

Table of Contents

	Page
PREFACE	III
TITLE 1. INTRODUCTION
CHAPTER 1. PREPARING AND PRESENTING THE EVIDENCE.....	3
§ 1 Planning and Preparation of Proof as Important as the Rules of Evidence	3
§ 2 Preparation for Trial on the Facts Without Resort to the Court's Aid	3
§ 3 Invoking the Court's Aid in Preparing for Trial: Right to Interview Witnesses; Discovery and Depositions; Requests for Admission; Pretrial Conferences	6
§ 4 The Order of Presenting Evidence at the Trial	10
TITLE 2. EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES
CHAPTER 2. THE FORM OF QUESTIONS ON DIRECT; THE JUDGE'S WITNESSES; REFRESHING MEMORY	17
§ 5 The Form of Questions: (a) Questions Calling for a Free Narrative Versus Specific Questions.....	17
§ 6 The Form of Questions: (b) Leading Questions	19
§ 7 The Form of Questions: (c) Argumentative, Misleading, and Indefinite Questions.....	22
§ 8 The Judge May Call Witnesses; the Judge and Jurors May Question Witnesses	23
§ 9 Refreshing Recollection	25
CHAPTER 3. THE REQUIREMENT OF FIRSTHAND KNOWLEDGE: THE OPINION RULE & EXPERT TESTIMONY	31
§ 10 The Requirement of Firsthand Knowledge from Observation	31
§ 11 The Evolution of the Rule Against Opinions: Opinions of Laypersons; Applicability of Restrictions to Out-of-Court Statements.....	33
§ 12 Expert Witnesses: Overview—Necessity; Proper Subjects for Expert Testimony; Reliability; Qualifications.....	39
§ 13 Reliability: The Validity of the Expert's Methodology	42
§ 14 Reliability: The Case-Specific Facts Analyzed; Personal Knowledge; Hypothetical Questions; Secondhand Reports.....	53
§ 15 Reliability: The Manner in Which the Expert Applied the Methodology to the Case-Specific Facts.....	61
§ 16 Reliability: The Expert's Conclusion; the Limitations on the Phrasing of the Expert's Opinion.....	63
§ 17 The Cross-Examination of Experts	68
§ 18 Proposals for Improving the Practices Relating to Expert Testimony	70

CHAPTER 4. CROSS-EXAMINATION AND SUBSEQUENT
EXAMINATIONS.....	77
§ 19 The Right of Cross-Examination: Effect of Denial of Opportunity to Cross-Examine	77
§ 20 Form of Interrogation.....	80
§ 21 Scope of Cross-Examination: Restriction to Matters Opened up on Direct: The Various Rules	81
§ 22 Cross-Examination to Impeach Not Limited to the Scope of the Direct.....	83
§ 23 Formal and Practical Consequences of the Restrictive Rules: Effect on Order of Proof: Side-Effects	84
§ 24 The Scope of the Judge’s Discretion Under the Wide-Open and Restrictive Rules	85
§ 25 Application of Wide-Open and Restrictive Rules to the Cross-Examination of Parties: (a) Civil Parties.....	86
§ 26 Application of Wide-Open and Restrictive Rules to the Cross-Examination of Parties: (b) The Accused in a Criminal Case	86
§ 27 A Comparison of the Systems of Wide-Open and Restricted Cross-Examination.....	87
§ 28 Cross-Examination About Witness’s Inconsistent Past Writings: Must Examiner Show the Writing to the Witness Before Questioning About Its Contents?.....	89
§ 29 The Standard of Relevancy as Applied on Cross-Examination: Trial Judge’s Discretion.....	90
§ 30 The Cross-Examiner’s Art.....	92
§ 31 Cross-Examination Revalued	94
§ 32 Redirect and Subsequent Examinations	96
CHAPTER 5. IMPEACHMENT AND SUPPORT	99
§ 33 Introduction: Bolstering, Impeachment, and Rehabilitation	99
§ 34 Prior Inconsistent Statement Impeachment: Degree of Inconsistency Required	101
§ 35 Prior Inconsistent Statements: Opinion in Form	103
§ 36 Prior Inconsistent Statements: Extrinsic Evidence and Previous Statements as Substantive Evidence of the Facts Stated	104
§ 37 Prior Inconsistent Statements: Requirement of Preliminary Questions on Cross-Examination as “Foundation” for Proof by Extrinsic Evidence	106
§ 38 Prior Inconsistent Statements: Rule Against Impeaching One’s Own Witness	110
§ 39 Bias and Partiality	112
§ 40 Character: In General	114
§ 41 Character: Misconduct, for Which There Has Been No Criminal Conviction	115
§ 42 Character: Conviction of Crime	117
§ 43 Character: Impeachment by Proof of Opinion or Bad Reputation	123
§ 44 Defects of Capacity: Sensory or Mental	125
§ 45 Impeachment by “Specific Contradiction”	128
§ 46 Beliefs Concerning Religion	129
§ 47 Supporting the Witness.....	130
§ 48 Attacking the Supporting Character Witness	135

§ 49 Collateral and Non-Collateral Matters 136
 § 50 Exclusion and Separation of Witnesses 140

TITLE 3. ADMISSION AND EXCLUSION

CHAPTER 6. THE PROCEDURE OF ADMITTING AND EXCLUDING

EVIDENCE 145
 § 51 The Proponent: Presentation of Evidence: Offer of Proof 145
 § 52 The Opponent: Objecting 148
 § 53 The Trial Judge: Deciding Preliminary Questions of Fact Arising on Objections..... 156
 § 54 Availability as Proof of Evidence Admitted Without Objection 161
 § 55 Waiver of Objection 162
 § 56 The Effect of the Introduction of Part of a Writing or Conversation 165
 § 57 Fighting Fire with Fire: Inadmissible Evidence as Opening the Door 167
 § 58 Admissibility of Evidence Dependent on Proof of Other Facts:
 “Connecting up” 168
 § 59 Evidence Admissible for One Purpose, Inadmissible for Another:
 “Limited Admissibility” 170
 § 60 Admission and Exclusion of Evidence in Bench Trials Without a Jury 171

TITLE 4. COMPETENCY

CHAPTER 7. THE COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES..... 175

§ 61 Competency of Witnesses, in General 175
 § 62 Mental Incapacity and Immaturity: Oath or Affirmation 175
 § 63 Religious Belief 179
 § 64 Conviction of Crime 179
 § 65 Parties and Persons Interested: The Dead Man Statutes 180
 § 66 Husbands and Wives of Parties 182
 § 67 Incompetency of Husband and Wife to Give Testimony on Non-Access 184
 § 68 Judges, Jurors and Lawyers 185
 § 69 Firsthand Knowledge and Expertness 189
 § 70 The Procedure of Disqualification 189
 § 71 Probable Future of the Rules of Competency 191

TITLE 5. PRIVILEGE: COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY

CHAPTER 8. THE SCOPE AND EFFECT OF THE EVIDENTIARY

PRIVILEGES 195
 § 72 The Purposes of Rules of Privilege: (a) Other Rules of Evidence
 Distinguished..... 195
 § 72.1 The Purposes of Rules of Privilege: (b) Certain Rules Distinguished 197
 § 73 Procedural Recognition of Rules of Privilege 197
 § 73.1 Procedural Recognition of Rules of Privilege: (a) Who May Assert? 197
 § 73.2 Procedural Recognition of Rules of Privilege: (b) Where May Privilege Be Asserted? Rules of Privilege in Conflict of Laws 198
 § 74 Limitations on the Effectiveness of Privileges: (a) Risk of Eavesdropping and Interception of Letters 199

§ 74.1	Limitations on the Effectiveness of Privileges: (b) Adverse Arguments and Inferences from Claims of Privilege	199
§ 74.2	Limitations on the Effectiveness of Privileges: (c) Constitutional Limitations on Privilege.....	201
§ 75	The Sources of Privilege	203
§ 76	The Current Pattern of Privilege.....	204
§ 76.1	The Current Pattern of Privilege: (a) Privilege in Federal Courts; What Law Applies?.....	204
§ 76.2	The Current Pattern of Privilege: (b) State Patterns of Privilege; Recognizing New Privileges	206
§ 77	The Future of Privilege	207
CHAPTER 9. THE PRIVILEGE FOR MARITAL COMMUNICATIONS		209
§ 78	History and Background, and Kindred Rules.....	209
§ 79	What Is Privileged: Communications Only, or Acts and Facts?.....	210
§ 80	The Communication Must Be Confidential	211
§ 81	The Time of Making the Communication: Marital Status.....	212
§ 82	Hazards of Disclosure to Third Persons Against the Will of the Communicating Spouse.....	212
§ 83	Who Is the Holder of the Privilege? Enforcement and Waiver	213
§ 84	Controversies in Which the Privilege Is Inapplicable	214
§ 85	If the Communication Was Made During the Marriage, Does Death or Divorce End the Privilege?.....	215
§ 86	Policy and Future of the Marital Communications Privilege	216
CHAPTER 10. THE CLIENT'S PRIVILEGE: COMMUNICATIONS
BETWEEN CLIENT & LAWYER		219
§ 87	Background and Policy of the Privilege: (a) Theoretical Considerations.....	219
§ 87.1	Background and Policy of the Privilege: (b) Applications in Corporate, Governmental and Other Entity Settings	221
§ 88	The Professional Relationship	223
§ 89	Subject-Matter of the Privilege: (a) Communications	224
§ 90	Subject-Matter of the Privilege: (b) Fact of Employment and Identity of the Client.....	226
§ 91	The Confidential Character of the Communications: Communications Intended to Be Made Public; Presence of Third Persons and Agents	227
§ 91.1	The Confidential Character of the Communications: Joint Consultations and Employments; Controversies Between Client and Attorney.....	228
§ 92	The Client as the Holder of the Privilege: Who May Assert, and Who Complain on Appeal of Its Denial?	229
§ 93	Waiver	230
§ 94	The Effect of the Death of the Client	234
§ 95	Consultation in Furtherance of Crime or Fraud	235
§ 96	Protective Rules Relating to Materials Collected for Use of Counsel in Preparation for Trial: Reports of Employees, Witness-Statements, Experts' Reports, and the Like	237
§ 97	Discovery in Criminal Cases: Statements by Witnesses	241

CHAPTER 11. THE PRIVILEGE FOR CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION SECURED IN THE COURSE OF THE PHYSICIAN-PATIENT RELATIONSHIP 245

§ 98 The Statement of the Rule and Its Purpose.....245

§ 99 Relation of Physician and Patient248

§ 100 Subject Matter of the Privilege: Information Acquired in Attending the Patient and Necessary for Prescribing248

§ 101 The Confidential Character of the Disclosure: Presence of Third Persons and Members of Family; Information Revealed to Nurses and Attendants; Public Records.....249

§ 102 Rule of Privilege, Not Incompetency: Privilege Belongs to the Patient, Not to an Objecting Party as Such; Effect of the Patient’s Death250

§ 103 What Constitutes a Waiver of the Privilege?.....251

§ 104 Kinds of Proceedings Exempted from the Application of the Privilege253

§ 105 The Policy and Future of the Privilege253

CHAPTER 12. PRIVILEGES FOR GOVERNMENTAL SECRETS 257

§ 106 Other Principles Distinguished257

§ 107 The Common Law Privileges for Military or Diplomatic Secrets and Other Facts the Disclosure of Which Would Be Contrary to the Public Interest257

§ 108 Qualified Privileges for Government Information: The Constitutional Presidential Privilege; Common Law Privileges for Agency Deliberations and Law Enforcement Files259

(A) The Deliberative Process Privilege260

(B) The Privilege for Information and Files Relating to Law Enforcement261

§ 109 Effect of the Presence of the Government as a Litigant261

§ 110 The Scope of the Judge’s Function in Determining the Validity of the Claim of Privilege262

§ 111 The Privilege Against the Disclosure of the Identity of an Informer264

§ 112 Statutory Privileges for Certain Reports of Individuals to Government Agencies: Accident Reports, Tax Returns, Etc.265

§ 113 The Secrecy of Grand Jury Proceedings: Votes and Expressions of Grand Jurors; Testimony of Witnesses265

TITLE 6. PRIVILEGE: CONSTITUTIONAL

CHAPTER 13. THE PRIVILEGE AGAINST SELF-INCRIMINATION..... 271

§ 114 The History and Development of the Privilege272

§ 115 Current Nature and Status of the Privilege273

§ 116 Policy Foundation of the Privilege Under Federal Constitutional and State Law275

§ 117 Where the Privilege Applies: Distinction Between the Privilege of an Accused in a Criminal Case and the Privilege of a “Witness”280

§ 118 Asserting the Privilege282

§ 119 Personal Nature of the Privilege283

§ 120 Incrimination: A “Real and Appreciable” Risk of Contributing to Prosecution and Convictions.....283

§ 121	Limitation of the Privilege to Protection Against Criminal Liability: (a) In General.....	284
§ 122	Limitation of the Privilege to Protection Against Criminal Liability: (b) Distinguishing Criminal and Noncriminal Legal Liability	286
§ 123	Limitation of the Privilege to Protection Against Criminal Liability: (c) Incrimination Under the Laws of Another Jurisdiction	287
§ 124	Limitation of the Privilege to Compelled “Testimonial” Activity	289
§ 125	Requirement of Compulsion	294
§ 126	Privilege as Applied to an Accused in a Criminal Proceeding: (a) Inferences from and Comment upon the Accused’s Reliance upon the Privilege in the Trial	295
§ 127	Privilege as Applied to an Accused in a Criminal Proceeding: (b) Impeachment and Substantive Use of Prior Invocation of the Privilege or Silence	297
§ 128	Privilege as Applied to an Accused in a Criminal Proceeding: (c) Instructing the Jury Regarding the Privilege	298
§ 129	Privilege as Applied to an Accused in a Criminal Proceeding: (d) “Waiver” of the Privilege by Voluntary Testimony	299
§ 130	Privilege as Applied to a Witness: (a) Invoking the Privilege	301
§ 131	Privilege as Applied to a Witness: (b) Rights to Be Warned and to Counsel.....	303
§ 132	Privilege as Applied to a Witness: (c) Resolving a Witness’s Claim of the Privilege	304
§ 133	Privilege as Applied to a Witness: (d) “Waiver” by Disclosure of Incriminating Facts.....	306
§ 134	Privilege as Applied to a Witness: (e) Effect in a Criminal Trial of Prosecution Witness’s Reliance on the Privilege	308
§ 135	Privilege as Applied to a Witness: (f) Effect in a Criminal Trial of Defense Witness’s Invocation of the Privilege	309
§ 136	Burdens on Exercise of the Privilege	310
§ 137	Privilege as Related to Documents and Tangible Items: (a) Protection of Contents and Limits on Use of “Private” Papers.....	313
§ 138	Privilege as Related to Documents and Tangible Items: (b) Compulsory Production and Incrimination by the “Act of Production”	314
§ 139	Privilege as Related to Documents and Tangible Items: (c) “Required Records” and Items Possessed Pursuant to Regulatory Schemes	316
§ 139.1	Privilege and Compelling Assistance in Accessing Data in Electronic Devices.....	318
§ 140	The Privilege as Related to Corporations, Associations, and Their Agents: (a) The Privilege of the Organization	319
§ 141	The Privilege as Related to Corporations, Associations, and Their Agents: (b) Agents’ Ability to Invoke Their Personal Privilege and the “Collective Entity” Rule	320
§ 142	Removing the Danger of Incrimination by Granting Immunity: (a) In General.....	322
§ 143	Removing the Danger of Incrimination by Granting Immunity: (b) “Transactional” Versus “Use” Immunity	323

CHAPTER 14. CONFESSIONS	327
§ 144 “Confessions” and Admissibility	327
§ 145 Corpus Delicti or Corroboration Requirement: (a) In General	328
§ 146 Corpus Delicti or Corroboration Requirement: (b) Requirement of Independent Proof of the Corpus Delicti	332
§ 147 Corpus Delicti or Corroboration Requirement: (c) Requirement of Evidence Tending to Establish Truthfulness of Statement	334
§ 148 Corpus Delicti or Corroboration Requirement: (d) Future of the Requirement	335
§ 149 Voluntariness, in General	336
§ 150 Self-Incrimination (Miranda) Requirements: (a) In General	340
§ 151 Self-Incrimination (Miranda) Requirements: (b) Applicability of Miranda ; “Custody,” “Interrogation,” and Exceptions	343
§ 152 Self-Incrimination (Miranda) Requirements: (c) Prohibition Against Interrogation	345
§ 153 Self-Incrimination (Miranda) Requirements: (d) Effectiveness of Waivers; Voluntariness and Intelligence	348
§ 154 General Right to Counsel Requirements	350
§ 155 Special Problems: Promises Made to Suspects and Deception of Suspects ...	352
§ 156 Delay in Presenting Arrested Person Before Magistrate	357
§ 157 Reliability or Trustworthiness as Admission Requirement	360
§ 158 Mandatory Recording of Interrogations and Confessions.....	362
§ 159 Evidence Obtained as a Result of Inadmissible Confessions.....	366
§ 160 Judicial Confessions, Guilty Pleas, and Admissions Made in Plea Bargaining	368
§ 161 “Tacit” and “Adoptive” Confessions and Admissions	371
§ 162 Use of Otherwise Inadmissible Confessions for Impeachment	374
§ 163 Determining Admissibility and Credibility	375
 CHAPTER 15. THE PRIVILEGE CONCERNING IMPROPERLY OBTAINED EVIDENCE	 379
§ 164 Introduction	379
§ 165 Policy Bases for Exclusionary Sanctions.....	380
§ 166 Federal Constitutional Exclusionary Sanctions: (a) Development	384
§ 167 Federal Constitutional Exclusionary Sanctions: (b) Policy Bases and Analytical Approach	388
§ 168 State Constitutional Exclusionary Sanctions	390
§ 169 Exclusion for Nonconstitutional Illegality: (a) In General	393
§ 170 Exclusion for Nonconstitutional Illegality: (b) Legislative Requirements.....	394
§ 171 Exclusion for Nonconstitutional Illegality: (c) Judicially Developed Requirements.....	396
§ 172 Exclusion for Nonconstitutional Illegality: (d) Substance of Exclusionary Requirements.....	400
§ 173 Use of Illegally Obtained Evidence in Noncriminal Litigation	402
§ 174 Use of Illegally Obtained Evidence in Criminal Proceedings on Matters Other than Guilt	404
§ 175 “Standing” and Personal Nature of Rights	407
§ 176 Scope of Exclusion: (a) Evidence Acquired as a Result of Illegality (“Fruit of the Poisonous Tree”)	410

§ 177	Scope of Exclusion: (b) Evidence with an “Independent Source”	414
§ 178	Effect of Illegality upon “Jurisdiction” over Criminal Defendants and Exclusion of “Identity”	416
§ 179	Exceptions to Exclusion: (a) Attenuation of Taint	418
§ 180	Exceptions to Exclusion: (b) Intervening Illegal Conduct.....	421
§ 181	Exceptions to Exclusion: (c) Inevitable Discovery	423
§ 182	Exceptions to Exclusion: (d) “Good Faith”	425
§ 183	Exceptions to Exclusion: (e) Use of Illegally Obtained Evidence to Impeach Testifying Defendant	429

TITLE 7. RELEVANCE

CHAPTER 16. RELEVANCE.....	435
§ 184	Relevance as the Presupposition of Admissibility.....	435
§ 185	The Meaning of Relevancy and the Counterweights.....	435
CHAPTER 17. CHARACTER AND HABIT.....	441
§ 186	Character, in General.....	442
§ 187	Character in Issue	443
§ 188	Character as Circumstantial Evidence: General Rule of Exclusion	444
§ 189	Character for Care in Civil Cases.....	445
§ 190	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes	447
§ 190.1	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions	447
§ 190.2	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Unified Plan	448
§ 190.3	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—“Signature” Crimes.....	448
§ 190.4	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Rebutting Claims of Accident or Innocently Performed Acts	449
§ 190.5	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Motive.....	450
§ 190.6	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Opportunity.....	450
§ 190.7	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Malice, Deliberation or Specific Intent	451
§ 190.8	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Identity.....	451

§ 190.9	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Permissible Uses That Are Not True Exceptions—Completing the Story.....	451
§ 190.10	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Sex Crimes.....	452
§ 190.11	Bad Character as Evidence of Criminal Conduct—General Rule of Exclusion for Other Crimes—Balancing and Other Limitations and Procedures.....	453
§ 191	Good Character as Evidence of Lawful Conduct: Proof by the Accused and Rebuttal by the Government.....	454
§ 192	Character in Civil Cases Where Crime Is in Issue.....	456
§ 193	Character of Victim in Cases of Assault, Murder, and Rape.....	457
§ 194	Evidence of Character to Impeach a Witness.....	460
§ 195	Habit and Custom as Evidence of Conduct on a Particular Occasion.....	461
CHAPTER 18. SIMILAR HAPPENINGS AND TRANSACTIONS.....		463
§ 196	Other Claims, Suits, or Defenses of a Party.....	463
§ 197	Other Misrepresentations and Frauds.....	464
§ 198	Other Contracts and Business Transactions.....	465
§ 199	Other Sales of Similar Property as Evidence of Value.....	466
§ 200	Other Accidents and Injuries.....	467
CHAPTER 19. INSURANCE AGAINST LIABILITY.....		471
§ 201	Insurance Against Liability as Proof of Negligence.....	471
CHAPTER 20. EXPERIMENTAL AND SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE.....		475
I.	Scientific Tests in General.....	476
§ 202	Pretrial Experiments.....	476
§ 202.1	Pretrial Experiments—the Substantial Similarity Requirement as Applied.....	476
§ 202.2	Pretrial Experiments—Substantial Similarity Reconceptualized.....	478
§ 202.3	Pretrial Experiments—Procedural Improvements.....	479
§ 203	Standards for Admitting Scientific Evidence.....	479
§ 203.1	Standards for Admitting Scientific Evidence—the General-Acceptance Requirement.....	480
§ 203.2	Standards for Admitting Scientific Evidence—the Retreat from General Acceptance.....	481
§ 203.3	Standards for Admitting Scientific Evidence—the Scientific-Soundness Requirement.....	481
§ 203.4	Standards for Admitting Scientific Evidence—Assessment of the Requirements.....	483
II.	Particular Tests.....	485
§ 204	Physics and Electronics: Speed Detection and Recording.....	485
§ 204.1	Physics and Electronics: Speed Detection and Recording—Mechanical Timing Devices.....	485
§ 204.2	Physics and Electronics: Speed Detection and Recording—Tachographs and Event Data Recorders.....	486
§ 204.3	Physics and Electronics: Speed Detection and Recording—Radar.....	486
§ 204.4	Physics and Electronics: Speed Detection and Recording—Laser Pulses.....	488

§ 205	Biology and Medicine	488
§ 205.1	Biology and Medicine—Drunkenness	488
§ 205.2	Biology and Medicine—Blood and Other Tissue Types	490
§ 205.3	Biology and Medicine—Principles of DNA Typing	492
§ 205.4	Biology and Medicine—STR Profiling	493
§ 205.5	Biology and Medicine—Mitochondrial Sequencing	494
§ 205.6	Biology and Medicine—RFLP-VNTR Profiling	494
§ 205.7	Biology and Medicine—Admissibility of DNA Typing	495
§ 206	Psychology	496
§ 206.1	Psychology—Detection of Deception	496
§ 206.2	Psychology—Detection of Deception—Theories and Instruments for Lie Detection	497
§ 206.3	Psychology—Detection of Deception—Admissibility of Lie-Detector Results	498
§ 206.4	Psychology—Detection of Deception—Hypnosis and Drugs	499
§ 206.5	Psychology—Eyewitness Testimony	501
§ 206.6	Psychology—False Confessions	503
§ 206.7	Psychology—Profiles and Syndromes	503
§ 207	Criminalistics: Identifying Persons and Things	506
§ 207.1	Criminalistics: Identifying Persons and Things—Fingerprinting	506
§ 207.2	Criminalistics: Identifying Persons and Things—Voice Spectrograms	508
III.	Statistical Studies	508
§ 208	Surveys and Opinion Polls	508
§ 209	Statistical Evidence of Association and Causation	512
§ 209.1	Statistical Evidence of Association and Causation—Types of Studies	512
§ 209.2	Statistical Evidence of Association and Causation—Magnitude and Significance of Disparities	513
IV.	Probabilities as Evidence	515
§ 210	Identification Evidence and Probabilities	515
§ 211	Paternity Testing	519
§ 211.1	Paternity Testing—the Meaning of the “Probability of Paternity” and Its Components	520
§ 211.2	Paternity Testing—Admissibility of the “Probability of Paternity” and Its Components	521

TITLE 8. REAL EVIDENCE, OTHER NONTESTIMONIAL
EVIDENCE, AND DEMONSTRATIVE AIDS

CHAPTER 21. REAL EVIDENCE, OTHER NONTESTIMONIAL

	EVIDENCE, AND DEMONSTRATIVE AIDS	527
§ 212	Introduction	527
§ 213	Real Evidence	531
§ 214	Demonstrative Aids	532
§ 215	Photographs	536
§ 216	Video, Film and Sound Recordings	538
§ 217	Demonstrations and Experiments	541
§ 218	Computer-Generated Simulations and Models	543
§ 219	Views	546
§ 220	Exhibits in the Jury Room	548

TITLE 9. WRITINGS

CHAPTER 22. AUTHENTICATION	553
§ 221 General Theory: No Assumption of Authenticity	553
§ 222 Authentication by a Percipient Witness	554
§ 223 Authentication by Proof of Handwriting.....	555
§ 224 Authentication by Distinctive Characteristics and Other Circumstances	556
§ 225 Ancient Documents.....	557
§ 226 Public Records and Reports	558
§ 227 Electronic and Computer-Generated Documents.....	559
§ 228 Voice Identifications and Telephone Calls.....	563
§ 229 Escapes from the Requirement of Producing Evidence of Authenticity: Modern Procedural Practice	564
§ 229.1 Self-Authentication Under Federal Rule of Evidence 902.....	565

CHAPTER 23. THE REQUIREMENT OF THE PRODUCTION OF THE ORIGINAL WRITING, RECORDING, OR PHOTOGRAPH AS THE “BEST EVIDENCE”	567
§ 230 The “Best Evidence” Rule: Not a General Principle of Evidence Law	567
§ 231 The “Best Evidence” Rule: The Original Document Requirement	568
§ 232 The Reasons for the Rule	568
§ 233 The Scope of the Rule: Writings, Recordings and Photographs	569
§ 234 What Constitutes Proving the Content.....	570
§ 235 What Is an “Original”?	572
§ 236 When Is a “Duplicate” Admissible in Lieu of the Original?.....	573
§ 237 Excuses for Nonproduction of the Original.....	575
§ 238 No Preferences Among Types of Secondary Evidence.....	577
§ 239 The Originals of Writings, Recordings and Photographs Involved Only Collaterally Need Not Be Produced.....	578
§ 240 Original Public Records Need Not Be Produced.....	579
§ 241 Summaries of Voluminous Writings, Recordings and Photographs	579
§ 242 Proof of Contents of an Original by Testimony or Written Admission of a Party	580
§ 243 Allocation of Questions of Fact Between Judge and Jury	580
§ 243.1 Appellate Review of Rulings Admitting Secondary Evidence	582

TITLE 10. THE HEARSAY RULE AND ITS EXCEPTIONS

CHAPTER 24. THE HEARSAY RULE	585
§ 244 The History of the Rule Against Hearsay	585
§ 245 The Reasons for the Rule Against Hearsay; Exceptions to the Rule	587
§ 246 A Definition of Hearsay.....	589
§ 247 Distinction Between Hearsay Rule and Rule Requiring Firsthand Knowledge.....	590
§ 248 Instances of the Application of the Hearsay Rule	591
§ 249 Some Out-of-Court Utterances That Are Not Hearsay	591
§ 250 Conduct as Hearsay and “Implied Assertions”	594
§ 251 Prior Statements of Witnesses as Substantive Evidence	599

§ 252	Constitutional Problems of Hearsay: Confrontation and Due Process	603
	(A) Confrontation	603
	(B) Due Process	613
§ 253	The Hearsay Exceptions Where Declarant Is Unavailable; Admission of Hearsay as a Consequence of Wrongful Procurement of Unavailability	614
	(A) Unavailability	614
	(B) Hearsay Exception for Wrongful Procurement of Unavailability	617
CHAPTER 25. AN OPPOSING PARTY'S STATEMENTS/ADMISSIONS		619
§ 254	Nature and Effect	619
§ 255	Testimonial Qualifications: Mental Competency; Personal Knowledge	622
§ 256	Opposing Party's Statements in Opinion Form; Conclusions of Law	622
§ 257	Opposing Party's Statements in Pleadings; Pleas of Guilty	623
§ 258	Testimony by the Party as an Admission	625
§ 259	Representative Admissions; Coconspirator Statements	626
§ 260	Declarations by "Privies in Estate," Joint Tenants, Predecessors in Interest, Joint Obligors, and Principals Against Surety	631
§ 261	Admissions by Conduct: (a) Adoptive Admissions.....	631
§ 262	Admissions by Conduct: (b) Silence.....	633
§ 263	Admissions by Conduct: (c) Flight and Similar Acts.....	635
§ 264	Admissions by Conduct: (d) Failure to Call Witnesses or Produce Evidence; Refusal to Submit to a Physical Examination.....	636
§ 265	Admissions by Conduct: (e) Misconduct Constituting Obstruction of Justice	638
§ 266	Admissions by Conduct: (f) Offers to Compromise Disputed Claim in Civil Suits and Plea Negotiations in Criminal Cases	639
§ 267	Admissions by Conduct: (g) Safety Measures After an Accident; Payment of Medical Expenses	642
CHAPTER 26. SPONTANEOUS STATEMENTS.....		645
§ 268	Res Gestae and the Hearsay Rule.....	645
§ 269	Spontaneous Statements as Nonhearsay: Circumstantial Proof of a Fact in Issue	646
§ 270	"Self-Serving" Aspects of Spontaneous Statements	647
§ 271	Unexcited Statements of Present Sense Impressions	648
§ 272	Excited Utterances	651
§ 272.1	Excited Utterances and Other Hearsay Exceptions in Sexual Abuse Cases.....	653
§ 273	Statements of Physical or Mental Condition: (a) Statements of Bodily Feelings, Symptoms, and Condition.....	654
§ 274	Statements of Physical or Mental Condition: (b) Statements of Present Mental or Emotional State to Show a State of Mind or Emotion in Issue	655
§ 275	Statements of Physical or Mental Condition: (c) Statements of Intention Offered to Show Subsequent Acts of Declarant.....	657
§ 276	Statements of Physical or Mental Condition: (d) Statements of State of Mind to Show Memory or Belief as Proof of Previous Happenings.....	660

CHAPTER 27. STATEMENTS FOR THE PURPOSE OF MEDICAL DIAGNOSIS OR TREATMENT..... 663

§ 277 Statements of Bodily Feelings, Symptoms, and Condition: (a) Statements Made to Physicians Consulted for Treatment663

§ 278 Statements of Bodily Feelings, Symptoms, and Condition: (b) Statements Made to Physicians Consulted Only to Testify.....664

CHAPTER 28. RECORDS OF PAST RECOLLECTION 667

§ 279 History and Theory of the Exception667

§ 280 Firsthand Knowledge668

§ 281 Record Made While the Witness’s Memory Was Clear668

§ 282 Impairment of Recollection669

§ 283 Proving the Accuracy of the Record; Multi-Party Situations669

CHAPTER 29. REGULARLY KEPT RECORDS..... 671

§ 284 Admissibility of Regularly Kept Records671

§ 285 The Origin of the Regularly Kept Records Exception and the Shopbook Vestige671

§ 286 The Regularly Kept Records Exception in General.....672

§ 287 Types of Records; Opinions; Absence of Entry673

§ 288 Made in the Routine of a “Business”; Accident Reports; Reports Made for Litigation; Indications of Lack of Trustworthiness674

§ 289 Made at or near the Time of the Transaction Recorded676

§ 290 Personal Knowledge; All Participants in Regular Course of Business677

§ 291 Unavailability678

§ 292 Proof; Who Must Be Called to Establish Admissibility678

§ 293 Special Situations: (a) Hospital Records679

§ 294 Special Situations: (b) Computer Records.....681

CHAPTER 30. PUBLIC RECORDS, REPORTS, AND CERTIFICATES..... 685

§ 295 The Exception for Public Records and Reports: (a) In General685

§ 296 The Exception for Public Records and Reports: (b) Activities of the Office; Matters Observed; Investigative Reports; Restrictions on Prosecutorial Use.....686

§ 297 The Exception for Public Records and Reports: (c) Vital Statistics688

§ 298 The Exception for Public Records and Reports: (d) Judgments in Previous Cases, Especially Criminal Convictions Offered in Subsequent Civil Cases.....689

§ 299 The Exception for Official Certificates: (a) In General691

§ 300 The Exception for Official Certificates: (b) Certified Copies or Summaries of Official Records; Absence of Record691

CHAPTER 31. TESTIMONY TAKEN AT A FORMER HEARING OR IN ANOTHER ACTION 693

§ 301 Introduction693

§ 302 The Requirement of Oath and Opportunity for Cross-Examination; Unavailability694

§ 303 Identity of Parties; “Predecessor in Interest”695

§ 304 Identity of Issues; Motive to Cross-Examine697

§ 305	The Character of the Tribunal and of the Proceedings in Which the Former Testimony Was Taken	699
§ 306	Objections and Their Determination.....	699
§ 307	Methods and Scope of Proof	700
§ 308	Possibilities of Improving Existing Practice	700
CHAPTER 32. DYING DECLARATIONS		703
§ 309	Introduction	703
§ 310	Requirements That Declarant Must Have Been Conscious of Impending Death and That Declarant Must Be Unavailable	703
§ 311	Limitation to the Use in Criminal Homicide Cases and Subject Matter Restrictions	704
§ 312	Admissible on Behalf of Accused as Well as for Prosecution.....	706
§ 313	Application of Other Evidentiary Rules: Personal Knowledge; Opinion; Rules About Writings	706
§ 314	Instructions Regarding the Weight to Be Given to Dying Declarations	707
§ 315	Suggestions for Changes in the Exception.....	707
CHAPTER 33. DECLARATIONS AGAINST INTEREST.....		709
§ 316	General Requirements; Distinction Between Declarations Against Interest and Admissions	709
§ 317	Declarations Against Pecuniary or Proprietary Interest; Declarations Affecting Claim or Liability for Damages	710
§ 318	Penal Interest; Interest of Prestige or Self-Esteem	711
§ 319	Determining What Is Against Interest; Confrontation Problems	712
§ 320	Unavailability of the Declarant	715
CHAPTER 34. VARIOUS OTHER EXCEPTIONS AND THE FUTURE OF THE RULES ABOUT HEARSAY		717
§ 321	Learned Treatises, Industry Standards, and Commercial Publications	717
§ 322	Reputation as to Character; Statements, Reputation, and Judgments as to Pedigree and Family History; Reputation Concerning Land Boundaries and General History	719
	(A) Reputation as to Character	719
	(B) Statements, Reputation, and Judgments as to Pedigree and Family History	719
	(C) Reputation Regarding Land Boundaries and General History	720
§ 323	Recitals in Ancient Writings and Documents Affecting an Interest in Property.....	721
§ 324	The Residual Hearsay Exception	723
§ 324.1	Hearsay Within Hearsay; Multiple Hearsay	727
§ 324.2	Impeachment and Rehabilitation of the Hearsay Declarant.....	728
§ 324.3	Basis for Expert Opinion as a Quasi-Hearsay Exception	729
§ 325	Evaluation of the Present Rules	730
§ 326	The Path of Modern Hearsay Development.....	731
§ 327	The Future of Hearsay	733

TITLE 11. JUDICIAL NOTICE

CHAPTER 35. JUDICIAL NOTICE 739

§ 328 The Need for and the Effect of Judicial Notice 739

§ 329 Matters of Common Knowledge..... 743

§ 330 Facts Capable of Certain Verification 745

§ 331 Social and Economic Data Used in Judicial Law-Making: “Legislative”
Facts 748

§ 332 The Uses of Judicial Notice..... 749

§ 333 Procedural Incidents 752

§ 334 Trends in the Development of Judicial Notice of Facts 753

§ 335 The Judge’s Task as Law-Finder: Judicial Notice of Law 756

TITLE 12. BURDEN OF PROOF AND PRESUMPTIONS

CHAPTER 36. THE BURDENS OF PROOF AND PRESUMPTIONS..... 763

§ 336 The Burdens of Proof: The Burden of Producing Evidence and the Burden of Persuasion 763

§ 337 Allocating the Burdens of Proof..... 765

§ 338 Satisfying the Burden of Producing Evidence 767

§ 339 Satisfying the Burden of Persuasion: (a) The Measure of Persuasion in Civil Cases Generally 770

§ 340 Satisfying the Burden of Persuasion: (b) Requirement of Clear and Convincing Proof..... 771

§ 341 Satisfying the Burden of Persuasion: (c) Proof Beyond a Reasonable Doubt 773

§ 342 Presumptions, in General 774

§ 343 Reasons for the Creation of Presumptions: Illustrative Presumptions 776

§ 344 The Effect of Presumptions in Civil Cases..... 779

(A) The “Bursting Bubble” Theory and Deviations from It..... 779

(B) Attempts to Provide a Single Rule Governing the Effect of Presumptions 783

(C) The Search for the Grail..... 786

§ 345 Constitutional Questions in Civil Cases 787

§ 346 Affirmative Defenses and Presumptions in Criminal Cases: (a)
Terminology 789

§ 347 Affirmative Defenses and Presumptions in Criminal Cases: (b)
Constitutionality..... 790

§ 348 Affirmative Defenses and Presumptions in Criminal Cases: (c) Special
Problems..... 796

§ 349 Choice of Law 799

TABLE OF CASES 801

TABLE OF STATUTES 805

TABLE OF RULES..... 807

INDEX..... 811