

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.....	III
TABLE OF CASES	XIII
Scenario I. Who’s the Client?.....	1
A. Principle of Confidentiality	1
B. Counsel’s Communications with the Client’s Constituents	2
C. Closely-Held Enterprises.....	3
D. The “Entity” Rule.....	6
E. “Reasonable Expectation” Standard	6
F. Avoidance of Conflicting Interests	8
1. Attorney as Intermediary.....	8
2. Steps to Minimize Conflicts and Liability	9
Scenario	10
Scenario II. Confidentiality Owed to Existing and Former Clients	15
A. A Business Enterprise as the Client—Going-Up the “Ladder”	16
B. Counsel Communicating with Corporate Constituents	18
C. Attorney Withdrawal from the Representation.....	18
D. Attorney’s Duty of Confidentiality—Varies by Jurisdiction.....	20
E. Unacceptability of “Ostrich” Approach by Counsel	23
F. Communicating with Prospective Successor Counsel	25
Securities and Exchange Commission v. Spiegel, Inc.	25
United States v. Tamman.....	30
Hays v. Page Perry, LLC	32
Scenario	36
Scenario III. The Lawyer as Intermediary.....	39
A. Attorney Acting as Intermediary—Conditions Required....	39
B. Situations When Counsel Acting as Intermediary Appropriate	40
C. Consequences of Attorney as Intermediary	41
Scenario	43

Scenario IV. Corporate Internal Investigations: What About Confidentiality?	47
A. Lawyer-Client Confidentiality in the Corporate Setting	47
B. Purposes of Internal Investigations	50
C. Components of an Internal Investigation	51
D. Quasi-Miranda Warnings	52
In the Matter of KBR Inc.	57
In Re Kellogg Brown & Root, Inc.	61
Scenario	65
Scenario V. Parent-Subsidiary Related Party Transactions	71
A. Concerns with Dual Representation: Parent-Subsidiary Transactions	71
B. Counsel’s Ethical Duties Intertwined with Substantive Law	73
1. Entire Fairness Standard	74
2. Establishment of Special Committee	76
C. Relation Between Counsel’s Duties and Substantive Law	78
D. Permissibility of Dual Representation if Conditions Met ...	79
E. Counsel’s Liability Exposure	80
In re Dole Food Co., Inc. Stockholder Litigation	81
Scenario	83
Scenario VI. The Corporate Opportunity Doctrine and the Lawyer’s Role	87
A. Corporate Opportunity—Overview	87
B. Presenting the Opportunity to the Corporation	88
C. Tests for Determining a Corporate Opportunity	89
Scenario	97
Scenario VII. The Multiple Representation Dilemma for the Business Attorney	99
A. Ethical Concerns—Multiple Representation	99
B. Situations Where Multiple Representation Concerns Arise	101
1. Derivative Suits	102
2. Government Investigations and Proceedings	105

C. Joint Defense Doctrine	107
In re Rossana	110
Scenario	115
Scenario VIII. Screening and the Personally
Disqualified Attorney	119
A. Simultaneous Representation	120
B. Successive Representation.....	120
C. Vicarious Disqualification of Law Firm—Imputation Concerns	121
D. “Screening” the Disqualified Attorney	122
E. Conflict Dilemmas—Simultaneous Representation	122
F. Conflict Dilemmas—Successive Representation	125
G. Recognition of Screening to Avert Firm-Wide Disqualification	128
H. The Former Government Lawyer—a More Lax Standard.....	132
Cromeans v. Morgan Keegan & Co., Inc.	134
Galderma Laboratories, L.P. v. Actavis Mid Atlantic LLC.....	137
Scenario	149
Scenario IX. Business Attorney as Litigator in
Corporate Settings	151
A. Application of Model Rules	151
B. Filing of Frivolous Claims	152
1. Basis in Law and Fact Not Frivolous	153
2. Degree of Inquiry Reasonable	155
3. Good Faith Argument for Modification of the Law	157
C. Discovery Abuse	160
1. Broad Range of Discovery	160
2. Propriety of Discovery Tactics	161
D. Decision-Making Between Counsel and Client	164
E. Termination of Attorney-Client Engagement.....	166
Kayne v. Grande Holdings Limited.....	168
Scenario	172
F. The Litigation Privilege	174
1. Attorney Fraudulent Conduct.....	175
2. Application to Non-Litigation Settings.....	175
Clark v. Druckman	177

Troice v. Proskauer Rose L.L.P.	181
Scenario	185
Scenario X. Lawyers Taking Equity Interests in Their Clients	187
A. Applicable Ethical Standards	189
1. Requirement of Reasonableness	189
2. Conflicts of Interest Prohibition	190
3. Business Transactions with a Client	191
B. Considerations for Law Firm Fees Paid with Stock	192
C. Application to In-House Counsel	193
Scenario	194
Scenario XI. Inside Counsel.....	197
A. Inside Counsel—“Wedded” to His/Her Client	198
B. Challenges Facing Inside Counsel	199
1. Client Identification	199
2. Duty to Inquire	201
3. Dealing with “Suspected” Employees	204
4. Inside Counsel’s Liability Exposure	205
5. Role Within the Boardroom	206
6. Law Compliance Role	207
C. Insider Trading	209
Exxon Mobil Corporation v. Hill	210
Scenario	213
Scenario XII. Counsel as Director?	215
A. Potential Drawbacks of Legal Counsel as Director	216
B. Benefits of the Dual Role	217
C. Due Diligence by the Prospective Attorney-Director	218
D. Ethical Rules	219
E. Risks of Serving as Attorney-Director	220
F. Law Firm Assessment of Benefits/Risks.....	228
G. Suggested Alternative.....	229
Scenario	229
Appendix.....	231
Engagement Letter (Example 1).....	231
Engagement Letter (Example 2).....	237
Multiple Representation Letter—Intermediary	240

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xi

Multiple Representation Provision..... 242
Waiver of Conflict Letter..... 244
Termination of Engagement Provision..... 245
Joint Defense Agreement..... 246
“Tips” to Avoid Malpractice..... 247