

Table of Contents

---

	Page
LIST OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS: KOZOLCHYK NATIONAL LAW CENTER .....	V
FOREWORD.....	VII
PROLOGUE TO THE SECOND EDITION .....	IX
PART I. OVERVIEW, METHODOLOGY, FORMATION AND EVOLUTION OF COMMERCIAL PROMISES
CHAPTER 1. GUIDING THEMES AND CONTENT OF THIS BOOK .....	3
§ 1.1 Introduction .....	3
§ 1.2 Guiding Themes.....	3
A. Whether as a science or as an art, the law is about people, and the law of commercial contracts is inseparable from the merchants who practice it and from the culture that surrounds them. ....	3
B. Standard as well as fiduciary practices, are responsible for the effectiveness and longevity of commercial law and the economic development they bring about. ....	5
C. Two tools for identifying lasting standard and fiduciary practices include: 1) legal principles capable of synthesizing fiduciary practices, and 2) archetypal, reasonable behavior. ....	9
D. There is recent scientific support for selfishness, cooperation and altruism as integral parts of human nature and commerce. ....	10
E. Sub-Standard Contracts—Often Simulated—Are Found in All Legal Systems .....	15
F. The Countries whose private law stems from the French and Spanish Civil and Commercial Codes draw a consequential line between their “civil” and commercial contracts. ....	17
1. The Different Meanings of Contract and Promise in Present Day Commercial and Financial Markets .....	17
2. The Dichotomy of Civil and Commercial Contracts .....	19
G. In familistic societies, contracting parties do not provide to strangers the same contractual benefits and protections that they provide to members of their family, clan, or tribe. ....	20
H. Contracts as Indispensable Macro and Micro Economic Tools, Especially When Helping to Determine Realistic Prices .....	23
§ 1.3 Content of the Book .....	24
§ 1.4 The Frequent Use of Cross References and Short Summaries of Lessons Previously Learned.....	27
§ 1.5 Appendix: Understanding Japan’s Corporate and Legal Culture.....	28
A. Introduction.....	28
B. The Matsushita Decision.....	28
C. The Supreme Court’s Reasoning .....	29
D. Whose Legal Cultural Perspective? Whose Rationality? .....	31

E.	Professor Dan F. Henderson’s Views on Japanese Corporate Culture	34
F.	Personal Observations on German, Japanese and United States Business and Corporate Cultures	35
G.	The Transaction, Its Parties and Required Assurances	35
H.	The Independence or Abstraction of the Promises and Their Assurances	36
I.	The United States Position	37
J.	Germany’s and Japan’s Positions	37
K.	Micro-Contractual Policies	39
CHAPTER 2. METHODOLOGY		41
§ 2.1	The Comparative Method of This Book	41
A.	Scientific Origins	41
B.	Different Methods of Comparison	41
1.	The Static Comparison	41
2.	The Contextual Comparison and the Purpose of Legal Institutions: Rudolph von Ihering’s Views	43
3.	The Contextual Comparison: Actual Purposes and Practices	45
4.	Archetypal Behavior and Contextual Analysis	46
a.	The Costs of Relying on Inaccurate or Unrepresentative Archetypes of Commercial Behavior When Making Commercial Contract Law	47
b.	Archetypal Behavior in Simple and Complex Transactions: Standard and Fiduciary Practices and Their Economic Significance	49
5.	Von Ihering’s and Justice Cardozo’s Contextual Analysis and Cultural Anthropology	50
6.	Micro-Loans and Archetypal Women Entrepreneurs: Cultural Anthropology and the Reduction of Poverty	53
§ 2.2	Two Methods of Legal Reasoning: Legal Scholasticism and the Logic of the Reasonable	54
A.	Legal Scholasticism	54
1.	Facts and Scholastic Legal Institutions	56
2.	Dialectics, Axioms and Maxims	56
3.	The Syllogism	57
4.	Economic Development Consequences of Scholastic Classifications and Definitions	58
B.	The Logic of the Reasonable	60
1.	The Logic of the Reasonable as Described by Professor Recasens Siches	61
2.	The Logic of the Reasonable as the “Logic of Merchants” in Anglo-American Law	63
a.	Summary of Lord Mansfield’s Landmark Decision on the Law of Negotiable Instruments: How Standard and Fiduciary Practices Are Established	63
	Comments and Questions	63
b.	Judge Friendly’s Explanation of What Is “Contractually Reasonable”	65
	Comments and Questions on Fairness and Reasonableness	65

	c. On Fiduciaries and Their Brotherly Behavior: Justice Cardozo's Decision in Meinhard v. Salmon .....	66
	C. A Preponderantly Factual and Analogical Logic.....	67
	1. A Preponderantly Factual Logic.....	67
	2. Analogy and Reasoning by Example.....	70
§ 2.3	Summary and Conclusions: A Proposed Research and Drafting Methodology.....	72
§ 2.4	Appendix: Access to Commercial Credit at Reasonable Rates of Interest.....	73
	A. X's Socio-Economic Context.....	74
	B. X's Legal Context.....	75
	C. The NatLaw 12 Principles of Secured Transactions Law in the Americas.....	77
	D. The Drafting of X's Secured Transactions Law: The U.C.C. and the Canadian PPSA as Legislative Models.....	80
	E. The Roadmap Study.....	82
	1. National Identity Card as a Qualifier for the Legal Status of a Securing Debtor ( Deudor Garante ).....	83
	2. Archetypal Coyotes and Usurers in Agricultural Loans.....	83
	3. The Negative Effects of the Scholastic Classification of "Principal and Accessory".....	83
	4. The Problems with Cattle Loans.....	84
	5. Loans to Market and Street Stall Operators: Taxes, Legal Culture and Its Effects upon Transparency.....	84
	6. The Need for Reliable Accounting Data: The Importance of Accounts Receivable Collateral.....	85
	7. Some Remedial Lessons Learned from Experienced Trial Lawyers.....	85
	F. Conclusions.....	86
CHAPTER 3. THE LAW OF CONTRACTS IN A PRE-COMMERCIAL OR AGRICULTURAL SURVIVAL SOCIETY.....		87
§ 3.1	Introduction: Why Bother with Pre-Commercial Society?.....	87
§ 3.2	On Status and Contract: Sir Henry Main's Observations.....	89
§ 3.3	Duties Derived from "Dense" and Reciprocal Relationships.....	91
	A. Absence of Market Dependence: Communal Living vs. a Commercial Association.....	91
	B. The Costs of a Community Method of Production and Distribution..... Comments, Questions and Cross References.....	92
	C. Reciprocity and Gift Giving..... Comment: On Gift Giving and Consideration.....	93
	D. Redistribution.....	96
§ 3.4	Impersonal Relationships in Free Market Societies.....	96
§ 3.5	"Dense" Transactions: A Perennial Obstacle to Competition.....	97
§ 3.6	Principles Originated in Pre-Commercial Societies.....	98
	A. Unequal Treatment of Strangers.....	98
	B. Valuable Property Is Not to Be Sold, but to Be Kept in the Family Fold.....	99
	C. Continuous and Unlimited Familial Liability for What Was Conveyed or Sold.....	100

	D. A “Harmful” Agency Is Not Binding on the Principal .....	101
	E. Unenforceability of Executory Promises .....	101
§ 3.7	Anthropology and the Formulation of Commercial Law.....	102
	A. The Work of E. Adamson Hoebel .....	102
	B. Anthropology and a Better Understanding of Commercial Law .....	103
	C. Law and Behavioral Imperatives .....	106
	Comments and Questions .....	106
§ 3.8	Topics of Discussion.....	107
	A. Agriculture and the Origin of Contracts .....	107
	B. Cultural Values, Jural Postulates and Legislative Principles .....	107
	C. Illustration of the Use of Jural Postulates in Drafting Principles for Future Legislation .....	108
CHAPTER 4. ROMAN LAW.....		109
§ 4.1	Introduction: Roman Law and the Seminal Purposes of Private Legal Institutions.....	109
§ 4.2	The Providers of a Legal Alphabet .....	109
	A. Stages in the Development of Roman Law .....	111
	1. The Archaic Period.....	111
	2. The Pre-Classical Period and the Emergence of Praetors .....	112
	3. The Classical Period and the Crystallization of a Method of Reasoning .....	113
	4. The Greek-Roman Geometric Logic: Analogy and Classification ...	113
	5. The Logic of the Bonus Vir .....	115
	6. The Post-Classical Period.....	115
§ 4.3	The Socio-Economic Context of Roman Commercial Legal Institutions .....	116
	A. Soldiering as a Gainful Occupation .....	116
	B. Commerce vs. Roman Archetypal Dignity .....	117
§ 4.4	The Legal Context .....	119
	A. Sources for the Study of Roman Law .....	120
	B. The Contribution of Praetors .....	121
	C. Civil Procedure.....	122
	D. Contracts and Their Enforcement: Why Were Only Certain Types of Contracts Enforced?.....	123
	1. The Absence of a General Theory of Contract .....	123
	2. Binding Promises Because of Their Formality: The Stipulatio .....	123
	3. Contracts Enforced Because of Their Content.....	124
	a. Nominated Contracts: Consensual and Real.....	124
	b. Innominate Contracts .....	126
	c. Typification of Roman Contracts and Contemporary Contracts .....	126
	d. The Praetor of Peregrines ( Praetor Peregrinus ) and the Remedial Law of Contracts: Condictio and Causa .....	127
	e. The Roman Typification of Contracts: Its Impact upon Its Own and upon Contemporary Legal Systems.....	127
	f. Causa as an Element of a Valid Contract and a Source of Its Uncertainty .....	129
	4. Causa in French and French-Inspired Law .....	130

§ 4.5	Topics for Comparative Discussion .....	131
	A. The German and German-Inspired Rejection of Causa .....	131
	B. The Abolition of Causa in the French Law of Contracts .....	132
	C. The End of the Journey of Nudum Pactum ? .....	132
	Consideration, Nudum Pactum , and Typification in United States Contract Law .....	133
§ 4.6	Roman Legal Opinions on Types and Interpretation of Contracts: The Bonus Vir .....	134
	A. Barter and Sale: And a Firm Grasp of Transactional Facts .....	134
	B. Price as an Essential Element .....	136
	C. Discretionary Conditions and the Bonus Vir Standard .....	136
	D. The Present and Future Res as an Element of the Contract of Sale .....	137
	E. Interpretation: Types of Mistakes .....	137
	F. Sales by a Non-Owner .....	138
	G. Remedies for the Breach of a Sale Agreement .....	139
	Comments and Questions .....	140
§ 4.7	Conclusions: Once More—Why Study Roman Law? .....	141

PART II. MEDIEVAL LAW: GUILDS, AGENTS AND NOTARIES

CHAPTER 5. MEDIEVAL LAW .....	145
§ 5.1	Introduction: Medieval Law and the Institutionalization of Commercial Trust .....	145
§ 5.2	Contract as Delict, Unjust Enrichment and Ritual in Some Southern European Countries .....	147
§ 5.3	Spain's Foral Law .....	148
§ 5.4	Medieval European Cities and Their "Picaresque" Merchants .....	149
	A. A Spanish Picaro and Archetypal Tricky Merchant .....	150
	B. The Legitimate but Religiously Suspect Archetypal Merchant .....	151
§ 5.5	Contemporary Versions of the Picaresque and Their Economic Development Costs .....	153
§ 5.6	Lay Law, Canon Law and Pacta Sunt Servanda .....	155
§ 5.7	Method of Reasoning .....	155
	A. Aristotle's Essences, Commutative Justice and Usury .....	155
	B. Scholasticism, Usury and the Typification of Contracts .....	156
	1. Repression and Evasion of Usury: Aristotelic Essences and Roman Law .....	156
	2. The Economic Consequences of the Prohibition of Usury .....	157
§ 5.8	Preliminary Conclusions and a Contemporary Illustration .....	158
§ 5.9	Medieval Jewish Commercial Brotherhood .....	159
	A. Customary and Rabbinical Brotherly Duties: The Archetypal Agent ...	160
	B. Evolution of the Biblical Prohibition of Usury and Its Effects upon Brotherhood .....	161
	C. Contracts and Medieval Executory Promises .....	162
§ 5.10	Rabbinic Responsa by Maimonides .....	163
§ 5.11	Agents' Duty of Loyalty and Their Causal Representation in Jewish Law ...	168
§ 5.12	English Wool Contracts and Recognizances in Medieval Law .....	169
	A. Advance Sales and Secured Loans .....	169
	B. "Recognizances" .....	171

	C.	The Registration of Recognizances .....	172
	D.	Conclusions: Limitations of Brotherly Duties.....	173
§ 5.13		Appendix: Medieval and Codified Law on Oaths, Mandate and Agency .....	177
	A.	The Oath in Civil and Common Law Jurisdictions .....	177
	1.	France: The Judicial Oath ( Serment Décisoire ) in the Code Civil .....	178
	2.	Spanish Civil Code.....	178
	3.	Italian Civil Code .....	178
	B.	Mandate and Agency and Third Parties .....	179
	1.	The Roman Law Mandate .....	181
	2.	The Transactional Costs of the Roman and Biblical Mandates.....	181
	3.	Forerunners of the Civil Law of Authority and Representation.....	182
	4.	The German Prokura : Independence or “Abstraction” of an Agent’s Authority and Representation .....	184
	C.	The Common Law of Agency.....	185
	1.	Status and Contract.....	185
	2.	What Is an Agency? .....	185
	3.	Apparent, Actual, Express and Implied Authority: Disclosed, Undisclosed and Partially Disclosed Principals.....	186
	D.	A Comparison of Civil and Common Law Statutory, Quasi-Statutory and Judicial Rules .....	188
	1.	The Restatement of Agency in Representative Codes and Uniform Laws.....	188
	a.	Drafting Methods .....	188
	b.	Elements of European and Guatemalan Commercial Agency.....	189
	2.	Civil Law Court Opinions on the Independence of the Agent’s Authority .....	191
	a.	Germany’s Reichsoberhandelsgericht (1872).....	191
	b.	A United States Decision on Disclosed and Undisclosed Principals as Secured Creditors: A. Gay Jenson Farms Co. v. Cargill Inc. ....	192
		Comments and Questions.....	194
CHAPTER 6. GUILDS AND THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM AND MARXIST
LEGAL SYSTEMS..... 195
§ 6.1		Their Significance.....	195
§ 6.2		Guilds, the Verlagssystem and Capitalism .....	196
	A.	The Medieval Guilds and the Verlagssystem .....	196
	B.	Basic Features of European Medieval Guilds.....	197
	1.	Monopolies.....	198
	2.	Hierarchy.....	199
	3.	Fixed Standards of Workmanship, Fixed Prices and Set Wages in Preference to Profits and Competition .....	200
	4.	The Guild Principle of Assurance of Sustenance over Profits ( Nahrungsprinzip ) vs. Contractual Bargaining.....	200
	C.	The Transition to the Putting out or the Verlagssystem of Contracting and Sub-Contracting of Work .....	201
		Comments and Questions About the Transition to Capitalism.....	202

	1. Causes of the Demise of the Guilds .....	202
	2. Mercantilism and Monopoly.....	203
	3. From Status to Contract and Vice Versa .....	204
	4. The Liberating Power of Credit: What if the Paris Silk Spinsters Had Access to Credit? .....	204
D.	The Emergence of Different Types of Capitalist Merchants in European Commerce .....	205
	1. The Regulation of Local vs. International Commerce .....	205
	2. Mercantilism and One-Sided Terms of Trade.....	206
E.	The “Fresh Start” of European Commerce: A Commercial Typology.....	207
	1. Street Markets and Transactions “ Inter Praesentes ” .....	207
	2. Shops.....	208
	3. Peddlers.....	209
	4. Fairs as Markets and as Settlement and Clearing Houses .....	209
	5. High Commerce, Wholesalers, Warehousemen and Exchange Houses: The Amsterdam Exchange .....	212
	6. Questions on the Emergence of a Commercial Typology: From “Eye to Eye and Hand to Hand” to Buying Samples Through Intermediaries.....	213
	7. Cash, Credit Sales, Brokers and Other Intermediaries .....	213
	8. Table: Types of Businesses and Their Types of Contracts.....	214
§ 6.3	Dual Codes for France’s and Germany’s Private Law: A Remnant of the Guild System?.....	215
§ 6.4	Conclusions .....	216

CHAPTER 7. THE LATIN NOTARIAT AND CONTEMPORARY

	CONTRACTS .....	219
§ 7.1	Introduction .....	219
§ 7.2	The Formalities or Solemnities of Land and Commercial Transactions .....	221
§ 7.3	Authentication by Latin Notaries in Contemporary Commercial Transactions.....	223
A.	The Meaning of Authentication .....	223
	1. The Wide Geographical Reach of the Latin Notarial Functions.....	223
	2. Authentication and Attestation .....	224
	3. Publica Fides and the Evidentiary Weight of a Latin Notary’s Authentication .....	225
B.	The Limits of the Latin Notary’s Factual Authentication .....	227
	1. Authentication of Contractual Intent and the Doctrine of Contractual Justice ( Justice Contractuelle ) .....	227
	2. Authentication of Facts Other than the Contractual Intent.....	228
	3. The Problems with the Attestation of the Intent in Commercial Contracts .....	229
C.	The German Notarial Experience with Commercial Transactions .....	231
§ 7.4	Notarial Attestations in Commercial Transactions: A New Breed of Commercial Notaries.....	232
§ 7.5	Appendix: The Living Law of the Notarial Profession in Developing and Developed Nations.....	233
A.	Notarial Practice in Sonora, Mexico, and San José, Costa Rica .....	233

1.	Interview Lic. Eduardo Estrella Acedo, from Ciudad Obregón, México.....	233
2.	Interview with Lic. Joaquín Picado from San José, Costa Rica.....	238
B.	Sweden and the Liberalized Notariat .....	241
1.	The European Union: Notaries and Competition .....	243
2.	U.S. Notaries .....	244
	Comments and Questions.....	246

PART III. EUROPEAN CODIFICATION

	CHAPTER 8. THE FRENCH CODE CIVIL: KEY POLICIES AND DRAFTING METHOD .....	249
§ 8.1	Introduction: Lawmaking Through Codes: A Babylonian and Greek Analogy.....	249
§ 8.2	The Influence of the Enlightenment and Natural Law upon Codification....	251
A.	Rationalism, Mathematics, Geometric Logic and Humanism .....	252
B.	Right Reason = Logic + Morality: The Writings of Hugo Grotius and Samuel Pufendorf .....	254
1.	Hugo Grotius .....	254
a.	Natural Man and His Sociability .....	254
b.	The Influence of Grotius' Principles: Consent and Good Faith.....	255
2.	Samuel Pufendorf: Axioms Inspired by Natural Law .....	256
§ 8.3	The Drafting of the Code Civil .....	258
§ 8.4	Pothier's Definitions and Classification of Contracts and Their Consequences.....	260
A.	Definitions .....	260
B.	Classifications .....	262
1.	Synallagmatic or Bilateral Contracts .....	262
2.	Consensual and Real Contracts .....	263
3.	Problems with Loans as "Real" Contracts.....	263
4.	Problems with Consensual Sales and Notarial or Public Deeds ...	263
5.	Onerous, Charitable and Mixed Contracts .....	265
6.	Principal and Accessory Contracts: Why Were Mortgage Bonds Not Possible in a Central American Developing Nation? .....	265
7.	Formal and Informal Contracts .....	266
C.	The Code Civil 's Classification of Contracts and Executory Promises .....	267
D.	The Negative Effect of Scholastically Inspired Definitions and Classifications .....	269
§ 8.5	Natural Law Principles and Code Interpretation .....	270
§ 8.6	Socio-Economic Context: The Bourgeoisie and Its Influence.....	272
§ 8.7	The Archetypal Bourgeois Civil Contracting Party .....	275
A.	Party Autonomy .....	275
B.	Formality .....	276
C.	Contractual Justice.....	277
D.	Rescission Because of Lesion ( Laesio Enormis ) or Enormous Loss.....	277
E.	A Civil Causa and the Absence of a Commercial Causa .....	279
F.	The Morality of Causa .....	281

	G. Contracts Inter Praesentes and Disregard of Third Party Rights .....	282
§ 8.8	Conclusions: The Bourgeois Archetype of Code Civil Contracts .....	284
§ 8.9	Appendix: Codified, Statutory and Case Law.....	285
	A. Introduction.....	285
	B. Promises of Sale of Real Property.....	285
	C. Relevant Code Civil Provisions.....	286
	Comments and Questions .....	286
	1. Court Decision: Garrone C. Dame Guinde .....	289
	Comments and Questions.....	289
	2. The Meaning and Method of the Code Civil Provisions .....	290
	3. Code Civil Rules on Promises of Sales and the Commercial Marketplace.....	292
	4. Commercial Promises and Pollicitations.....	293
	a. Statutorily-Enforceable Electronic Pollicitations .....	294
	b. Judicially-Enforceable Pollicitations .....	295
§ 8.10	Illegal Causa in an Insurance Contract .....	296
	Comments and Questions .....	298
§ 8.11	Lesion .....	299
	A. Related Statutory Law .....	299
	B. Court Decision: Soc. Économique de Rennes C. Pailleret et al. .....	299
§ 8.12	The Amendments of 2016 to the Code Civil Provisions on the Causa of Contracts.....	301

CHAPTER 9. THE BIRTH OF A CONTINENTAL EUROPEAN

COMMERCIAL LAW; FAIR AND COMMERCIAL COURTS..... 305

§ 9.1	Birthmarks of a European Commercial Law: The Role of Commercial Courts .....	305
	A. Merchant Associations and Consular Courts .....	307
	B. The Statutes of Mostly Italian Commercial Cities and Consulates .....	307
	C. Consular Tribunals.....	308
	D. The Consulates of the Sea ( Consulatus Maris ).....	310
§ 9.2	Fair Courts and the Unification of European Commercial Law .....	311
	A. The Early Courts and the Peace of the Market .....	311
	B. Contributions of Early Fair Courts: Permanent Effects of “Peace of the Market,” Summary Trials and Equal Treatment .....	313
	C. The Post-Fifteenth-Century Fair Courts: Consulates and Commercial Courts .....	314
	D. The Contribution of Consular and Fair Courts .....	315
	E. The Successors of the Fair Courts: The French Commercial Courts and Their Failed Promise.....	316
	1. Consular and Commercial Courts.....	316
	2. Obstacles to a Market-Based Case Law .....	318
	3. Virtue and French Commercial Court Adjudication .....	318
	a. A Typical Eighteenth-Century Parisian Merchant.....	319
	b. Commercial Court Decisions .....	320
	c. The “Red Ink Case” .....	320
	Comments and Questions.....	321

	d.	Other Decisions .....	323
	i.	A Suspension of Payments and Its Charitable Aftermath.....	323
	ii.	Parrish Priests as Arbiters and Judges: Charity and Just Price .....	324
	4.	Summary and Conclusions.....	325
	a.	Professor Kessler’s Conclusions .....	325
	b.	My Conclusions .....	325
	i.	Selfishness, Charity for Its Own Sake and Normative Charity .....	325
	ii.	Just Prices, Usury, and the Role of Custom and Usage.....	328
§ 9.3		Today’s Commercial Court.....	329
		Comments and Questions .....	333
CHAPTER 10. THE CODE DE COMMERCE OF 1807 .....			335
§ 10.1		Brief Background: Enterprises and Who Is the Public? .....	335
	A.	The Final Draft of the Code de Commerce .....	336
	B.	Early Bankruptcy and Commercial-Credit-Inspired Amendments: Bourgeois vs. Merchants .....	339
§ 10.2		The Scope of an “Objective” Commercial Code: One or Two Moralities? .....	340
	A.	Acts of Commerce and the Protection of Bourgeois (Non-Merchant) Fathers of Families.....	340
	B.	The List of Acts of Commerce in Original Articles 632 and 633 of the Code de Commerce .....	342
	1.	A Closed List of Acts of Commerce: The Exegetes.....	343
	2.	Commerce as Defined by Commercial Scholastics and Its Impact on Economic Development.....	344
	3.	Acts of Commerce Scholastically Classified: Principal and Accessory Acts .....	346
	4.	Unilaterally Commercial or Mixed Civil and Commercial Acts .....	347
	5.	The Commercial Lawyer’s Predicament.....	348
	a.	Introduction.....	348
	b.	Foreign Doctrine vs. Local Customs: Picado Guerrero v. Rojas Dias .....	349
§ 10.3		Mexico’s Experience with Its Acts of Commerce .....	350
	A.	The Broadened Scope of Mexico’s Acts of Commerce .....	352
	B.	The Mixed or Unilaterally Civil or Commercial Act in Mexico .....	353
	C.	Some Hope in the Americas: The OAS Convention on Choice of Law .....	354
	D.	Conclusions .....	355
§ 10.4		The Accordion-Like Present Code de Commerce .....	357
	A.	Introduction.....	357
	B.	A Summary of the Contents of the 2008 Version of the Code de Commerce .....	358
	1.	The Status and Capacity of a Merchant.....	359
	2.	Statutory and Administrative Obligations of All Merchants.....	359
	3.	Special Business Associations and Mutual Support Associations.....	360

	4. Brokers, Commission Agents, Commercial Agents and Carriers.....	360
	5. Bulk Sales and Commercial Leases.....	361
	6. Traditional and Not-So-Traditional Business Associations and Economic Interest Groups.....	361
	7. Special Commercial Sales.....	361
	8. Pricing and Competition: The French Equivalent of the Sherman and Clayton Acts?.....	362
	9. Negotiable Instruments.....	363
	10. Secured Transactions Provisions in Book V of the Code de Commerce .....	363
	11. Secured Transactions in the 2006 Amendments of the Code Civil .....	364
	12. Security Interests in Warehouse Receipts, Warrants and Bonds.....	367
	13. Commercial Provisions Other than in the Code de Commerce .....	367
§ 10.5	Conclusions.....	368
§ 10.6	Exercises.....	369
§ 10.7	Answers.....	370
§ 10.8	Appendix—Case Law Related to the Code de Commerce .....	370
	A. Craftsmen and Merchants: Are French Guilds Still Alive?.....	370
	1. Decision in Cour de Cassation , Commercial Chamber, May 12, 1969.....	370
	2. Commentary by R. Houin.....	371
	Comments and Questions.....	371
	B. Merchants and Farmers.....	372
	1. First Case—Decision in REQ., February 4, 1925.....	372
	2. Second Case—Decision in REQ., December 11, 1944.....	373
	3. Commentaries by Professor Jean Schmidt.....	373
	Comments and Questions.....	373
	C. Agricultural Civil Cooperatives and Acts of Commerce: A Clash Between Commercial and Civil Codes.....	374
	1. Applicable Code Provisions.....	374
	2. Decision in the Cour de Cassation , Commercial Chamber, November 20, 2007.....	374
	Comments and Questions.....	376
	D. Commercial and Civil Acts: The Performance of Work vs. Agency; Material Acts vs. Juristic Acts.....	376
	1. Applicable Code Provisions.....	376
	a. Code Civil.....	376
	b. Code de Commerce.....	377
	2. Decision in Cour de Cassation , First Chamber, February 18, 1968, Dame Montigaud c. Epoux Etchebarne .....	377
	Comments and Questions.....	380
§ 10.9	An Illustration of the Effects of Scholastic Logic upon New Contracts: A Revealing 2009 Judicial Workshop.....	381
	A. Overview.....	381
	B. The Problem.....	381
	C. The Research.....	382

	D. Code Civil and Code de Commerce Provisions .....	383
	E. The Compatibility of the Code Civil and the Code de Commerce Provisions with Escrow Agreements .....	384
CHAPTER 11. SOCIO-ECONOMIC CONTEXT OF GERMANY'S CIVIL AND COMMERCIAL CODES..... 385
§ 11.1	The Context: From a Dismembered to a Unified Commercial and Industrial Germany.....	385
	A. The French Ideological and Intellectual Influence.....	386
	B. The Congress of Vienna, the Zollverein and Free Internal Trade: A New Commercial Bourgeoisie .....	387
	C. Political Unification: Prussia and Bismarck's Germany.....	388
§ 11.2	The Emerging German Industry, Agriculture, Commerce and Finance .....	389
	A. Industries Big and Small: From Craftsmen to Merchants .....	389
	B. The Emergence of a Viable Retail Trade: Shopkeepers, Small Merchants, Credit Unions and Non-Usurious Credit .....	390
	C. Inventory, Accounts Receivable, Financing and a New Law of Executory Contracts .....	393
	D. From Cambium to Quasi Money.....	393
	1. Sale of Exchange and Usurious Loans; Assignment and Negotiation of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange.....	393
	2. Henry Diedrich Jencken's Comparative Analysis of European Nineteenth Century Negotiable Instrument Laws .....	394
	a. The French and "Latin" System and the Non-Negotiability of Governmental Bonds .....	395
	b. The German Negotiable Instruments Law and Government Bonds .....	397
	E. The Importance of Credit and Payment Instruments in Germany's Economic Development .....	400
	F. Commercialization of German Rural Property and Agriculture .....	401
	Questions and Comments .....	402
	G. A Parenthetical Aside: The Importance of Professional Agents and Intermediaries; The Prokurist .....	403
§ 11.3	The Emergence of "High Commerce" and Bankers for Governments.....	405
§ 11.4	Merchant and Public Sector Banking: The Rothschilds .....	406
	A. The Rothschilds' Multi-National Banking .....	406
	B. Origins .....	407
	C. Development .....	408
	D. Banking and Government Bond Business .....	410
	E. Integrity and Trustworthiness and a Fiduciary Practice: The Elector's Treasure .....	411
	F. The Emergence of an International Bond Market.....	412
	G. Legal Implications of the House of Rothschilds' Issuance of Negotiable Bonds: Archetypal Behavior .....	413
CHAPTER 12. THE CODIFICATION OF THE GERMAN CIVIL AND COMMERCIAL CODES..... 417
§ 12.1	Opposing Views on Codification: Romanists and Germanists.....	417

§ 12.2	Pandectist System Building.....	419
	A. Illustrations of System Building.....	419
	B. The Pandectist Disinterest in Socio-Economic Facts and Needs.....	420
§ 12.3	The Drafting of the BGB.....	421
	A. Background: The HGB & ADHGB .....	421
	B. Brief Review of the BGB's Contents.....	423
	C. The Juristic Act and the Drafting of the General Part .....	424
	D. The BGB's Commercialization of Civil Contracts.....	427
	Comments and Questions .....	427
	E. Summary .....	428
§ 12.4	The Drafting of the HGB of 1897.....	428
	A. The Law of Bills of Exchange ( Wechselgesetz ) .....	429
	B. The Adoption of the HGB.....	430
	C. The HGB's "Subjective" Approach to Scope: A Longstanding Misunderstanding.....	431
§ 12.5	An Overview of the Original and Amended Versions of the HGB .....	433
	A. The Original (1897) Version of the HGB.....	433
	B. The Scope of the Amended (1998 and Present) Version of the HGB.....	435
	C. Illustrative Sections of the Amended HGB.....	437
	1. Outline of Book One.....	437
	2. Commercial Agency .....	437
	3. Partnerships.....	438
	a. The General Partnership.....	438
	b. The Limited Partnership .....	439
	c. The Silent Partnership .....	439
	4. Record and Bookkeeping .....	440
	5. Commercial Transactions.....	440
	6. Conclusion .....	441
§ 12.6	Is the Commercial/Civil Code Dichotomy Presently Justified and Is Unification Possible? .....	441
§ 12.7	Commercialization of Contracts and Third Party Protection: Code Civil and BGB.....	443

CHAPTER 13. CUSTOMS AND USAGES AS SOURCES OF LAW IN

REPRESENTATIVE CODES..... 445

§ 13.1	Sources and Their Hierarchy.....	445
	A. Custom and Usage.....	445
	B. Case Law .....	447
	C. Doctrinal Law .....	448
	1. In General.....	448
	2. Two Influential but Opposite Approaches to Commercial Law by German Doctrinal Writers: Heinrich Thöl and Levin Goldschmidt .....	449
	a. Thöl's and Rocco's vs. Goldschmidt's and Vivante's Conceptions of Commercial Legal Science .....	449
	b. Thöl's and Rocco's Views on the Sources of Commercial Law and Their Influence.....	451
	c. Goldschmidt's Influence upon Karl Llewellyn .....	454
	d. Conclusions: Goldschmidt's Suggestions and My Findings ....	455

	D.	Commercial Treaties as Sources: Their Hierarchy.....	457
	1.	Germany .....	457
	2.	France .....	459
	3.	Mexico .....	460
	4.	The United States .....	461
	5.	Conclusions.....	463
§ 13.2		The “General Conditions of Trade” in German Law .....	463
	A.	BGB Sections 305–307 .....	465
	B.	An Illustration and an Exercise: A Standard Contract for the Purchase of Souvenirs from Oktoberfest .....	466
§ 13.3		Judicial Decisions on the Scope of the HGB, BGB, AGB and CISG .....	467
	A.	Introduction.....	467
	B.	Bundesgerichtshof , October 31, 2001 [VIII ZR 60/01] .....	468
	1.	Applicable Provisions.....	468
	a.	United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods (CISG).....	468
	b.	HGB .....	469
	2.	Facts.....	470
	3.	Reasons for the Decision.....	471
	4.	Commentary by Dr. Martin Schmidt-Kessel.....	472
		Questions.....	473
	C.	Bundesgerichtshof , September 26, 1989, WM 1989, 1713: Slight Negligence in the AGB for Banks .....	474
	1.	Applicable Provisions of the BGB.....	474
	2.	Facts and Holding.....	474
	3.	Reasoning .....	474
	4.	Comment by Angela Daniel Paczosa .....	475
	D.	Bundesgerichtshof , February 3, 1986, 1986 WM 769–770.....	475
	1.	Facts.....	475
	2.	Holding .....	475
	3.	Reasoning .....	476
	E.	Bundesgerichtshof (Ninth Civil Senate) 24 February 1994, NJW 1994, 1341: .....	476
	1.	Applicable Provisions of the BGB.....	476
	2.	Facts.....	477
	3.	Reasons.....	477
		Comments and Questions.....	479

PART IV. FAMILISTIC AND SOCIALIST VARIANTS OF THE CIVIL LAW

		CHAPTER 14. LATIN AMERICAN CODIFICATION AND ITS ALL- IMPORTANT COLONIAL BACKGROUND .....	483
§ 14.1		Familism and Authoritarianism in Latin American and Socialist Law .....	483
§ 14.2		Latin America’s Elusive Economic Development .....	485
§ 14.3		Spanish and Colonial Official Law .....	489
	A.	Legalism and Rule of Law .....	489
	B.	Terminology and Types of Laws .....	490

	C.	Compilations of Laws in Force in the Americas During the Colonial Period.....	491
		1. Leyes de Indias : Inequality and Customary Law.....	491
		2. La Nueva and Novísima Recopilación .....	493
		3. Excerpts from the Novísima Recopilación .....	495
		a. Law No. 2 of King Ferdinand & Queen Isabella on July 25, 1499.....	495
		Comments and Questions.....	495
		b. Law No. 3 of Charles I & Philip II on October 6, 1552.....	496
		Comments and Questions.....	496
		c. Law No. 4 of King Phillip IV on February 10, 1623 .....	497
		Comments and Questions.....	497
		d. Law 17 of King Phillip V, December 2, 1737 and King Charles IV, June 3, 1805 .....	498
		Comments and Questions.....	499
		4. The Regulation of Colonial Trade .....	499
		a. Board of Trade and Official and Royal Monopolies .....	499
		b. The Commercial Consulate ( Consulado de Mercaderes ).....	501
§ 14.4		The Living Law of Colonial Commercial Contracts: Archetypal Behavior....	501
	A.	High Commerce in New Spain: Picaresque Mercaderes , Flotistas , Almaceneros , and Hacendados .....	502
		1. Introduction: Exporters, Importers and Wholesalers.....	502
		2. The Struggle for Control of the New Spanish Market.....	503
		a. Control of the Supply of Goods: Taxation, Circumvention and Smuggling.....	503
		b. Control of Credit: Flotista and Almacenero Credits .....	504
	B.	The Living Law of Traveling Salesmen and Their Brotherly Standard of Fairness.....	506
		Comments and Questions .....	510
		1. Agribusiness: Hacendados and Caudillos .....	511
		a. Hacendados and Their Exclusive Dealings with Governmental Entities .....	511
		b. Caudillos .....	513
		c. Bribes, Negocios and Simulations.....	514
		i. Bribes.....	514
		ii. Negocios .....	515
		iii. Simulations.....	515
		2. The Brazilian Jeito and the Mexican Simulation.....	517
		3. Compadrazgo , Bribery, Simulation and Violence in Mexican Rural Land Transactions .....	517
		4. The Effects of Simulation on Mexico's Commerce and Economy .....	518
		5. The Business and Legal Ethics of Kinship and Friendship.....	521
		6. Politicians and Hombres de Bien .....	521
		7. Summary and Conclusions.....	523
§ 14.5		Latin American Codification.....	524
	A.	Latin American "Families" of Civil Codification .....	525
		1. Andrés Bello and the Chilean Civil Code of 1855.....	526
		2. Dalmacio Vélez Sársfield and the Argentinean Civil Code of 1871.....	529

	3. Comparison of the Above-Selected Provisions of the Chilean & Argentine Civil Codes .....	531
	B. Latin American Commercial Codification.....	532
	1. Families of Commercial Codes .....	532
	2. Why Autochthonous Commercial Codes Are Unlikely .....	533
§ 14.6	Conclusions .....	535
§ 14.7	Appendix I: Colonial and Post-Colonial Attitudes .....	535
	A. A Brief Review of Fray Tomás de Mercado’s “Manual of Bargains and Contracts” ( Suma de Tratos y Contratos ) .....	535
	B. A Tentative Presumption of Commercial Good Faith Aided by Confessors .....	536
	C. Reasonable Rates of Interest, Just Prices and the Market.....	537
	D. Bad Faith and Money Changers .....	538
	E. Cash and Installment Sales, Lawful Profits and Unlawful Profiteering .....	538
	F. Conclusions .....	539
	G. Conversations with Dr. Raúl Cervantes Ahumada .....	539
	1. On Mexico’s Living Law: An Insider’s View .....	540
	2. Caudillos, Caciques and Simulations .....	541
	Comments and Questions.....	544
	3. The Caudillo ’s and Everyone’s Natural Right to Smuggle .....	545
	4. The Magic Powers of Mexico’s Chief Executive .....	546
	5. The Power of Caudillo -Like Presidents and the “ Letrismo ” of Judges .....	548
	Comments and Questions.....	551
§ 14.8	Appendix II: Latin American Codification, De-Codification and Re-Codification of Commercial Law.....	552
	A. Codes and the Commercialization of Civil Law and the Civilization of Commercial Law .....	552
	B. Professor Lorena Carvajal Arenas: The Codification of Chile’s Commercial Law and Its Axis.....	553
	1. Causes of Chile’s Commercial Legal Uncertainties.....	553
	2. Prof. Carvajal’s Recommendations .....	553
	3. De Lege Ferendae .....	556
	C. Chief Justice Ricardo L. Lorenzetti, Introduction to the Unified Civil and Commercial Code of Argentina (CCC) .....	557
	1. Introduction.....	557
	2. Some Positive Features of the CCC .....	558
	a. The Absence of a Distinction Between a Case’s Holding and Its Obiter Dictum or Dicta in the Decisions of Many Civil Law Countries .....	558
	b. The Problems Faced by the CCC .....	560
	3. Paradigms of Protection of Selected Civil Parties .....	560
	4. Paradigms of Protection of Financial Intermediaries as Regular Participants in the Marketplace .....	561
	a. During the Formation of the Contract: Article 971 of the CCC on the Formation of Contractual Consent .....	561
	b. Causa and the Certainty of Argentine Commercial Contracts .....	563

5.	Reasonableness in Standard and Fiduciary Commercial and Financial Practices .....	564
D.	Colombian Opinions on Commercial Codification, Decodification or Recodification .....	565
1.	Rector Fernando Hinestrosa's: Codificacion, Descodificacion y Recodificacion .....	565
2.	Professors Martínez-Cárdenas and Tapias Rocha's: The Transformation of Colombia's Private Law .....	569
E.	Conclusions and Recommendations .....	571
1.	Drafting Plans: Indisputable Facts and Alternative Drafting Methodologies .....	571
a.	Compelling Legal and Socio-Economic Facts .....	571
b.	Alternative Drafting Methodologies .....	572
c.	An Illustration .....	573
i.	Conceptual and Definitional Rules .....	573
ii.	Rules of Traffic .....	574
iii.	Who Is a Good Faith LOC Banker and How Is His Good Faith Measured? .....	574
iv.	Remedial Law .....	575
2.	Recommendations .....	576
CHAPTER 15. SOVIET COMMERCIAL CONTRACT LAW .....		577
§ 15.1	Introduction: Commercial Contracting During the USSR or Its Functional Equivalent .....	577
A.	Scope .....	577
B.	A Modern Society Without Commercial Contracts? .....	579
C.	Merchants and Entrepreneurs in Imperial Russia .....	580
1.	Merchants .....	580
2.	Entrepreneurs and Kulaks .....	582
D.	The Economic Picture of Pre-Revolutionary Russia .....	583
E.	The Soviet Experience with Commercial Contracts; Why Were They Not Eradicated? .....	583
§ 15.2	Marxism-Leninism as a Source of the Official Law of Commercial Contracts .....	586
§ 15.3	Marxism .....	586
A.	Biographical Note .....	586
B.	"The Capital" and the Law of Motion of Modern Society .....	587
C.	Marx's Purported Scientific Method .....	588
1.	Archetypal Capitalists and Their Demonology .....	589
a.	The Imprecise Class of Archetypal Capitalists .....	589
b.	The Demonology of Capitalist Contracts and Private Property: Trade as Inherently Deceitful .....	590
c.	The Deification of the Exploited: Select or "Chosen" Classes .....	590
2.	The Method of Exploitation: Appropriation of the Surplus Value .....	591
D.	The Bases of the "Law of Motion of Modern Society" .....	593
1.	Dialectics .....	594
2.	Historical and Economic Materialism .....	594

	3. Disregard of the Changing Meaning of Property.....	595
	4. The Rhetoric of Marxist Dialectics and Historical Materialism: At Best a Philosophy, Not a Science .....	596
§ 15.4	Leninism.....	597
	A. The Special Meaning of Lenin’s Charismatic Authoritarian Leadership.....	597
	B. The October Revolution of 1917.....	598
	C. The April Theses.....	599
	D. Lenin’s Law Making: Authoritarian Legalism .....	600
	1. The Many and Varied Sources of Lenin’s Law.....	600
	2. Obedience Through Didactics and Terror .....	600
	3. Private Trade During the “War Communism”: Bagmen and Entrepreneurial Factory Workers .....	601
	4. The New Economic Policy.....	602
	5. The Nepmen and a Commercial and Economic Revival.....	603
	6. The Nepmen’s Informal Commercial Contracts .....	604
	a. Speculators, Their Cash and Pricing System.....	606
	b. Legal and Questionable Transactions .....	606
	c. Simulated and Illegal Transactions.....	607
	d. The Demise of the Nepmen and Kulaks .....	608
	E. Economic Planning as a Source of Administrative-Contract Law .....	608
	F. Market Socialism and Market Prices: Ludwig von Mises’ Criticism .....	610
	G. Yevsey Liberman’s Autonomy of Production, Profitability Rate and Economic Planning .....	611
	H. The Debate on Libermanism.....	612
	1. In the USSR .....	612
	2. Cuba: The Commercial vs. The New Socialist Man.....	613
§ 15.5	Conclusions: An Invertebrate Legal System and Its Disregard of Human Nature .....	615
 CHAPTER 16. THE PECULIAR MEANING OF SOVIET AND POST-SOVIET COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS: AN INVERTEBRATE LEGAL SYSTEM ... 617
§ 16.1	The Higher Law as Slogans: Corruption and the Invertebration of the Soviet Legal System .....	617
	A. Sources of Private (“Personal”) Law and the Effect of Legal Nihilism.....	619
	B. Hierarchy.....	621
§ 16.2	Civil and Commercial Transactions in Codes and Other Enactments .....	622
	A. The Civil Code of 1922 and the Civil Transaction.....	622
	B. Central Planning and Its Sources of Law: The Fundamental Principles or Bases of the Civil Law of 1961.....	623
	1. Evgeny Pashukanis and a Transitional Law Toward a Stateless and Lawless Society .....	624
	2. The Spastic Journey of Economic Law .....	626
	3. The Basic Principles of Civil Law and of Civil Procedure of 1961.....	628
§ 16.3	Transactions Involving Personal Property: The Federal Ownership Act of 1990 .....	630

§ 16.4	Allocation of Housing .....	632
	A. To Whom Are Tenancy Duties Owed? Sources of Tenancy Law .....	632
	B. Allocating Housing Units Without Regard to Market Forces: Administrative Assessment of Needs and Merits.....	633
	1. Zamchenko—The Loafer .....	633
	2. The Virtuous Tenant? .....	634
	3. Making a Wife’s Life Impossible as a Ground for Eviction .....	634
	4. Rent, the Withering Away of Law, Prices and Unpredictability ....	635
	C. The Building of Private Homes and Dachas .....	635
	1. Selected Provisions of the Civil Code of 1964 .....	636
	2. Case Law: Unearned Income and Other Accusations Based on Marxist-Leninist Dogma .....	636
	a. Lemdyanov’s Garden; Speculative and Unearned Income.....	636
	Questions .....	637
	b. Dembinsky’s Case: The Sale of Fruits and Vegetables by Small Farms, Kulaks and Behavior Unbecoming a Party Member .....	637
	D. Dacha Rentals and Models of Proper Party Behavior: Zikeyev’s Construction Materials.....	638
	Questions.....	639
	E. Economic Significance of the Soviet Commerce in Personal Property...639
	F. Cases and Disputes Involving Artisans and Small Merchants .....	640
	1. The 1970 Criminal Case of Fadeev: A Seller of Wagon Wheels.....	640
	Comments and Questions.....	640
	2. The 1967 Case of Shorin: Worker or Joint Venturer? Was It Really a Glass-Blowing Workshop or a Simulation? .....	640
	Comments and Questions.....	641
	3. The 1968 Case of Utekeshev: A Factory Dispatcher, Nepman or Both? .....	641
	Comments and Questions.....	642
§ 16.5	Adjudicating Compliance with Economic Plan Duties: Ordinary and Supply Contracts .....	642
	A. Absence of Raw Materials as a Defense .....	643
	1. The 1966 Moscow Wool Outlet Case: Lack of Raw Materials .....	643
	2. Kharkov Consumer Goods Distributor: Delayed Delivery and Excuses: Standards of Diligence and Planning vs. Supplier’s Fault .....	643
	B. Comparative Duties of Diligence: The Absence of “Best Efforts” (Good Faith) vs. Implied Clause in the Supply Contract .....	644
§ 16.6	A Personal Experience with Bulgarian Central Planning and State Property.....	644
§ 16.7	The Civil Code of the Russian Federation of 1995 .....	645
	A. Style and Scope .....	645
	B. Epistemology, Political Ideology and Troubling Terminology .....	647
	C. Anachronistic and Harmful Provisions .....	648
§ 16.8	Conclusions .....	649

CHAPTER 17. CHINESE IMPERIAL, MOSTLY LIVING, LAW OF
CONTRACTS ..... 653
§ 17.1	Introduction: Legal Invertebretation and Familism, Confucianism and Legalism .....653
§ 17.2	The Family, Lineage and Clan as Early Private Law Makers and Economic Units .....657
	A. Patriarchal Hierarchy .....658
	B. Place of Residence.....658
	C. Common Budget and the Importance of Family Land for Family Survival .....658
	D. Patrilineal Lineage and Legal Invertebration .....660
	Comments and Questions .....661
	E. The Clan .....662
§ 17.3	Traditional Values and Living Law: Confucius, Daoism and Legalism .....663
	A. Hierarchy.....663
	B. Titles, the Moral Way and Obedience to the Ruler .....665
	C. The Hierarchy of Occupations or Classes: Scholars, Craftsmen, Farmers and Merchants.....665
	D. Superior Persons.....665
	E. Ritual, the (Moral) Way and Confucian Law .....666
	Comments and Questions .....668
	F. The Analects , Commerce and the Protection of the Third Party.....668
	1. On Law, Virtue (the Moral Way) and Essential Faith or Trust in Government.....669
	Comments and Questions.....670
	2. On the Protection of Family and Third Parties .....670
	Comments and Questions.....670
	3. On Profits and Selfishness .....671
	Comments and Questions.....671
	4. Daoism .....672
	5. Neo-Confucianism.....673
§ 17.4	Governmental Policies, Economy, Markets and Contracts in Traditional China .....674
	A. Feudalism, Taxation and Confucian Adjudication During the Zhou and Qin Dynasties .....675
	B. Monopolies and Corruption in an Agrarian Economy: The Han Dynasty .....676
	C. An Expansive Empire: Land Contracts and Legalistic Prohibitions— The Tang Dynasty (618–907 C.E.).....677
	D. Monetization, Credit, Wholesale and Retail Contracts, and Manuals: The Song, Ming and Qing Dynasties .....678
	1. The Song Dynasty (960–1127 C.E.) .....678
	2. National Trade, International Trade and Industrialization: The Ming and Qing Dynasties (1368–1644 C.E. and 1644–1912 C.E.) .....680
§ 17.5	Imperial China’s Failure to Become a Capitalist Nation.....682
	A. The Commercial Practices of an Archetypal Commercial Clan: The Huizhou .....683
	B. Sharp Dealing, Bribery and Simulation.....683

	C. Clans and Political Patronage .....	685
	D. Neo-Confucian Merchants, Bureaucrats and Limited Commercial Risk-Taking .....	686
	E. Uncompetitive Small Business vs. Monopolistic Clans and Guilds .....	687
	F. Absence of Capitalist Intermediaries and the Cotton Cloth Business .....	688
	G. Familism, Unlimited Liability and Business Associations .....	690
	H. Exclusive Dealings and the Guanxi .....	691
§ 17.6	Conclusions: Why Capitalism Failed to Emerge During the Ming & Qing Period .....	692

CHAPTER 18. CONTRACTS AND LITIGATION IN IMPERIAL AND MAO'S CHINA..... 695

§ 18.1	The Commercial and Economic Importance of Chinese Imperial Contracts .....	695
	A. Free Tenancy and Commercialized Rights in the Land: Commercial and Legal Components of Commercialization .....	695
	B. The Legal Component: Causal vs. Independent or Abstract Promises and Rights .....	697
	1. Land Contracts, Property and Third Party Rights in Imperial China .....	699
	a. Conditional Sales .....	699
	b. Sale of Surface Rights or Topsoil Ownership .....	700
	C. Third Party Rights Under a Conditional Sale .....	701
	D. Third Party Rights Under a Tenancy or Ownership of Surface Land or Topsoil .....	702
	E. Chinese Families and Communities as Contracting and Litigating Units .....	702
	F. The Causality of Chinese Familistic Contracts .....	703
	1. Causal Statements in an 1894 Sale Agreement .....	703
	Comments and Questions .....	704
	2. Professor Zelin's Comments on Familistic Clauses in Conditional Sales .....	705
	3. Economic Necessity and a "Defension" Clause (Circa 1234 C.E.) .....	705
	Comments and Questions .....	706
	G. Familistic Clauses, Disputes and Violence .....	706
	H. Effects of the Typical Land Contracts upon the Economic Growth of Imperial China .....	707
	I. Certainty of Family Rights vs. Rights of Third Parties .....	708
	J. Preliminary Conclusions .....	710
§ 18.2	Forgery and Chicanery in Imperial Court Litigation .....	711
	A. The Assistants in Drafting and Pleading .....	711
	B. The Adjudicators .....	712
	C. An Illustration: A Statute of Limitations and a Clearly Drafted or "Doctored" Contract .....	713
	D. Conclusions: Familistic Clauses, Legal Invertebration, Uncertainty and Third Parties .....	714
§ 18.3	Mao Tse-tung and His Shifting Marxist-Leninist Dogma .....	714
	A. The PRC Initial Land Reform .....	716

B.	The Abrogation of Pre-Existent Law and the Spirit of the New Socialist Man.....	717
C.	Mao’s Collectives, the NSM, the Absence of Contracts, and Its Human and Economic Costs .....	719
1.	Analysis of the Failure of Mao’s Collectivization Policies .....	719
2.	The Negative Effects of Mao’s Collectives and Communes.....	721
3.	The Economic Value of “Self Enforcing” and Commercial Contracts .....	722
D.	Mediation and Non-Existent Land Contract Litigation During the Collectivization Period.....	723
§ 18.4	Conclusion.....	723
CHAPTER 19. CONTEMPORARY LAND AND MOVABLE PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS IN THE PRC .....		725
PART I
§ 19.1	Introduction .....	725
§ 19.2	Deng Xiaoping’s Policies .....	726
A.	Introduction.....	726
B.	A Socialist Market Economy .....	727
1.	Decentralization: The Dual and Triple Tracks of Land Use Rights.....	727
2.	Hunger for Revenue and Land Use Rights .....	728
§ 19.3	Legal Reforms, Property Rights and Their Reliability .....	729
A.	Introduction: A “Stress Test” for PRC’s Property Rights .....	729
B.	An Invertebrate Law .....	730
1.	The Many and Confusing Sources of Legislation.....	730
2.	Courts and the Weight of Their Decisions: The Luoyang Seed Case.....	731
3.	The Main Constitutional and Statutory Sources of the Reform of Property Law .....	733
4.	A “Sketched” and Loose Style of Legislation.....	736
C.	The Results of Invertebration .....	737
1.	Who Are Owners Under the Property Rights Law (PRL)?.....	737
2.	What Do Owners Own? The Uncertain Dimensions of Ownership and of Lesser Rights in Rem .....	738
a.	Land Use Rights in General: Grants and Allocations .....	738
b.	The Legal Nature of Granted Land Use Rights, the Roman Iura In re Aliena .....	739
c.	Hierarchy of Ownership, Land Use Rights and Benefits Under the PRL .....	740
3.	Who Are the Third Parties of the PRL?.....	742
4.	Legal Uncertainties in the Acquisition of Residential Property.....	743
a.	Shanghai Condominium Transactions During the Last Decades .....	744
b.	Financing Real Estate Transactions in 2008 .....	746
c.	2011 Restrictions and Limitations on Second Home Purchases.....	747

	d.	Legal Invertebration at the Base of Many of China’s Land Rights: The Missing Hukou for Migrants to Large Chinese Cities .....	748
	5.	Legal Uncertainties in Agricultural Land Transactions: Collectives, Who They Are and “Who Is the People?” .....	749
	6.	A Typical Land Rights Dispute and the Relative Value of the Land Use Certificate (LUC) and the Generalization of Inequitable Practices .....	751
	7.	Usufructs and Their Priorities: A Typical Dispute.....	752
D.		The Ineffectiveness of Land Registry Recordings.....	752
	1.	Multiple Registries and Restricted Access to Recorded Data .....	753
	2.	Is the PRL’s a Constitutive or a Notice Registry System? .....	753
	3.	The Torrens System.....	754
	4.	Germany’s Grundbuch .....	755
	a.	The Title Examination of the Grundbuch .....	756
	b.	The Third Parties’ Negative and Positive Reliance on the Public Faith of the Grundbuch .....	756
E.		Third Party Protection and the Land Registry of the PRC.....	758
	1.	Registry Data: Legal Descriptions and Cadastral Data.....	758
	2.	The Transactional Sequence Data .....	759
	3.	Certificates of Registration .....	759
	4.	Recordable Rights In Rem and Their Uncertain “Holders” or “Obligees”.....	761
F.		Conclusions .....	763
	1.	The Weakness of Third Party Right Under the PRL and Related Statutory and Administrative Law.....	763
	2.	Regulatory Policies and the Weakness of Third Party Rights.....	764
		PART II
§ 19.4		Security Interest in Movable Property.....	766
I.		The Security Interest in the General Mortgage’s Movable Property .....	770
	A.	The Creation of the Security Interest: The Security Agreement....	770
	1.	Ownership of the Collateral and the Creation of a Security Interest .....	773
	a.	Why Title to Movable Collateral Is Unnecessary and Uneconomic: A Bit of Comparative Commercial Legal History .....	775
	b.	Measures [Regulations] for Chattel Mortgage Registration (2016 Revision) (动产抵押登记办法(2016修订) [现行有效]) .....	776
	c.	The Uncertainty Created by the Requirement of Ownership or Right to Dispose of the Collateral: Hao Hao’s Case.....	777
	2.	Yinnuo’s Ownership Right.....	779
	3.	The Bank’s Possessory Right and the MRC .....	780
	4.	“Mortgages for a Maximum Amount”, “Opening of Credit,” “Line of Credit” Agreements, and the Financing of Inventory and Proceeds.....	780
	a.	What Is Inventory and What Are Proceeds.....	783

3.	The Function of the Description of the Collateral in the Security Agreement and in the Financing Statement.....	784
a.	The Proper Description of Collateral in a Mortgage of Corporeal Things: The Quncheng Decision .....	784
B.	The Perfection or Effectiveness of Security Interests and Their Priority.....	788
1.	Is the Preregistration or Pre-advise of a Future Mortgage over Movable Property Allowed?.....	788
2.	What Is a Functional Notice?: The Importance of a Unitary Security System .....	789
3.	Where to Register a Mortgage on Movable Property: The Chencang Bank Decision .....	790
C.	Security Interests and Economic Development: The Developmental Importance of an Open Number (Numerus Apertus) of Security Interests and Collateral.....	792
1.	Fixtures.....	794
2.	Contract Rights: The Contract to Manage or Exploit Barren Land and Their Market Value .....	794
3.	Negotiable Documents of Title .....	798
a.	Paper Based Documents of Title .....	798
b.	Electronic Documents of Title .....	799
D.	The Extra Judicial Enforcement of the General Mortgage.....	801
II.	The Pledge.....	803
A.	What Is a Pledge? .....	803
B.	What Collateral Can be Pledged? The Schism Between Mortgaged and Pledged Collateral .....	803
C.	The Creation and the Perfection or Effectiveness of the Pledge .....	804
D.	The “Special Case” of the Pledge of Receivables.....	805
E.	The Extra Judicial Remedy of a Pledgee’s Lien.....	806
III.	Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations .....	807
A.	Findings.....	807
B.	Conclusions and Recommendations .....	808
1.	Clarification of the Scope of the PRL.....	808
2.	Conceptual Refinement .....	809
a.	Establish a Numerus Apertus Approach to Collateral.....	809
b.	Provide a Clear Distinction Between the Creation and the Perfection of the Security Interest.....	809
c.	Distinguish Between a the Line of Credit and a Mortgage for a Maximum Amount.....	809
d.	Re-Define Highly Liquid, Contemporary Types of Collateral .....	809
e.	Revise the Function and Organization of the Registry of Security Interests.....	809
f.	Enable Reliance on Both Judicial and Extra-Judicial Remedies.....	810

PART V. ANGLO-AMERICAN LAW

CHAPTER 20. SOCIO-ECONOMIC AND LEGAL CONTEXTS AND ENGLISH COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS .....		813
§ 20.1	Introduction .....	813
§ 20.2	English Law .....	814
A.	Britain's Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Trade and Tradesmen.....	814
1.	Who Were Britain's Tradesmen? .....	814
2.	Social Classes, Ease of Trade and England's Commercial Revolution.....	815
B.	The Honesty of Tradesmen and Their "Poetic" Licenses .....	817
C.	Monopoly and Mercantilism in England's Modern International Trade.....	818
D.	Multilateralism and Cooperation with Colonial Tradesmen .....	819
E.	Samuel Storke: An Archetypal English and Colonial International Trader .....	820
1.	Storke's Commission Business: The Presence of Commercial Credit in England Since the Turn of the 18th Century.....	821
2.	Commercial Trustworthiness and Colonial Executory Promises in Consignments and Joint Ventures .....	821
3.	Some Byproducts of the English Colonial Trade: Honesty as an Element of Good Faith Fixed Prices and Uniform Weights and Measures .....	822
4.	England's Consumer and Comparatively High Wage Society .....	823
F.	Slavery and England's Welfare.....	824
1.	Introduction.....	824
2.	Professor Blackburn's Assessment of the Contribution of Slavery to Britain's Welfare.....	824
3.	Professor Schama on the Inhuman Condition of Sugar Plantation Slaves .....	825
4.	The James Sommersett Case: A Landmark Lord Mansfield Decision on Slavery.....	826
5.	Conclusions.....	829
G.	Judicial Institutions .....	830
1.	Common Law Courts .....	830
2.	Equity and Common Law Courts: The Earl of Oxford Case .....	832
3.	Equity and Commercial Contract Law .....	834
§ 20.3	Forms of Action and Writs .....	834
§ 20.4	Lord Mansfield, Juries and Merchants .....	836
A.	Lord Mansfield.....	836
B.	Some Key English Contributions to the Substantive Law of Commercial Contracts and Promises .....	839
1.	Executory Promises and Commercial and Consumer Credit.....	839
2.	Negotiability of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange.....	840
a.	Assignability, Negotiability and Conditionality of Promises of Credit and Payment.....	840
b.	Independence of the Negotiable Promise: Hussey v. Jacob and the Code Civil's Causa .....	841

	c.	The Questioned and Affirmed Negotiability of Promissory Notes .....	842
	d.	The Economic Effects of Negotiability .....	844
CHAPTER 21. THE SOCIO-ECONOMIC AND LEGAL CONTEXTS OF U.S. COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS..... 847
§ 21.1		Introduction: Practices, Values and Attitudes That Shaped U.S. Law .....	847
§ 21.2		Puritan Merchants-Settlers (Early Seventeenth to Late Eighteenth Century) .....	849
	A.	The Mayflower Compact and the Puritans' Self Government .....	849
	B.	Extended Families: Trustworthiness and Credit Networks .....	852
	C.	The Maximization of Private Efforts: The Primacy of Subjective Rights and the Shrinkage of Puritan Moral Capitalism .....	853
	D.	Other Religious and Commercial Principles: Just Price and Reasonableness .....	854
	E.	The Preference for Private Property .....	855
	F.	Summary and Conclusions.....	856
§ 21.3		The Eighteenth-Century "General Store" and Its Revolutionary Effects on Consumerism .....	857
	A.	The Start of a Consumer Revolution .....	857
	B.	The Fielding Lewis Store of Fredericksburg, Virginia.....	857
	C.	The Commercial and Consumer Credit Practices Associated with General Stores and Their Foreign and Local Suppliers: Book Credit and Factoring .....	858
§ 21.4		The Multi-Ethnic Family Farmer: Producer and Merchant.....	860
	A.	The Economic Importance of Small Farm Family Businesses .....	860
	B.	Personal Unsecured Commercial Credit .....	861
	C.	Effects of the War of 1812 .....	862
§ 21.5		Wholesalers and Other Non-Bank Suppliers of Commercial and Consumer Credit.....	862
	A.	The Migration of the British Model of Commercial Credit to Colonial and Independent America .....	862
	B.	Commercial Intermediaries: Wholesalers, Factors and Jobbers .....	863
	C.	Wholesalers as Lenders and Joint Venturers in the Dairy Industry .....	866
	1.	Introduction.....	866
	2.	The Production and Distribution of Fluid Milk in New York State.....	866
	3.	Fixed Prices and Opposing Coalitions .....	867
	4.	Effects of Unregulated Freedom of Contract: Price Fixing and a No Holds Barred Competition.....	868
	D.	Department Stores and Their Progeny; Business Practices and Legal Principles.....	869
	1.	A Seemingly Endless Variety of Goods and Methods of Purchase .....	869
	2.	Caveat Emptor vs. "The Customer Is Always Right": An Archetypal Retail Sales Intent and a Presumption of Good Faith .....	870
	3.	Principles and Practices: Protecting the Title to Consumer Goods: Department Stores as "Open Markets" .....	871

	4. Purchasing Practices, Master Agreements, Standardization of Quality and of Warranties.....	872
	5. Consumer Credit Practices: Informality and Contracts of Adhesion.....	873
	6. Effects.....	874
§ 21.6	Commercial Banks and Commercial Credit.....	874
	A. Experiments with National and State Banking Systems.....	874
	B. The Present Commercial Banking System.....	876
	C. The Federal Reserve and Commercial Lending.....	877
	1. Goals and Means.....	877
	2. Paul Warburg and the Federal Reserve Act.....	879
	3. Fixed Ratios of Bank Reserves for Demand Obligations vs. The Flexible European Discount System.....	880
	4. Discounts, Acceptances of Drafts and Documentary Letters of Credit.....	881
	5. The Supply and Demand Elements of a Creditworthy Commercial Contract.....	882
	6. Statutory Rules on Loans That Involve or Are Secured by Readily Marketable Staples.....	882
	7. Legal and Economic Effects: An Archetypal Secured Commercial Loan.....	884
§ 21.7	Credit Rating Agencies: Their Impact on Commercial Credit.....	885
	A. Brief History.....	885
	B. Character Traits of an Archetypal Mid-Nineteenth Century Credit Worthy Borrower: The Meaning of Honesty.....	887
	C. Effects of the Presumption of a Debtor's Good Faith.....	888
	D. The Problems with Biased Credit Reports.....	888
	E. Shorter Term Credits, Competition, "Dynamic" Practices and Fairer Prices.....	890
	F. The Continuing Search for Objective Reporting and Rating Criteria....	892
	G. Conclusions.....	893
§ 21.8	Early Twentieth Century Secured Transactions and Bankruptcy Law.....	894
	A. Early Secured Transactions Laws.....	894
	B. Bankruptcy Law and the "Second Chance" Theology.....	895
§ 21.9	Principles Derived from the Preceding Practices, Values and Attitudes.....	897
	A. Freedom of Contract: That Which the Law Does Not Expressly Forbid, It Allows.....	897
	B. Contracts Must Be Performed in Good Faith, i.e. , in an Honest, Reasonable and Fair Manner.....	897
	C. Private Ownership of Property Is Preferable to Communal Property...	898
	D. Those Whose Labor Creates Wealth Are Entitled to a Share of It.....	899
	E. Equal Protection of Equals, and the Growing Inclusiveness of Equals.....	900
	F. The Protection of Third Parties as Actual or Potential Market Participants.....	902
§ 21.10	Commercial Legislation.....	905
	A. Early Legislators in Independent America: Cultured Gentlemen, the Enlightenment and the Middling Sorts.....	906

	B. The Enlightenment and Some of the Key Principles of United States Public Law.....	907
§ 21.11	The United States Constitution of 1789 and Its Compromises.....	908
	A. The Federal-State Dualism.....	908
	B. A Government with Limited Powers and a Society That Profited from Slavery.....	908
	C. A Uniform Federal Commercial Law?.....	909
	1. Swift v. Tyson and the Long Shadow of Lord Mansfield.....	909
	2. Casuistry and Prolixity in Statutory and Codified Law.....	912
	3. Late Nineteenth- and Early Twentieth-Century Statutory Law....	912
	4. The ALI and Its Restatements of the Law.....	914
	5. NCCUSL and the Drafting of the U.C.C. Article 5.....	915
	6. The United States Legislative Drafting Style.....	918
§ 21.12	Statutory and Administrative Regulation of Abusive Practices.....	919
	A. Overreaching.....	919
	1. The Preference for a Corporate Conduct That Maximizes Share Prices and Social Welfare.....	919
	2. The Regulation of the Maximization of Contractual and Property Rights and Judicial and Administrative Remedies.....	921
	B. The Tools to Combat Overreaching.....	921
	C. Disclosure as a Regulatory Tool.....	922
§ 21.13	Summary and Conclusions.....	923

PART VI. FORMATION, INTERPRETATION AND ADJUDICATION OF CONTRACTUAL AND CUSTOMARY LAW DISPUTES

CHAPTER 22. FORMATION OF CONTRACTS: CEREMONY OR

	CONDUCT?.....	927
§ 22.1	Introduction: The Static and Dynamic Versions of “Civil” and Commercial Contracts.....	927
	A. The Code Civil (Static-Ceremonial) Contract.....	928
	B. The “Classic” (Static) Contract of Nineteenth Century United States Decisional Law and Restatement (First) of Contracts.....	930
	C. Legal and Economic Consequences of the Ceremonial Conception: Parmenides’ Transactional World.....	931
	D. Legal and Economic Consequences of the Ceremonial and Static Conception: Parmenides and the Commercial Transactional World.....	932
	E. The Commercial (Dynamic) Contract and the Market Forces Behind It: Heraclites’ Transactional World.....	934
	F. The Official and Living Law That Governs Contemporary Commercial Contracts.....	937
§ 22.2	Causa and the Predictability of Commercial Contracts.....	939
	A. Causa in Roman and Medieval Law.....	940
	B. Causa in the Code Civil and in Some of Its Progeny.....	942
	C. The Long Moral Reach of Causa : A 1957 Decision by the French Cour de Cassation .....	945
	Questions and Comments.....	946

§ 22.3	Contemporary International Principles of Contract Law Excluding Causa .....	948
	A. EPCL .....	948
	B. UNIDROIT Principles .....	948
§ 22.4	Consideration: Gift Giving, Credit and Trustworthiness .....	949
	A. Instances of Gift Giving, Fairness, Loyalty and Cooperation.....	949
	1. Gifts and Benevolence in Nineteenth-Century London .....	949
	2. Fairness and Quid Pro Quo : Something for Something and for Nothing at the Tate Museum in 1968 .....	950
	3. The Giving of Credit and Trust at Wildy’s and Sons in 1970 London .....	950
	4. Gifts of Soap: Customer Loyalty Following a Hurricane in Marianao, Cuba.....	951
	B. Reciprocity and Gift Giving in Pre-Commercial and Feudal England .....	952
	C. Credit and Commerce in Early Modern England .....	953
	1. The Omnipresence of Credit: Self Interest, Trust and Commercial Altruism .....	954
	2. Legal Institutions Spawned by the English Credit Society: Standard Practices, Good Faith, Fair Dealing and Reckonings .....	957
	D. The Legal Development of Consideration .....	958
	1. Medieval and Renaissance Meanings of Consideration .....	959
	2. Consideration’s Connection with the Actions on Debt, Covenant and Assumpsit : Slade’s Case .....	960
§ 22.5	Contract as a Bilateral or Multi-Lateral Agreement and as a Promise: The Restatement of Contracts (Second) .....	964
§ 22.6	Consideration as Obligation: The Shortcomings of the Bargain Test.....	965
	A. Negotiated Consideration: A Conceptual Revolution or a Regression to a Motivational Causa .....	965
	B. Adequacy of Consideration, the Peppercorn and the Bargained-for Test .....	968
§ 22.7	Commercial Contracts That Lack Bargained-for Consideration, but Deserve Enforcement .....	969
	A. Master Agreements and Bargained-for Consideration .....	970
	B. Past Consideration and Bargained-for Consideration: Lord Mansfield’s Decision in Pillans v. Van Mierop .....	972
§ 22.8	Offers, Acceptances and Consideration.....	975
	A. The Meaning of Offer: Binding When Issued or When Accepted?.....	975
	B. Key Rule of Traffic: Offers Clothed with Consideration .....	977
	C. Some Key Rules of Traffic in the Restatement (Second).....	978
	D. Irrevocability and § 2–205 of the U.C.C. ....	980
§ 22.9	Conclusions and Recommendations .....	981
§ 22.10	Appendix: Formalities and Solemnities in Comparative Case Law.....	984
	A. Ibero-American and United States Case Law .....	984
	B. Parmenides’ Logic and the Validity of an Insurance Contract Under Uruguayan Law .....	985
	1. Applicable Law.....	985
	a. Civil Code of Uruguay.....	985
	b. Commercial Code of Uruguay .....	985

2.	Decision by the Supreme Court of Uruguay, 1991, Volume 102, LJU Case 11695 .....	985
	Comments and Questions.....	986
C.	Heraclites' Being: Informality in the Formation of United States Agri-Business Contracts.....	987
1.	The Informality of the Commercial Sale of an Automobile.....	987
a.	Roy Buckner Chevrolet, Inc. v. Robert Cagle.....	987
	Comments and Questions.....	990
b.	Heraclitean Features of Commercial and Financial Contracts .....	990
	Comments and Questions.....	993
D.	Heraclites and Contract Formation as a Result of the Parties Conduct in Agri-Business.....	994
	Comments and Questions .....	996
E.	Spanish Case Law: Formalities ad Solemnitatem and ad Probationem .....	997
F.	The Spiritualistic Principle in the Spanish Civil Code .....	997
G.	Supreme Court Decision No. 1743, March 12, 1994, Civil.....	998
	Comments and Questions .....	999
H.	Supreme Court Decision No. 6424, July 4, 1994, Civil .....	999
	Comments and Questions .....	1000
I.	Salvadoran Case Law: Solemnity of a Waybill and Classification of Contracts .....	1001
	Comments and Questions .....	1003
J.	Mexican Case Law on Contractual Formality and Solemnity.....	1003
	Comments and Questions .....	1004
K.	Preparatory Contracts and Public Deeds Under Mexican Law.....	1004
	Comments and Questions .....	1007
CHAPTER 23. GOOD FAITH AND REASONABLENESS IN THE INTERPRETATION OF COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS.....		1009
§ 23.1	Introduction and Summary.....	1009
A.	From a Formalistic to a Commercial-Sectoral Interpretation.....	1009
B.	An Illustration of Embedded Good Faith in Usages of Trade.....	1011
C.	Good Faith in Representative Civil and Common European Law .....	1013
§ 23.2	Contract Types, Stages, and Sources of Interpretation .....	1014
§ 23.3	Good Faith Interpretation: Judicial and Market-Based Versions.....	1017
§ 23.4	Good Faith in the Judicial Interpretation of Commercial Contracts.....	1019
A.	Good Faith ( Bona Fides ) in Roman and Medieval Law .....	1019
B.	Good Faith ( Bonne Foi ) in the Code Civil and in French Judicial and Doctrinal Interpretation .....	1021
1.	Contractual Diligence, Fault ( Culpa ) and the Bon Père de Famille .....	1022
2.	The Obligation to Produce a Result or to Employ Ordinary Diligence .....	1024
3.	Conclusion: Diligence and Completion of a Performance Are Not Necessarily Determinative of Good Faith.....	1026
C.	Good Faith, Trade Usage and Archetypal Behavior in the BGB, HGB and Court Decisions .....	1026

	1. BGB and HGB Provisions on Good Faith and an Imperial Court's Monetary Revaluation .....	1026
	2. Good Faith, Reasonableness and Abuse of Rights ( Unzulässige Rechtsabüsung, or Rechtsmissbrauch ) .....	1029
	3. Conclusions.....	1030
	D. Good Faith and Reasonableness in English Law .....	1031
	1. Adversarial vs. Cooperative/Fiduciary Transactions; Standard and Fiduciary Practices .....	1032
	2. Lord Mansfield on Truth Telling, Contractual Warranties and Good Faith .....	1033
	a. Warranties Associated with Horses Sold for a Sound Price: Express and Implied Warranties .....	1034
	b. Implied Warranties in the Sale of Beer .....	1035
	c. Good Faith, Implied Warranties in Insurance Contracts and the Importance of Telling the Truth.....	1036
	3. Conclusions: Mansfield's Good Faith and Reasonableness .....	1037
§ 23.5	Good Faith in the U.C.C. and Restatement (Second).....	1038
	A. Articles 1 and 2 of the U.C.C. and Restatement (Second) § 202.....	1038
	1. A Sectoral Contractual Intent: Course of Performance, of Dealing and Usage of Trade (Former U.C.C. § 1–205, Present § 1–303(a), (b) and (c).....	1040
	2. The Sectoral Meaning of Reasonableness: Placing Oneself in the Position of “An Archetypal Other,” A Personal Anecdote .....	1042
	B. Llewellyn's Archetypal “Decent” Merchant and His German Antecedent.....	1044
	C. The Unreasonable Exclusion of Commercial Reasonableness in Article 5 of the U.C.C. ....	1044
	D. The Merchant Rules of U.C.C. Article 2.....	1046
	1. The Grand Style of Interpreting Contracts and Llewellyn's Merchant Rules .....	1047
	2. A Contemporary Evaluation of the “Merchant Rules” in Article 2 of the U.C.C.....	1049
	a. Perfect Tender vs. Substantial Performance.....	1050
	b. The Need for Writings: The Statute of Frauds and Confirmatory Memoranda .....	1051
§ 23.6	Legal and Doctrinal Perspectives on Good Faith: Law and Economics Analysis .....	1055
	A. The Facts .....	1055
	B. A Subjective “State of Mind” Approach to Discerning Good or Bad Faith .....	1056
	C. Judge Posner's Ordered Search for Orenstein's State of Mind.....	1057
	D. The Law and Economics Justification for Judge Posner's Opinion.....	1059
	E. Professor Summer's Negative Excluder .....	1060
	F. An Objective, Sectoral Version of Good Faith Commercial Leasing ....	1062
	1. Introduction.....	1062
§ 23.7	Conclusions: Good Faith and the Prophecy of What Courts Will Do in Fact.....	1065
§ 23.8	Appendix 1: Comments by a Respected Commercial Real Estate Broker ...	1066
§ 23.9	Appendix 2: Comparative Case Law .....	1067

A.	Introduction.....	1067
B.	How a Formal Logical Intent Can Do Away with Good Faith, Reasonableness, Fairness and Justice .....	1068
1.	Factual Gaps and Non-Reliance on Course of Dealing and Usage of Trade .....	1072
2.	Law, Legal Culture and Limitations to Equitable Decision Making: Prayed for Justice, Literalism and Contract Typification.....	1073
3.	The Fairness of the Marketplace .....	1074
C.	Good Faith Among Co-Adventurers .....	1075
1.	Cardozo's Awareness of Relevant Facts .....	1079
2.	Typification vs. the Duties of a Commercial Relationship as the Ratio Decidendi: Average Good Faith (Honesty in Fact) vs. Uberrima Fides .....	1080
D.	Plain Meaning of the Words Within the Four Corners of a Deed vs. Market Intent.....	1081
E.	Usage of Trade as Provider of Sectoral and Contractual Intent .....	1082
	Comments and Questions .....	1086
F.	Usage of Trade vs. a Mutually Mistaken Term .....	1087
1.	Haakjöeringsköd Case .....	1087
2.	Holding of the Reichsgericht (Supreme Court of Germany in 1920) .....	1088
G.	Strict Compliance, Good Faith, Fraud and Abuse of Rights in German Letter of Credit and Bank Guarantee Law .....	1088
1.	Introduction.....	1088
2.	Landgericht Stuttgart, June 15, 1978, WM 1056 (1978).....	1090
3.	OLG Frankfurt, March 3, 1983, WM 1983, 575.....	1091
	Comments and Questions.....	1093
4.	Trade Usage, Reasonableness and Unconscionability in United States and German Court Decisions .....	1093
a.	Frigalment Importing Co. v. B.N.S. Int'l Sales Corp.....	1093
b.	Trade, Sector and Commercial Reasonableness: Profit Seeking as a Common Denominator? .....	1096
CHAPTER 24. DRAFTING COMMERCIAL PRACTICES AND THE GROWTH OF COMMERCIAL CONTRACT LAW .....		1099
§ 24.1	Introduction .....	1099
§ 24.2	The Nuclear Elements of a Viable Commercial Practice .....	1101
A.	Selfishness.....	1101
B.	Altruism .....	1102
C.	The Importance of Factual (Non-Formally Logical) Research When Identifying the Nuclear Elements of a Practice.....	1103
D.	The Nuclear Elements of a Contemporary Secured Transaction .....	1104
§ 24.3	Secured Lending in Imperial Rome: Archetypal Parties .....	1105
A.	Socio-Economic Context: The Republican and Imperial Commercial Archetypes.....	1105
B.	The Creditor's Fiduciary Ownership ( Fiducia ), His Possesory Pledge ( Pignus ) and His Non-Possessory Mortgage ( Hypotheca ) .....	1107
1.	The Fiducia , the Pignus and the Hypotheca .....	1108

	2. The Sale of Collateral by Creditors in the Justinian Digest and Code .....	1111
	3. Unbridled Selfish Practices and Legal Invertebration.....	1112
	4. Questions, Comments and Conclusions .....	1113
§ 24.4	Drafting Commercial Letter of Credit (LOC) Practices .....	1116
	A. Why LOC Practices?.....	1116
	B. The Basic Commercial LOC Transaction .....	1116
	C. The Interchangeable Functions of Correspondent LOC Banks and Their Organic Marketplace Standard of Fairness.....	1117
	D. Standard and Fiduciary Practices for the Examination of LOC Documents.....	1118
	1. The Birth of a Nuclear LOC Practice, Its Shapers and Practitioners .....	1118
	2. Macro and Micro-Economic Forces That Encouraged or Discouraged LOC Practices in the United States.....	1120
§ 24.5	The Limited Role of Judicial, Statutory, or Codified LOC Law .....	1121
§ 24.6	Predecessors of UCP 500.....	1123
	A. The New York Bankers' Regulations Affecting Export Commercial Credits of 1920 (New York 1920 Regulations).....	1123
	B. The Uniform Customs and Practices for Documentary Credits (UCP) .....	1124
	C. Bankers' Documentary Examination Manuals and Checklists.....	1125
	D. The Uniform Customs and Practices for Documentary Credits (UCP 1933 Revision).....	1127
	E. The Uniform Customs and Practices for Documentary Credits (UCP 1951 Revision).....	1128
	F. The 1962, 1974 and 1983 Revisions: Bernard Wheble and Lawyers as Participants in the Drafting Groups.....	1128
§ 24.7	UCP 400 Problems and UCP 500 Cures .....	1130
	A. Revocability-Express or Hidden and Uncertainty of the Credit Promise.....	1131
	B. An Issuer or Confirmer's Primary Liability.....	1131
	C. An Uncertain Time of Establishment.....	1132
	D. Uncertain Finality of Payment by the Confirming Bank .....	1132
	E. Negotiation of the LOC Draft and Commissions: Good Faith and Reasonableness .....	1133
	F. Elimination of a Monopolistic Bill of Lading Practice.....	1135
	G. Bad Faith Excuses Not to Pay or Reimburse: A Judicial Mirror Image Version of Strict Compliance .....	1135
	H. The Issuing Bank's Discretion to Approach the Applicant for a Waiver of Discrepancies .....	1137
	I. Consequences of the Judicial Mirror Image Compliance: Costly Defensive Practices.....	1138
§ 24.8	The UCP 500's Response to Bad Faith Discrepancies and the ISBP.....	1139
§ 24.9	Factors That Determine Documentary Checking Practices .....	1139
	A. Extrinsic Factors.....	1139
	B. Intrinsic Factors: Archetypal Bad and Good Faith Bankers .....	1140
	1. Bad Faith Bankers.....	1140
	2. Honest but Excessively Selfish Bankers .....	1140

	3. A Reasonable Document Checker .....	1140
§ 24.10	Summary and Conclusions .....	1141
CHAPTER 25. BRIEF OVERVIEW OF COMMERCIAL TRIAL
	PROCEDURE .....	1149
§ 25.1	Introduction .....	1149
	A. General Overview of Ordinary or Declarative Judicial Procedures in Latin America and Spain.....	1150
	B. Justicia Rogada, Ultra Petita , and the Remedial Finality of the Pleadings .....	1151
	Comments and Questions .....	1153
§ 25.2	A Typical Uruguayan Complaint.....	1154
§ 25.3	The Summary or Executive Process in Colombia, Mexico, and Spain .....	1157
	A. Introduction.....	1157
	B. Essential Elements of an Executive-Summary Procedure .....	1158
	C. Cautionary Measures .....	1159
	D. Types of Summary Processes: Large and Small Claims .....	1160
	1. Example of a Colombian Complaint in a Summary Process.....	1161
	2. Example of a Mexican Complaint in a Summary Process .....	1163
§ 25.4	A Landmark Spanish Decision on Defenses in an Executive Procedure.....	1165
§ 25.5	A Commentary, a Suggestion and a Few Questions .....	1168
§ 25.6	United States Process: Discovery, Complaint and Decision .....	1170
	A. From Common Law Forms of Action to Code Pleadings.....	1170
	B. Summary Judgment Decisions .....	1172
	C. Filing a Civil Action.....	1172
	1. Pre-Trial Discovery .....	1172
	2. Complaint .....	1173
	a. Sample of a U.S. Complaint .....	1174
	b. Importance of Pre-Trial Discovery: Arbitration Between Plaintiff “PC” and Defendant “MC,” Case Number XXX of the AAA.....	1176
CHAPTER 26. PRE-CONTRACTUAL LIABILITY: CULPA IN
	CONTRAHENDO .....	1183
§ 26.1	Introduction .....	1183
§ 26.2	A Brief Survey of Culpa in Contrahendo in Civil Law Countries .....	1184
	A. Germany .....	1184
	B. France.....	1185
	C. Italy.....	1186
	D. Peru and Argentina .....	1186
	E. Chile.....	1187
§ 26.3	Culpa in Contrahendo in Common Law Jurisdictions.....	1188
	A. Determination of Damages Under Culpa in Contrahendo .....	1189
	B. Culpa in Contrahendo from an International Perspective .....	1190
	C. Case Law .....	1191
	1. Chile: Juan Antonio Luna Espinoza v. Sergio Bobadilla Valenzuela et. al. , Appellate Court of Talca, Chile (Nov. 8, 1999) .....	1191
	a. Findings of Fact.....	1191

	b.	Procedural History .....	1192
	c.	Issue .....	1192
	d.	The Court's Opinion .....	1192
	e.	The Court's Reasoning .....	1192
		Discussion Topics .....	1193
CHAPTER 27. EXCUSES FOR NON-PERFORMANCE OF CONTRACTS.....			1195
§ 27.1		Introduction .....	1195
§ 27.2		Factual Basis for the Arbitration .....	1196
§ 27.3		Elements of the Arbitral Decision .....	1196
	A.	The Plan of the Comparative Analysis.....	1196
	B.	The Exceptional Nature of Excuses for Non-Performance.....	1197
	C.	Summary of the Expert's Opinion .....	1197
	D.	Basic Concepts Supporting This Opinion.....	1198
		1. The Synallagmatic Balance of Article 994 S.Com.C.....	1198
		2. The Synallagmatic Balance of a Group of Contracts.....	1199
		3. Foreseeability of the Synallagmatic Imbalance.....	1200
		4. Permissive Nature of Article 994 S.Com.C. ....	1200
§ 27.4		Transactional and Legal Bases for the Opinion .....	1200
	A.	Normative Lineage and Main Features of Article 994 S.Com.C. and Article 1467 of the It.C.C. ....	1200
	B.	Foreseeability of the Assumption of Risks by the GCES .....	1201
	C.	Determining the Fair Price of Natural Gas Under the PCG.....	1202
	D.	The Remedies for Excessive Onerousness Under Italian Law .....	1202
	E.	Comparison of Remedies Under Italian Law.....	1203
		1. Rescission .....	1203
		2. Annulment and Mistake.....	1204
		3. Rebus Sic Stantibus .....	1205
		4. Aleatory Contracts and the Waiver of Excessive Onerousness ....	1205
		5. Foreseeability and the " Uomo Medio " .....	1208
		6. Contractual Presuppositions ( Presupposizione ).....	1209
		7. Subjective Excessive Onerousness.....	1210
	F.	Judicial and Doctrinal Circumscription of the Remedial Criteria of Article 1467 of the It.C.C. ....	1211
	G.	Excessive Onerousness Under Argentinean Law .....	1213
		1. Article 1198 of the Argentinean Civil Code.....	1213
		2. Argentinean Case Law and Hyperinflation .....	1214
	H.	Excessive Onerousness in German Law .....	1216
		1. Legal and Economic Background.....	1216
		2. The Anpassung and Judicial Activism .....	1217
	I.	The Rebus Sic Stantibus Clause Under Swiss Law .....	1219
	J.	Theory of Unforeseeability Under French Law .....	1220
	K.	Excuses for Non-Performance Under U.S. Law: Injury, Impossibility, Impracticability and Frustration of the Purpose.....	1221
§ 27.5		The Restatement 2nd of Contracts: Issues for Class Discussion .....	1222
		Questions.....	1223
CHAPTER 28. EXTRAJUDICIAL REMEDIES AND THE REMEDY OF SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE.....			1225

§ 28.1	Introduction .....	1225
§ 28.2	Extrajudicial Remedies .....	1225
	A. CISG .....	1227
	B. U.S. Escrow Agreement as an Extrajudicial Remedy .....	1228
	C. UNIDROIT Principles on International Commercial Contracts (2004) (Hereinafter UNIDROIT Principles).....	1230
§ 28.3	Judicial Opposition to Extrajudicial Remedies .....	1231
§ 28.4	The Increasing Role of Extrajudicial Remedies.....	1233
	A. Anticipatory Repudiation, Substitute Transactions and Nachfrist .....	1233
	B. The Aggrieved Party’s Duty to Mitigate Damages .....	1235
	C. Preclusion .....	1235
§ 28.5	The Prohibition of the Pactum Commissorium , in a Costa Rican Decision .....	1236
	Comments and Questions .....	1238
§ 28.6	The Sicherungsübereignung Under German Law .....	1239
	A. Interviews with German Bankers in Frankfurt and Hamburg—July 11, 1971 .....	1239
	B. Economic Significance of Resolution Clauses and Extrajudicial Remedies in the Law of Commercial Loans .....	1240
	C. Honduran Law on Secured Transactions—2010 .....	1240
	Comments and Questions .....	1241
§ 28.7	Specific Performance as a Remedy for Commercial Contracts.....	1241
	A. Introduction.....	1241
	B. John P. Dawson and Specific Performance Under French, German and North American Law.....	1242
	1. Roman Law.....	1242
	2. Roman Law-Inspired Medieval Law.....	1243
	3. France: “ Nemo Potest Praecise Cogi ad Factum ” as a Self-Evident Truth .....	1244
	4. Germany .....	1247
	5. United States .....	1250
§ 28.8	Specific Performance and the Just-in-Time Payment and Delivery: An Illustrative Case .....	1252
	Comments and Questions .....	1258
CHAPTER 29. JUDICIAL AND EXTRAJUDICIAL TERMINATION .....		1261
§ 29.1	Remedies for Breach of Commercial or Dynamic Contracts.....	1261
§ 29.2	Justice Holmes’ Bad Man and Section 2–609 Assurances .....	1263
§ 29.3	The Anticipatory Repudiation of § 2.610 of the U.C.C. and Its Companion Remedies .....	1264
	A. Introduction.....	1264
	B. Statements of Anticipatory Repudiation.....	1266
	C. Anticipatory Repudiation Conduct .....	1267
	D. Failure to Give Adequate Assurance of Performance as Anticipatory Repudiation .....	1267
§ 29.4	A Judicial Excursus of Breach of Contract Remedies Under the U.C.C.....	1271
	Comments and Questions .....	1275
§ 29.5	Anticipatory Repudiation Under Spanish Law: Spanish Decision No. 7491, October 20, 1994 .....	1276

	Comments .....	1277
§ 29.6	Extrajudicial Resolution Under Mexican Case Law .....	1278
	Comments .....	1279
§ 29.7	The Nachfrist in German Case Law .....	1280
	A. Bundesgerichtshof , October 30, 1991—VIII ZR 9–91 .....	1280
	Comments and Questions .....	1282
	B. Bundesgerichtshof , December 12, 1985—VIII ZR 47–85 .....	1282
	Comments and Questions .....	1283
	C. BGB Section 323 .....	1283
§ 29.8	Contemporary Variants of Extrajudicial Termination Remedies .....	1284
	A. U.C.C. Section 9–609 Secured Party’s Right to Take Possession After Default .....	1284
	B. OAS Model Law of 2002 .....	1285
	C. Guatemalan Decree Number 51–2007 .....	1285
	D. Honduran Law of Secured Transactions of February 24, 2008 .....	1286
	E. UCP 500 Sub Article 14d .....	1286
	F. UCP 500 Sub-Article 14e.....	1287
§ 29.9	Conclusion.....	1287

CHAPTER 30. DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF WARRANTY IN U.S. LAW AND ECONOMIC ANALYSIS .....

1289

§ 30.1	Basic Notions of U.S. Law on the Recovery of Damages.....	1289
	A. Actual Resales.....	1289
	B. Hypothetical Resales .....	1290
	C. Specific Performance and the Seller’s Action to Recover the Price .....	1291
	D. The Buyer’s Action for Cover .....	1292
	E. Buyer’s Damages from a Hypothetical Re-Purchase.....	1292
	F. Buyer’s Action for Breach of Warranty .....	1292
§ 30.2	Damages for Non-Performance of Contractual Warranties in U.S. Law.....	1293
	A. Express and Implied Warranties Under the U.C.C. ....	1293
	B. Historical Background of Contractual Warranties in Common Law ...	1295
	C. Damages for Breach of Warranties; Consequential Damages in Taylor and Gaskin Inc. v. Chris Craft Industries.....	1297
	D. Issues for Class Discussion .....	1300
	E. The U.C.C. Implied Warranty of Merchantability and the Spanish Civil Code Redhibitory Action (“ Accion Redhibitoria ”) .....	1301
§ 30.3	Recovery of Loss Profits by the “Lost Volume” Seller in Anglo-American Law .....	1302
	A. R.E. Davis Chemical Corp. v. Diasonics Inc. ....	1302
	B. The “Economic Analysis of Law”; a Propos of the Lost Volume Seller.....	1306
	C. Analytical Tools of EAL: Principles, Corollaries, Theorems and Concepts .....	1306
	1. The First Two Principles: On the Law of Demand, and on the Relationship Between Prices and the Costs of Opportunity .....	1306
	2. The Third Principle: Economic Efficiency .....	1308
	D. Posner’s Homo Economicus , Ordinary Merchants, and the Bonus Vir .....	1310