

OUTLINE

PREFACE	V
---------------	---

TABLE OF CASES	XXV
----------------------	-----

PART ONE. THE FIRST AMENDMENT AND MASS COMMUNICATIONS

Chapter I. The First Amendment in Perspective.....	3
A. Introduction.....	3
B. Background, Theories and Direction of the First Amendment.....	4
1. Background	4
2. Theories and Tests of the First Amendment.....	6
a. Absolutism	9
b. The “Clear and Present Danger” Test.....	13
c. Ad Hoc Balancing of Interests	16
d. Definitional Balancing	19
3. Present Direction of the Supreme Court.....	20
C. The Dichotomy Between Prior Restraint and Subsequent Punishment of Expression	27
D. Corporate Speech	30
Chapter II. Defamation and Mass Communication.....	37
A. Interests in Conflict	37
B. The State Law of Defamation	38
1. Definition and Elements	38
a. The Defamatory Statement	40
b. Publication	47

c. Identification.....	50
d. Economic Loss.....	52
2. The Contrast Between Libel and Slander....	53
a. The Special Cases of Slander	54
b. Libel Per Se and Per Quod.....	54
3. Theories of Liability.....	56
4. Remedies	56
a. Damages.....	56
b. Use of a Permanent Injunction to Restrain Defamatory Speech	59
C. The Common Law Defenses	60
1. Truth or “Justification”	60
2. Privilege.....	62
a. Absolute Privilege.....	63
b. Qualified Privilege.....	65
(1) Limitations on the Scope of the Privilege.....	66
(2) General Requirements of the Privilege.....	67
(3) Fair Comment	68
3. Incomplete Defenses	70
4. SLAPP Suits.....	74
D. Federal Defenses.....	76
1. Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act	76
2. Libel Tourism.....	81
E. The Constitutional Law of Defamation	83
1. New York Times Co. v. Sullivan	83
2. Effects of the New York Times Case	86
3. The New York Times Progeny	88
4. The Basic Public Figure-Private Person Distinction of Gertz v. Welch	92
5. The Broad Meaning of Gertz.....	95

6. The Public Figure-Private Person Distinction	95
7. The Fact-Opinion Dichotomy	97
8. Specific Problems for the Media Created by Gertz	101
9. Questions Raised by Gertz	103
10. Non-Media Defendants and Matters of Public Concern	105
11. Neutral Reportage	109

Chapter III. Privacy and the Mass Media..... 113

A. Introduction	113
B. History and Development of the Common Law	114
C. The Common Law Today	115
1. Appropriation	116
a. Right of Publicity	121
(1) The Transformative Use Test	123
(2) Descendability	129
(3) Celebrity “Look-Alikes” and “Sound-Alikes”	131
b. Applicability of First Amendment Theory to Appropriation Cases	133
2. Intrusion	135
a. Common Law	135
b. Federal Cases Involving Harassment ..	136
c. Federal Cases Involving Hidden Cameras and Microphones	137
d. Federal Legislation on Concealed Recording Devices	140
e. State Statutes on Participant Recording	142

f.	Possession of Stolen Material and Intrusion by Journalists on Private Property.....	149
g.	Ag-Gag Laws.....	153
h.	Ride-Along Cases.....	155
i.	Applicability of First Amendment Theory to Intrusion	158
3.	False Light	159
a.	Nature and Limitations	159
b.	Applicability of First Amendment Theory to False Light Cases	161
c.	Relationship to Defamation	164
4.	Public Disclosure of Private Facts	166
a.	Nature and Limitations	166
b.	The Newsworthiness Privilege	167
c.	Applicability of First Amendment Theory to Public Disclosure of Private Facts	174
(1)	Public Disclosure of Private Facts in Cases Involving Sexual Assault	175
(2)	Public Disclosure of Private Facts in Cases Involving Rehabilitated Ex-Convicts.....	180
5.	Common Characteristics of the Four Types of Invasion of Privacy	181
D.	Legislation Designed to Protect Personal Privacy	182
1.	Privacy Act of 1974	182
2.	Driver's Privacy Protection Act.....	183
3.	Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act	184

4.	Privacy Protection in the European Union Compared with the United States	186
a.	The EU Data Protection Directive	188
b.	The “Right to Be Forgotten”.....	190
5.	Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)	192
6.	Data Mining and Pharmaceutical Manufacturers	195
7.	Google: Problems with Street View Project and Apple’s Safari Browser	196
8.	Proposed Consumer Privacy Bill of Rights.....	198
9.	“Locational Privacy”	201
10.	Cell Phones, Privacy and the Fourth Amendment.....	211
Chapter IV. The First Amendment, True Threats, Emotional and Physical Harm and Cyberstalking		213
A.	Infliction of Emotional Distress	214
B.	Media Liability for Physical Harm	222
1.	Cases in Which Individuals Accidentally Injure or Kill Themselves While Imitating TV Stunts or Suggestions in Entertainment Media	225
2.	Cases in Which Media Content Allegedly Instigates Perpetrators to Injure Innocent Third Parties	228
3.	Cases Involving Commercial Speech.....	234
C.	Speech on the Internet: True Threats	238
D.	New Issues Raised by Speech on the Internet: Cyberharassment, Cyberbullying and Cyberstalking.....	247

1. The Quartet of Student Speech Cases: Tinker, Fraser, Hazelwood and Morse	248
2. Cyberharassment.....	250
3. Cyberbullying.....	252
a. Civil Litigation.....	253
b. Criminal Cases in Which Cyberbullies Pushed Victims to Commit Suicide	254
c. Legislation Addressing Cyberbullying.....	258
4. Attempted Murder by Tweet.....	260
5. Cyberstalking.....	261
6. Live-Streaming Murder on Facebook	266
Chapter V. Copyright and Trademark	269
A. Introduction.....	269
B. Copyright Law.....	270
1. Fair Use.....	271
2. Copyright and the Internet	285
3. The Digital Millennium Copyright Act	290
C. Trademark	294
Chapter VI. Restraint of Obscene and Indecent Expression	299
A. General Theory	299
1. The Definitional Problem	299
2. Background	300
3. Modern Doctrinal Development.....	300
4. The Last Word on Obscenity: Miller v. California.....	303
5. Difficulties After Miller , Paris Adult Theatre and Jenkins	307
6. Variable Obscenity Standards	309

7.	Child Pornography.....	312
a.	CPPA and PROTECT Acts.....	315
b.	Sexting.....	318
8.	Feminist Proposals for Statutory Civil Actions to Counter Pornographic Depictions of Women	320
a.	Pornography as a Violation of Women's Civil Rights	320
b.	Sextortion.....	322
c.	Nonconsensual Pornography (Revenge Porn) on the Internet.....	323
B.	Important Special Areas of Restraint of Sexual Expression.....	328
1.	Mail and Customs Censorship	328
2.	Motion Pictures, Adult Businesses, and Zoning	329
a.	Background and Modern Doctrine	330
b.	Procedural Safeguards for Film.....	333
3.	Dial-a-Porn.....	334
4.	Military Bases and Prisons	335
C.	Subsequent Criminal Sanctions.....	336
D.	Indecency	339
1.	The Communications Decency Act and Child Online Protection Act	339
2.	Filtering Software in Public Libraries	341
3.	Broadcast Indecency	342
4.	Indecency on Cable Television	351
Chapter VII.	Restraint of the Press for Purposes of National Security.....	355
A.	The Conflict	355
B.	Legal Background	356

C. The Pentagon Papers and the Progressive Magazine Cases.....	357
D. Other Inhibitions on Publication	360
1. Withholding Passports	360
2. Criminal Prosecutions Under the 1917 Espionage Act.....	361
3. Prohibition Against Revealing Identities of Covert CIA Agents.....	364
4. Contractual Prohibitions	366
5. Balancing National Security Against Access to Combat Zones Before September 11	369
6. Balancing National Security Against Access to Combat Zones in Afghanistan and Iraq	369
7. Legislative Restraints on the Press After September 11, 2001	373
a. USA PATRIOT Act	373
b. USA FREEDOM Act of 2015	377
c. International Emergency Powers Act and SWIFT	379
d. Department of Homeland Security.....	380
e. Leaks to Journalists Related to the War on Terror	381
(1) Warrantless Surveillance	382
(2) Edward Snowden's Revelations About the National Security Agency.....	384
Chapter VIII. The Free Press-Fair Trial Conflict.....	389
A. The Problem	389
1. Introduction.....	389

2.	A Case Study: Sheppard v. Maxwell	390
3.	Court Decisions Reversing Convictions After Excessive Pretrial Publicity	393
4.	Court Decisions Upholding Convictions Despite Pretrial Publicity.....	394
B.	Approaches to the Problem.....	397
1.	Resort to Judicial Procedural Devices.....	397
2.	Limiting Access of the Media to Information on Pending Legal Matters	401
a.	Guidelines for Attorneys on Releasing Information to the Press	401
b.	Exclusion of Camera Operators and Equipment from the Courtroom and Environs	402
c.	Sealing Arrest and Other Public Records	407
d.	Closing the Courtroom	408
e.	Judicial Protection of Juror Anonymity.....	409
3.	Prior Restraint of the News Media	409
a.	Problems Engendered	410
b.	Nebraska Press Association v. Stuart... 413
c.	Gag Orders on Trial Participants Following Nebraska Press Association v. Stuart	416
4.	Subsequent Criminal Punishment of the News Media.....	418
Chapter IX. Freedom to Gather News and Information	421
A.	Introduction.....	421
B.	The Federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)	423

1.	Historical Background.....	423
2.	Operation of the Original Act in the Courts	424
3.	Early Amendments to FOIA	424
4.	The Electronic Freedom of Information Act	425
a.	Expedited Review	426
b.	Fees for Processing FOIA Requests	427
c.	Access to E-Mail Messages	428
5.	Litigation Involving the FOIA's Nine Exemptions.....	429
6.	Assessment of FOIA	452
C.	Legislation Limiting Access in the Name of National Security	455
D.	Legislation Limiting Access in the Name of Personal Privacy	456
E.	Legislation Limiting Access to an Individual's Medical Records	459
F.	Open Meetings-Open Records Legislation	460
1.	The Federal Government in the “Sunshine Act”	460
2.	State Open Meetings and Open Records Laws.....	461
G.	Media Access to Governmentally Restricted Places and Institutions	466
1.	Access to Prisons.....	467
2.	Access to Proceedings Related to Suspected Terrorists.....	470
a.	Access to Immigration and Naturalization Service Proceedings	470
b.	The Material Witness Statute	471
c.	Access to Trials of Suspected Terrorists.....	472

3. Access to Accident Sites	472
H. Media Access to Courts and Judicial Records.....	475
1. Access to Trial Proceedings.....	475
2. Access to Trial Proceedings in the United States Senate	483
3. Access to Pretrial Proceedings	485
a. Access to Grand Jury Proceedings	488
b. Access to Jurors' Identities	489
c. Access to Secret Dockets	490
4. Access to Judicial Documents and Discovery Materials.....	494
5. Access to Sealed Documents	495
6. Access to Videotapes, Audiotapes or Still Photographs	496
I. Media Access to the White House and Social Media Accounts	499
1. Revoking White House Press Credentials of Reporters Who Ask Critical Questions... ..	499
2. Attempts to Block Critics from Social Media Such as Twitter and Facebook	499

Chapter X. The Reporter's Privilege, Subpoenas, Contempt Citations and Searches and Seizures.....	501
A. Subpoenas Versus Claims of Privilege	501
1. The Contemporary Problem.....	501
2. Who Qualifies as a Journalist?	503
3. Legal Background	508
a. Common Law Privilege	508
b. Claims of Privilege Under the First Amendment.....	509

4. The Branzburg-Pappas-Caldwell Trilogy.....	511
a. What the Supreme Court Decided.....	511
b. The Legal Situation After Branzburg ...	513
(1) Civil Cases	513
(2) Violations of the Privacy Act	517
(3) Criminal Cases and Grand Jury Proceedings.....	519
(4) Cases Involving Non-Confidential Information.....	527
(5) Issues Raised by Electronically-Stored Reporters' Materials	532
(6) Searches of Journalists' Telephone Records, E-Mail Messages and Notebooks	534
(7) In Summary.....	537
c. The Practical Effect of Branzburg on Journalists and Confrontations with Congress	539
B. Shield Laws	541
1. Attempts to Pass a Federal Shield Law	541
2. State Shield Laws.....	542
a. Statutory Analysis.....	542
b. Judicial Treatment	545
3. Administrative Protection for Journalists: Department of Justice Guidelines	545
C. Lawsuits by News Sources	546
D. Contempt for Unprivileged Refusal to Testify	551
1. The Real Importance of the Privilege.....	551
2. Types of Contempt	552
3. The Impact of Contempt on Journalists....	553

4. Alternatives to Contempt Citations and Jailing of Journalists	554
E. The Effect on Newsgathering of Searches and Seizures in the Newsroom.....	557
1. Zurcher v. Stanford Daily.....	557
2. Federal Legislation in the Wake of Zurcher	559
 Chapter XI. Regulation of Commercial Speech.....
A. Constitutional History	565
B. The Four-Part Commercial Speech Analysis of Central Hudson	568
C. Attempts to Ban Advertising of Legal Products.....	577
D. Defining Commercial Speech	579
E. The Special Problem of Professional Advertising	581
1. Advertising by Lawyers: A Case Study	581
2. The Effect of the Lawyer Advertising Cases on the Other Professions	589
F. Access of the Public to the Private Advertising Media.....	590
G. State Statutory Regulation	591
H. Federal Statutory and Administrative Regulation	593
1. The Federal Trade Commission.....	593
a. Nature and Jurisdiction	593
b. Organization and Enforcement	594
c. The Federal Trade Commission Improvement Act of 1974	597

d. Constitutional Limitations on the Federal Trade Commission's Power to Impose Sanctions.....	599
2. The Federal Communications Commission	600
3. Spam	601

PART TWO. REGULATION OF THE ELECTRONIC MASS MEDIA

Chapter XII. Regulation of Broadcasting.....	605
A. The Federal Communications Commission.....	605
1. Scope of the Commission's Power	608
2. Structural Organization of the Commission	611
3. Juridical Basis for Commission Regulation of Broadcasting	614
B. Structural Regulation	620
1. Allocation of Frequencies	620
a. AM Allocation	621
b. FM Allocation.....	624
c. Television Allocation	626
d. Digital Broadcasting.....	627
(1) Digital Television (DTV).....	627
(2) Digital Radio	631
e. Reallocation for Non-Broadcast Services	632
2. Broadcast Licensing	634
a. The Showing an Applicant Must Make—Basic Qualifications.....	636
(1) Citizenship.....	637
(2) Character.....	637
(3) Financial Qualifications	641
(4) Technical Showing	641

(5) Programming.....	643
b. Processing the Application.....	644
c. Participation by Non-Applicants in the Processing of Applications	645
(1) Participation by Other Broadcast Stations.....	646
(2) Participation by the Public.....	646
d. Comparative Qualifications—the Need for Choice	648
(1) The Non-Renewal Situation	649
(2) The Renewal Situation	652
3. Diversity of Media Ownership	654
4. The Network Rules	670
C. FCC Control of Broadcast Content	674
1. Political Broadcasting.....	675
a. “Use”	676
b. Legally Qualified Candidates	678
c. Exemptions from Equal Time Requirement	679
d. Necessity for Timely Demand.....	683
e. Reasonable Access (Section 312(a)(7))...	684
f. Lowest Unit Charge	689
g. Censorship	694
2. The “Fairness Doctrine”	697
a. Political Editorializing	700
b. Personal Attack Rule.....	701
3. Children’s Programming	704
4. Lotteries	712
5. Contests.....	715
6. Sponsorship Identification Rules: “Anti- Payola” and “Anti-Plugola” Requirements	716
7. Public Broadcasting.....	718

Chapter XIII. Cable and Other Technologies	725
A. Television by Cable	725
1. Jurisdiction	727
a. History.....	727
b. The Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984	731
c. The Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992	732
2. Cable System Ownership	732
a. Franchising	733
b. Concentration Rules.....	736
c. Rate Regulation	742
3. Copyright Problems	746
a. The Compulsory License for Retransmission of Broadcast Signals....	747
b. Retransmission Consent	748
4. Signal Carriage Rules.....	754
a. The “Must-Carry” Rules	754
b. The “May-Carry” Rules	766
5. Content Regulation.....	768
B. Direct Broadcast Satellites (DBS).....	768
C. Convergence and the Future	774
INDEX.....	783