Method-of-Execution Challenges .....	188
	1. Existing Methods of Execution .....	189
	2. Method-of-Execution Litigation .....	191
	3. Execution Secrecy Litigation.....	193
C.	Why There Is So Much Litigation Under Warrant .....	194
IV.	Clemency .....	196
Chapter 8. Innocence and the Death Penalty .....		199
I.	Introduction .....	199
II.	Death Row Exonerations.....	202
	A. Sentencing Innocent People .....	202
	B. Executing Innocent People .....	207
	C. Causes of Wrongful Convictions in Capital Cases.....	210
III.	Innocence and the Constitution.....	213
	A. Innocence as Freestanding Post-Conviction Claim .....	213
	B. Innocence as Post-Conviction Gateway .....	217
	C. Actual Innocence of the Death Penalty .....	220
IV.	Innocence and Institutional Reform.....	222
	A. Critiquing the Innocence Frame .....	222
	B. Innocence and the Abolition Movement .....	223
V.	Conclusion .....	225
Chapter 9. The Future of the Death Penalty .....		227
I.	Introduction .....	227
II.	International Trends .....	228
III.	The Future of the Death Penalty in the United States .....	235
	A. Declining Use at the State Level .....	236
	B. Localism and the Death Penalty.....	240
	C. Changing Public Opinion .....	243
	D. The Supreme Court .....	245
IV.	Conclusion .....	246

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF CASES .....	249
INDEX.....	251