

TABLE OF CONTENTS

---

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Chapter 1. Introduction .....   | 1  |
| A. Not Incompetent, but Untrained.....   | 1         |
| B. Learning the “Art” of Advocacy .....  | 2         |
| C. War Stories Are Poor Training.....  | 3         |
| D. Trying Cases to Win.....  | 4         |
| Chapter 2. Rule I: Personal Advocacy .....                                    | 7  |
| A. The Twin Cornerstones.....  | 7         |
| 1. Omniscience .....   | 7         |
| 2. Credibility .....   | 8         |
| B. The Law Prohibits Personal Advocacy but Every Effective AdvocateUses It ..... | 9         |
| 1. Expressing Your Personal Belief—the Words of StrongestPersuasion.....         | 10        |
| C. Make the Jurors Believe That You Believe and Believe in You.....                  | 12        |
| D. Establishing Your Rule I .....  | 14        |
| 1. Show Respect in Court .....   | 14        |
| 2. Do Not Appear Partisan.....   | 14        |
| 3. Be Conservative in Behavior and Appearance .....                                  | 16        |
| 4. Confront Your Adversary’s Credibility .....                                       | 16        |
| 5. Appear Committed but Without Partisanship .....                                   | 17        |
| 6. Don’t Call Your Client “My Client” .....  | 17        |
| 7. Don’t Call Your Client by His First Name.....                                     | 17        |
| 8. Personalize Impersonal Clients.....   | 19        |
| 9. Don’t Sound Like a Lawyer .....   | 19        |
| 10. Don’t Try to Impress Anyone in Court.....  | 21        |
| Chapter 3. Rule II: One Central Theme .....                                   | 23 |
| A. Logos .....   | 23        |
| B. Stress the Simple .....   | 23        |
| C. Avoid the Buffet Approach.....  | 24        |
| D. Never the “But Even If” Argument .....  | 25        |
| 1. The First Sin: Actual Contradiction.....  | 25        |
| 2. The Second Sin: Apparent Contradiction .....                                      | 26        |
| 3. The Third Sin: Cumulation.....  | 27        |
| E. Trying the Case for Appeal Is Not Trying the Case to Win.....                     | 28        |
| F. Overloading Is the True Malpractice .....   | 28        |
| G. One Central Theme .....   | 28        |
| 1. Developing Your Theory of the Case .....  | 29        |
| 2. Your Theme Must Account for All the Facts .....                                   | 29        |
| 3. Projecting What the Jury Will Accept or Reject.....                               | 30        |
| 4. Give Away What You Can’t Win .....  | 31        |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Chapter 4. Rule III: Make the Case Bigger than Its Facts.....               | 33 |
| A. The Three Parts of Argument.....  | 33        |
| B. Using Pathos.....   | 33        |
| C. The Case of Captain Baillie.....  | 36        |
| D. Almost Ready.....   | 39        |
| Chapter 5. Four Laws: Primacy, Recency, Frequency and Vividness.....        | 41 |
| A. Laws I and II: Primacy and Recency.....   | 41        |
| B. Law III: Frequency.....   | 43        |
| C. Law IV: Vividness.....  | 44        |
| D. Conclusion.....   | 44        |
| Chapter 6. Opening Argument, Not Opening Statement.....                     | 47 |
| A. Open Fully, Powerfully, Persuasively.....                                       | 47        |
| 1. Openings Are Harder than Closings.....  | 47        |
| 2. Openings Are More Important than Closings.....                                  | 48        |
| 3. Denial and Rationalization.....   | 49        |
| B. Openings Persuade—Closings Confirm.....   | 50        |
| C. Waiving or Reserving.....   | 51        |
| D. An Opening Is an Argument.....  | 52        |
| E. “Argumentative”: The Undefined Objection.....                                   | 52        |
| F. Facilitators of Speech.....   | 53        |
| G. Say It Strongly—You Have Everything to Gain and Nothing to Lose ...             | 54        |
| H. Burden of Proof.....  | 55        |
| I. The Burden of Proof in Civil Cases.....   | 55        |
| 1. Never Open on Your Adversary’s Burden.....                                      | 57        |
| 2. Never Minimize Your Burden.....   | 57        |
| J. The Burden of Proof in Criminal Cases.....                                      | 58        |
| K. Prosecute Your Defense.....   | 60        |
| L. Do Not Offer Compromises from Your Position.....                                | 60        |
| M. Dealing with the Weaknesses of Your Case.....                                   | 62        |
| N. The Four Levels of Advocacy.....  | 62        |
| 1. Level I: Let’s Pretend.....   | 62        |
| 2. Level II: Ignorance Is Bliss.....   | 62        |
| 3. Level III: Drawing the Sting; Pulling the Plug; the Process of Inoculation..... | 64        |
| 4. Level IV: The Master’s Game.....  | 65        |
| O. Unpleasant Accusations.....   | 68        |
| P. Damages.....  | 69        |
| Q. No Windup.....  | 70        |
| R. The Construction of the Opening: Two Common, Ineffective Forms.....             | 71        |
| 1. Chronological.....  | 72        |
| 2. Witness-by-Witness.....   | 72        |
| S. Organization Persuades as Much as Content.....                                  | 72        |
| T. The Right Way: Advance and Defend Positions in Depth.....                       | 72        |
| 1. Do Not Just Tell a Story.....   | 73        |

|    |   |            |
|----|---|------------|
| 2. | Do Not Become a Believer.....   | 73         |
| 3. | Do Not Use the Present Tense.....   | 74         |
| 4. | The Grouping of Facts.....  | 75         |
| 5. | Opening Second.....   | 76         |
| 6. | Keep an Open Mind.....  | 78         |
| U. | Do Not Read or Memorize Your Opening.....   | 79         |
| 1. | Why Lawyers Want to Read or Memorize.....   | 80         |
| 2. | Never Worry About the Actual Words You Will Use.....                                | 80         |
| 3. | How to Have the Confidence to Avoid Scripts andMemorization.....                | 80         |
| V. | To Use or Not to Use a Lectern.....   | 81         |
| W. | The Length of the Opening.....  | 83         |
| X. | Use Exhibits and Illustrative Aids During Opening.....                              | 83         |
| Y. | Openings in Bench Trials.....   | 85         |
| Z. | Test Yourself.....  | 88         |
|    | Chapter 7. Application of the Principles.....                                | 89  |
| A. | Fact Situation: United States v. Calley.....  | 89         |
| B. | Opening for the Prosecution by Judah Best.....                                      | 93         |
| C. | Opening for the Defense by Bruce Goldstein.....                                     | 99         |
| D. | How to Reach Level IV.....  | 106        |
|    | Chapter 8. The Purpose of Direct Examination: To Argue YourCase.....    | 109 |
| A. | Narrative Answers.....  | 109        |
| B. | Written Questions.....  | 110        |
| C. | The Use of Questions.....   | 110        |
| D. | The Four Tasks of the Direct Examination.....                                       | 111        |
| E. | The Need to Avoid Written Scripts.....  | 111        |
| F. | How to Avoid Written Questions for Direct Examination.....                          | 112        |
| G. | What Notes for Direct Examination?.....   | 112        |
| H. | How to Achieve Smooth, Connected Direct Testimony.....                              | 113        |
| 1. | Looping.....  | 113        |
| 2. | Transition Questions.....   | 114        |
| 3. | Leading Without Leading.....  | 114        |
| 4. | Open and Closed Questions.....  | 116        |
| I. | How to Achieve as Much Repetition as You Wish.....                                  | 116        |
| 1. | “Echoing”—Repeating the Last Answer in the Next Question.....                       | 117        |
| 2. | Repetition Through Closed Questions.....  | 118        |
| 3. | Repetition Through Illustrative Aids, Demonstrations, andPhysical Evidence..... | 120        |
| 4. | “For the Record”.....   | 122        |
| J. | How to Make a Witness Credible.....   | 123        |
| 1. | The Proper Introduction of Witnesses.....   | 124        |
| 2. | Do Not Ask Witnesses Their Pedigree “For the Record”.....                           | 124        |
| K. | Conclusion.....   | 133        |

|  |                |
|--|----------------|
| Chapter 9. Two Direct Examinations .....                | 135     |
| A. Direct Examination by Michael Tigar .....                   | 135            |
| B. Direct Examination by Edward Bennett Williams .....         | 143            |
| C. Making the Witness Invulnerable to Cross-Examination .....  | 145            |
| D. The Motion In Limine .....                           | 146            |
| E. Organizing Direct Examination .....                         | 147            |
| F. Calley Revisited.....                                       | 148            |
| G. Prior Inconsistent Statements.....                          | 150            |
| 1. If It Ain't Broke, Don't Fix It .....                       | 150            |
| 2. If It Is Broken, Do Fix It .....                            | 151            |
| 3. "Counsel, Do Not Impeach Your Own Witness" .....            | 152            |
| 4. The Remedy .....  | 153            |
| H. Fluidity and Giving Your Witness Elbow Room.....            | 155            |
| I. Testimony About Conversations .....                         | 156            |
| 1. The Need for Special Care .....                             | 156            |
| 2. The Correct Way to Develop and Deliver Conversations.....   | 156            |
| J. Self-Defense During Cross-Examination.....                  | 158            |
| Chapter 10. The Order of Witnesses and Proof .....  | 161 |
| A. A Most Difficult and Sophisticated Task .....               | 161            |
| B. Using Exhibits on Direct Examination .....                  | 164            |
| 1. Two Purposes .....  | 164            |
| 2. Laying a Foundation .....                                   | 165            |
| 3. Photographs .....   | 166            |
| 4. The Adversary's Options .....                               | 167            |
| 5. Timing of the Offer .....                                   | 168            |
| 6. Publishing Exhibits .....                                   | 170            |
| 7. Fungible Exhibits .....                                     | 171            |
| 8. Reading Documents.....                                      | 172            |
| Chapter 11. Cross-Examination: Purpose, Methods and |                |
| Techniques .....  | 173     |
| A. Introduction .....  | 173            |
| B. The Purpose of Cross-Examination.....                       | 173            |
| C. Argue Through, Not with, the Witness.....                   | 174            |
| D. Framing Questions for Cross-Examination.....                | 174            |
| 1. Learning to Lead .....                                      | 174            |
| 2. Learning to Make Statements .....                           | 175            |
| E. Avoid Written Questions.....                                | 175            |
| F. Reject the Commandments.....                                | 176            |
| G. Three Techniques .....                                      | 176            |
| 1. Cross-Examining to Impeach.....                             | 176            |
| 2. Cross-Examining to Get Help (Hitchhiking) .....             | 178            |
| 3. Cross-Examining to Limit.....                               | 180            |
| H. The Commandments Are Mostly Wrong.....                      | 182            |
| 1. Use Only Leading Questions .....                            | 182            |
| 2. Make Witnesses Answer "Yes" or "No" .....                   | 183            |

|    |  |            |
|----|--|------------|
| 3. | Don't Ask Questions Unless You Know the Answer .....         | 184        |
| 4. | Don't Ask "How" or "Why" .....                               | 185        |
| I. | Controlling the Witness Properly.....                        | 187        |
| 1. | Witnesses Who Volunteer .....                                | 187        |
| 2. | Volunteering Admissible Information.....                     | 188        |
| 3. | Volunteering Inadmissible Information.....                   | 190        |
| 4. | Adverse Testimony .....                                      | 191        |
| J. | Cross-Examination Versus Direct Examination .....            | 193        |
| K. | Cross-Examine or Not? .....                                  | 196        |
| L. | The Scope of Cross-Examination.....                          | 198        |
| M. | Dealing with the Ultimate Issues .....                       | 199        |
| 1. | What Will the Witness Say? .....                             | 199        |
| 2. | One Question Too Many? .....                                 | 201        |
| N. | Organizing the Cross .....                                   | 203        |
| 1. | Note Taking During Direct .....                              | 204        |
| 2. | Where to Start and End? .....                                | 206        |
| O. | Three Tools of Cross-Examination .....                       | 208        |
| P. | Prior Inconsistent Statements.....                           | 208        |
| 1. | Indexing Prior Statements.....                               | 209        |
| 2. | Using the Prior Statements .....                             | 210        |
| 3. | "The Rule in Queen Caroline's Case" .....                    | 213        |
| Q. | The Importance of Obtaining Pretrial Statements .....        | 214        |
| 1. | Memory Can Be Shaped.....                                    | 214        |
| 2. | Where to Start: The Law.....                                 | 216        |
| 3. | Favorable Witnesses .....                                    | 216        |
| 4. | Adverse Witnesses.....                                       | 216        |
| 5. | Deposing Adverse Witnesses and Parties.....                  | 217        |
| 6. | Depositions of Your Witnesses .....                          | 218        |
| 7. | Listening to the Direct .....                                | 219        |
| 8. | Fair Use of Impeaching Evidence.....                         | 220        |
| R. | Credibility Attacks: Case Specific and General Attacks ..... | 220        |
| S. | The Rules and Laws of Probability .....                      | 222        |
|    | Chapter 12. Applying the Principles.....              | 229 |
| A. | Cross-Examination by Benjamin Civiletti.....                 | 231        |
| B. | The Wilde Trial.....   | 243        |
| 1. | Direct Examination—Edward Clarke .....                       | 243        |
| 2. | Cross-Examination—Edward Carson .....                        | 244        |
| 3. | The Plan for the Cross-Examination.....                      | 245        |
| C. | Conclusion.....  | 245        |
| D. | Cross-Examination in a Civil Case .....                      | 246        |
|    | Chapter 13. Over-Preparing Witnesses .....            | 247 |
| A. | Introduction .....   | 247        |
| B. | Background of the Triangle Shirtwaist Fire Case .....        | 247        |
| C. | The Fire.....  | 249        |
| D. | Direct Examination by Mr. Bostwick.....                      | 251        |

|  |  |            |
|--|--|------------|
| E.   | Cross-Examination by Max Steuer .....                    | 253        |
| F.   | Re-Direct Examination by Mr. Bostwick .....              | 263        |
| G.   | Re-Cross-Examination by Mr. Steuer .....                 | 263        |
| H.   | Mr. Bostwick.....  | 263        |
| I.   | The Result.....  | 265        |
| J.   | The Connally Case .....                                  | 266        |
| 1.   | Introduction .....                                       | 266        |
| Chapter 14. Expert Witnesses.....   |  | 277 |
| A.   | Three Main Points.....                                   | 277        |
| B.   | “Vouching” and Personal Credibility .....                | 277        |
| C.   | There Is No Battle of the Experts .....                  | 278        |
| D.   | Five Qualities to Seek in an Expert .....                | 279        |
| E.   | Inconsistent Experts .....                               | 280        |
| Chapter 15. Closing Argument .....  |  | 283 |
| A.   | Two Visions.....   | 283        |
| B.   | Arming Jurors, Not Persuading Them .....                 | 284        |
| C.   | The Final Argument Is in the Jury Room .....             | 285        |
| D.   | How to Arm Your “Friends” on the Jury.....               | 286        |
| 1.   | Using Transcript.....                                    | 287        |
| 2.   | Using Exhibits .....                                     | 288        |
| 3.   | Using the Burden of Proof .....                          | 289        |
| 4.   | Using the Judge’s Instructions.....                      | 293        |
| Appendix A. Analysis of a Trial: Tower Financial PlanningAssociates, Inc. v. Independence Blue Cross andPennsylvania Blue Shield..... |  | 297 |
| A.   | An Introduction .....                                    | 297        |
| B.   | The Plaintiff’s Opening .....                            | 298        |
| C.   | The Defendants’ Opening .....                            | 302        |
| Appendix B. Analysis of a Trial: Tower Financial PlanningAssociates, Inc. v. Independence Blue Cross andPennsylvania Blue Shield..... |  | 309 |
| A.   | An Introduction .....                                    | 309        |
| B.   | Analysis of Plaintiffs’ Opening Statement .....          | 309        |
| C.   | Analysis of Defendant’s Opening .....                    | 313        |
| D.   | Keeping Score .....                                      | 315        |
| Appendix C. Direct Examination of the Plaintiff.....  |  | 317 |
| A.   | Running Commentary on the Direct Examinations .....      | 317        |
| B.   | Analysis of the Direct Examination .....                 | 359        |
| Appendix D. Cross-Examination of the Plaintiff.....   |  | 369 |
| A.   | Running Commentary on the Cross-Examination.....         | 369        |
| B.   | Analysis of the Cross-Examination of the Plaintiff ..... | 387        |

TABLE OF CONTENTS

---

xi

C. Epilogue ..... 389

INDEX..... 393