

Table of Contents

Chapter 1. MEE Basics	1
A. What This Book Will Do for You	1
B. MEE Format and Subject Areas	3
C. The Table of Issues and Individual Subject Charts	5
D. What Is Required of You	5
1. Study Actively	6
2. Work with Past MEEs	7
3. Let Go of Your Notes	8
Chapter 2. Learning the Black Letter Law	9
A. How to Study for the MEE	9
1. Memorizing the Law	10
2. Subject Strategies	12
3. Don't Get Lost in the Details	12
B. The Who, What, and When of Practicing Questions	13
1. Whose Questions to Practice	14
2. What Questions to Practice	14
3. When to Practice Questions	14
4. Why to Practice Questions	15
C. Applying the Process	16
1. Sequence the Material	16
2. Target the Topic	19
3. Repeat the Process	20
D. Structured Study Schedules	22
1. By the Day	23
2. By the Week	25
3. Avoid Burnout and Boredom	25
Chapter 3. Writing for the MEE	31
A. Writing Is a Dialogue	31
B. De-constructing MEE Questions and Analyses	32
1. De-constructing the Questions	32
2. De-constructing the Analyses Sheets	36
C. Follow a Formula: Write IRAC	38
1. Stating the Issue	39
2. Building the Rule of Law	41
a. Write Enough Rule	42
b. Write the Rule in Its Logical Order	42
3. Writing the Analysis	47
a. "Run the Rule": Application = Rule + Fact	47
b. "The Fact Whisperer": Listen to All of the Facts	49

4.	Stating the Conclusion.....	50
D.	Automate the Process	51
1.	Allocate Your Time for Each Question and Set Your Timetable	51
2.	Scan the Exam but Answer the Questions in Order	53
3.	Begin at the End of the Question with the Call-of- the-Question	53
4.	Read the Entire Question for the First Time	54
5.	Outline Your Answer	56
a.	When Working with Numbered Questions in a Specific-Style Essay	56
b.	When Working with a General-Style Essay	57
6.	Write the Essay	58
a.	Follow the “Yellow Brick Road” and/or Use Sub-Headings.....	58
b.	Write IRAC	59
7.	When 30 Minutes Are up, Move on to the Next Question.....	60
E.	“Be in the Moment”.....	60
F.	Other Essay Writing Strategies.....	61
1.	Write in Paragraph Form	61
2.	Do Not Overly Rely on Underlining, Capitalizing, Etc.....	61
G.	Emergency Measures or “What to Do if”	61
1.	You Freeze and Begin to Panic.....	61
2.	You Don’t Know the Rule of Law	63
H.	A Checklist for Writing “Bar-Right” MEEs	66
I.	Automating the MEE Writing Process	67
Chapter 4. Practice Makes Points.....		69
A.	De-constructing a Typical MEE	70
1.	Torts: February 2010.....	70
a.	Substantively	70
b.	Structurally	71
2.	Reading the Question	71
3.	Outlining the Answer Using the Rule/Fact Chart ... February 2010: Torts.....	72 73
	Reading the Question	75
	Outlining the Answer Using the Rule/Fact Chart ...	76
4.	Family Law: July 2008, February 2018	77
a.	Substance	77

b.	Language	77
	July 2008: Family Law	79
	February 2018: Family Law	81
B.	Getting Organized: “Follow the Yellow Brick Road”	84
1.	Outlining with Numbered Interrogatories: July 2016.....	84
a.	MEE Chart	84
b.	MEE Outline.....	84
c.	Clues in the Language	85
	July 2016: Corporations and Limited Liability Companies	88
	July 2016: Corporations and Limited Liability Companies	90
	Outline for July 2016 MEE.....	93
2.	Outlining with Hidden Interrogatories: July 2016.....	95
	July 2016: Civil Procedure	96
3.	Outlining Without Interrogatories: February 2012.....	97
	February 2012: Corporations	99
C.	Using the Clues in the “4-Corners of the MEE”.....	100
1.	Hiding in Plain Sight.....	100
2.	Using the Rule/Fact Chart	101
	February 2017: Agency	102
D.	“X’s and O’s”	105
E.	“The Fact Whisperer”	106
1.	Letting the Facts Lead You to the Legal Problem	106
a.	The Modification Issue.....	106
b.	The Lodging Issue.....	107
2.	Ensuring That You Write a Complete Analysis.....	108
	Contracts: February 2018	109
Chapter 5. An MEE Make-Over Using Legal Forensics		113
A.	How Forensic IRAC Works with the MEE	113
B.	Applying the Technique	114
1.	When You Have Trouble Finding the “Issue”	115
a.	How You Can Tell When It Shows up in Your Statement of the Rule	115
b.	How You Can Tell When It Shows up in Your Application	117
c.	Suggested Remedies	120

2.	When You Have Trouble Writing the “Rule”	124
a.	When You Don’t Really Know the Applicable Rule	125
(1)	Substituting Your Words for Legal Language	128
(2)	Absence of Legal Vocabulary	128
(3)	Dependence on “Buzz-Words” Without Back-up.....	128
b.	When Your Statement of the Rule Is Incomplete or Unorganized	128
(1)	Provide a “General Rule” When It Comes to Writing the Rule	130
(2)	Write the Rule in Its Logical Order	133
3.	When You Have Trouble Writing the “Application”	134
a.	The Importance of “Because”	135
b.	Conclusory Statements	136
c.	Avoiding Analysis with “If”	137
C.	Making It Visible	137
	Appendix	141
A.	Table of Issues by Bar Exam Administration	142
B.	Subject Charts	142