

Table of Contents

PREFACE	V
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	IX
Chapter 1. Thinking Like a Lawyer and Learning Like a Law Student	1
Law School Is Difficult Because It Is Different.....	2
The Blind Men and the Elephant.....	3
Thinking Like a Lawyer.....	5
Thinking Systematically	6
Imagining Both Sides of an Argument.....	7
Striking a Balance	8
Mental Habits	9
Law School Exams.....	10
Outlines.....	11
Preparing for, Participating in, and Learning from Class
Discussions	12
Thinking Hypothetically.....	14
Participating in Class	14
Taking Notes	16
The Ten Minutes After Class.....	17
Reading Cases.....	17
A Tale of Three Stories.....	18
Procedural Posture and Issue.....	20
The Facts of the Case	21
The Reasoning	21
The Holding of the Case.....	21
Example: The Holding of the Dudley and Stephens Case	22
Anticipating Hypothetical Questions	23
Dudley and Stephens Revisited	24
Briefing a Case.....	25
Canned Briefs	25
How to Use Your Law School Textbook	26
Some Good News: It Gets Easier.....	27
A General Piece of Advice: Don't Kid Yourself but Don't Kill Yourself Working Either	27
A Final Piece of Good News: Law School Is Worth the Work.....	29
Chapter 2. An Overview of Criminal Law	31
The Structure of the Criminal Law	32

The Guilty Hand	32
The Guilty Mind.....	33
Moved by	33
The Required Circumstances	33
Example: The Case of the Burgling Butt.....	34
Sometimes Causing a Bad Result.....	36
In the Absence of a Justification or an Excuse	37
Outline for Chapter 2: An Overview of Criminal Law.....	39
 Chapter 3. The Criminal Process	41
From Investigation Through Trial	41
The Appellate Process.....	43
Common Procedural Postures	44
Errors in Jury Instructions	44
Motions to Dismiss Before Trial	45
Motions to Dismiss During Trial and Challenges to Sufficiency of the Evidence.....	45
Evidentiary Rulings.....	46
Appeals by the Prosecution.....	46
Jury Nullification	47
Prosecutorial Discretion and Plea Bargaining.....	48
Sentencing	49
Exam Tip: Distinguishing One Crime from Another	50
Classroom Tip: Philosophies of Punishment.....	50
Professional Ethics	51
Keeping the Background Separate from the Foreground	53
Outline for Chapter 3: The Criminal Process	53
 Chapter 4. Statutory Interpretation and Sources of Law	57
Common Law.....	58
The Model Penal Code.....	60
U.S. Constitutional Law and Federal Criminal Law	60
Study Tip: MPC vs. Common Law	61
Study Tip: Majority vs. Minority Rules	62
Statutory Interpretation	63
Constitutional Constraints	65
Study/Exam Tip	67
Outline for Chapter 4: Statutory Interpretation and Sources of Law.....	67

Chapter 5. Philosophies of Punishment	71
Retribution	72
Major Utilitarian Theories of Punishment: Deterrence and Incapacitation	76
Minor Utilitarian Theories	79
The Bottom Line.....	81
Outline for Chapter 5: Philosophies of Punishment	82
 Chapter 6. The Guilty Hand.....	 85
The Requirement of a Voluntary Act.....	86
Reflexes Are Not Voluntary.....	87
Acts Done While Sleepwalking and Under Hypnosis Might Not Be Voluntary.....	87
Acts Done Under Duress Are “Voluntary”	88
Acts Done Habitually Are Considered “Voluntary”.....	88
Status Offenses	89
How the Voluntary Act Doctrine Often Operates in Practice	90
The Philosophy Behind the Voluntary Act Requirement	91
Omission Liability: The Big Exception.....	91
Statutory Duties	92
Contractual Duties	93
Status Relationships	93
Duties Voluntarily Assumed.....	94
Creation of a Risk of Peril	94
An Important Limitation on Criminal Omission Liability	95
The Philosophy Behind Limited Omission Liability.....	95
Outline for Chapter 6: The Guilty Hand	96
 Chapter 7. The Guilty Mind	 99
Model Penal Code Mental State Definitions.....	101
Common Law Mental States	104
Specific vs. General Intent	105
Strict Liability	107
Analyzing Mental State Requirements	108
Model Penal Code Default Rules	109
Common Law Default Rules	109
Outline for Chapter 7: The Guilty Mind.....	111
 Chapter 8. Mistakes and the Guilty Mind.....	 115
Mistake of Fact Doctrine Makes No Real Difference with Respect to Whether a Crime Took Place	116
Mistakes of Fact Do Not Have to Be Reasonable	117

The Common Law Distinction Between Specific and General Intent	118
Mistakes of Law Are a Defense Only When the Legislature Clearly Intends Them to Be.....	119
Malum Prohibitum Crimes.....	120
When Mistakes of Law Do Excuse	121
Model Penal Code	124
Outline for Chapter 8: Mistakes and the Guilty Mind.....	125
Chapter 9. Intoxication	129
Overview	130
Intoxication as a General Mental State Defense	131
Minority Rules.....	134
Intoxication as a Conduct Defense	135
Intoxication and Murder.....	135
Intoxication and Timing.....	136
Intoxication and Defensive Force.....	136
Intoxication and Insanity	136
Temporary Insanity	137
Settled Insanity Resulting from Intoxicating Substances.....	137
Intoxicated While Insane	137
Involuntary Intoxication.....	138
Involuntary Intoxication and Temporary Insanity	139
Outline for Chapter 9: Intoxication	139
Chapter 10. Homicide: An Overview.....	143
Outline for Chapter 10: Homicide: An Overview.....	147
Chapter 11. Common Law Murder	149
Intent to Kill Murder	150
Intent to Grievously Injure Murder	151
Depraved Heart Murder	153
Exam Tip: Reckless Murder	154
Outline for Chapter 11: Common Law Murder.....	156
Chapter 12. Premeditated and Deliberate Murder.....	159
Premeditation and Deliberation Defined	160
Failed Excuses	161
Earmarks of Premeditation and Deliberation	161
Model Penal Code	162
Exam Tip: Premeditation and Deliberation	163

Outline for Chapter 12: Premeditated and Deliberate Murder	163
Chapter 13. Felony Murder	167
Policies Behind the Felony Murder Doctrine	168
Limitations on Felony Murder Liability	169
Limitations on Types of Felonies	170
Enumeration	171
The Inherently Dangerous Felony Rule.....	172
Limiting Felony Murder to Independent Felonies	173
Limits on the Causal Relationship Between the Felony and the Resulting Death	175
Time and Place Rules.....	175
Logical Relationship Rules	177
Causation Rules.....	178
Killings Committed by Non-Felons.....	180
Other Types of Felony Murder Liability.....	181
Misdemeanor or Unlawful Act Manslaughter	183
Exam Tips: Felony Murder	183
Outline for Chapter 13: Felony Murder	184
Chapter 14. Manslaughter	187
Voluntary Manslaughter	188
Elements of Provocation	189
Adequacy of Provocation	191
Reasonableness of Cooling off Period.....	193
Model Penal Code and EMED	194
Philosophical Issues	196
Involuntary Manslaughter	197
Outline for Chapter 14: Manslaughter	198
Chapter 15. Causation	201
Overview of the Elements	201
Actual Causation Generally.....	203
Multiple Actual Causes and Substantial Factors	204
The Year and a Day Rule	205
Proximate Cause Generally.....	205
Unexpected Victims and Transferred Intent	206
Intervening Causes	207
Dependent Intervening Causes	208
Pre-Existing Weakness of the Victim	210
Independent (or Coincidental) Intervening Causes	210
Pulling the Plug on Life Support	211

Model Penal Code	212
Exam Tip: Look for the Strange	212
Outline for Chapter 15: Causation.....	213
 Chapter 16. Rape.....	217
The Challenges of Rape Law	217
Overview of Elements	220
The Predicate Sexual Act	223
Force	224
Lack of Capacity.....	225
Non-Consent	226
Acquaintance Rape and Rape Among the Married	227
Mental State as to Consent	228
Degrees of Rape	229
The MPC	229
Exam Tip: Think Through Both Sides of a Rape Policy
Question	229
Outline for Chapter 16: Rape	229
 Chapter 17. Miscellaneous Crimes Against the Person	233
Assault and Battery Distinguished	234
Battery.....	234
Assault	236
Attempted Battery Assault	236
Intent to Frighten Assault.....	237
Aggravated Assualts.....	238
False Imprisonment	239
Kidnapping	239
Aggravated Kidnapping	240
Exam Tip: Felony Murder	240
Outline for Chapter 17: Miscellaneous Crimes Against the Person.....	240
 Chapter 18. Property Crimes	243
Larceny	244
Taking	245
Larceny by Trick.....	245
Asportation.....	246
Personal Property	246
Another's Property.....	246
Intent to Permanently Deprive.....	247
Good Faith Mistakes	248
Doctrine of Continuing Trespass	248

Embezzlement	249
Obtaining Property by False Pretenses	250
Larceny by Trick Distinguished.....	251
Forgery and Writing Bad Checks	251
Consolidated Theft Statutes.....	252
Robbery	252
From Person or Presence.....	253
Through Force or Intimidation	253
Mental State	255
Attempted Robbery	255
Aggravated Robbery	255
Burglary	255
Breaking	256
Entering.....	257
Felonious or Larcenous Intent.....	257
Burglary as an Anticipatory Offense.....	258
Arson	258
Burning.....	258
Malicious	259
Outline for Chapter 18: Property Crimes.....	259
 Chapter 19. Inchoate Crimes: An Overview	263
Outline for Chapter 19: Inchoate Crimes: An Overview.....	265
 Chapter 20. Solicitation	267
An Historical Example	267
First Amendment Limits.....	269
Solicitation as an Attempt?	269
Model Penal Code	269
Merger	270
Outline for Chapter 20: Solicitation.....	271
 Chapter 21. Conspiracy	273
The Crime Is the Agreement	273
Policies Behind Conspiracy Doctrine	274
The Elements of Conspiracy: An Overview.....	276
The Guilty Hand: The Agreement	277
The Guilty Hand: Overt Act.....	278
The Guilty Mind: Intent to Agree and Intent to Achieve	279
Purposeful vs. Knowing Assistance	281
Attendant Circumstances	282
The Corrupt Motive Doctrine	283
Liability for Other Crimes.....	283

Abandoning or Withdrawing from a Conspiracy	284
Duration of the Conspiracy	285
Merger	286
Wharton's Rule	286
Unilateral vs. Bilateral Conspiracies	286
Scope of the Conspiracy	287
Outline for Chapter 21: Conspiracy	288
 Chapter 22. Attempt	293
An Overview of the Elements	294
Sentencing	295
Complete Attempts and "Moral Luck"	295
Conduct Required for Attempt.....	296
Attempt Conduct Hypo	300
Mental State Required for Attempt	303
Attempted Result Crimes	303
Attempted Felony Murder	304
Attempted Manslaughter.....	304
Attempted Reckless or Negligent Conduct Crimes.....	305
Purpose vs. Knowledge for Attempt Intent	306
Attendant Circumstances	306
Model Penal Code Mental State Requirements for Attempt	307
Renunciation or Withdrawal.....	307
Impossibility.....	308
Factual vs. Legal Impossibility	309
The Breakdown of the Distinction Between Factual and Legal Impossibility	310
The Model Penal Code and Pure Legal Impossibility....	311
An Example.....	312
The Modern Approach	313
Inherent Impossibility	313
Outline for Chapter 22: Attempt	314
 Chapter 23. Complicity and Liability for Crimes of Others	317
Overview of the Elements	318
Philosophical and Policy Considerations.....	318
Common Law Terminology.....	319
Acquittal of the Principal	321
The Guilty Hand: Assistance.....	322
The Guilty Hand: Acts of Encouragement	323
Solicitation and Conspiracy.....	324

Mere Presence Not Enough	324
Assistance by Omission	325
Aiding and Abetting	326
The Guilty Mind.....	326
Purpose vs. Knowledge	327
Complicity for Recklessness or Negligence.....	328
The Alternate Rule for Complicity Mental States	329
Natural and Probable Consequences	330
Exam Tip: Felony Murder and Complicity	332
Abandonment/Withdrawal.....	332
Model Penal Code	333
Vicarious and Enterprise Liability Distinguished	335
Outline for Chapter 23: Complicity and Liability for Crimes of Others	335
 Chapter 24. Defensive Force	 339
Justification vs. Excuse	340
Overview of the Elements	340
Justifiable Defensive Force Must	341
Used Against an Unlawful Force	342
Reasonable Fear.....	343
A Reasonable Fear Does Not Have to Be Correct.....	343
A Fear Can Be Unreasonable but Correct.....	344
Who Is the Reasonable Person, and What Is Reasonable Fear?	345
Subjective Reasonableness as a Standard for an Excuse	348
Actual Fear	349
Imminence of Harm.....	349
Immediacy vs. Necessity	350
Necessity of Force	351
Exam Tip: Reading Fact Patterns Carefully	353
Stand Your Ground and the Duty to Retreat	354
The Castle Exception	356
Proportionate Force	357
Initial Aggressor Rules	357
Protection of Property and Home	360
Protection of Others.....	361
Imperfect Self Defense.....	362
Special Issues: Domestic Violence	363
Exam Tip: Other Syndromes	364
Model Penal Code	365
Actual but Unreasonable Fears	365

Exam Tip: Look for Breadth and Depth	366
Outline for Chapter 24: Defensive Force	367
Chapter 25. Duress and Necessity	371
Elements of Duress.....	372
Duress Under the Model Penal Code	374
Prison Escapes	375
Elements of the Necessity Defense.....	376
Necessity as a Defense to Murder	378
Necessity Under the Model Penal Code	378
Outline for Chapter 25: Duress and Necessity	379
Chapter 26. Insanity and Related Defenses.....	383
Overview of the Elements of Insanity.....	384
Procedural Background.....	386
Competency Distinguished.....	388
Mental Disease or Defect	388
M'Naghten Test.....	389
Arguing About Delusional Beliefs	392
Deific Commands	393
M'Naghten Criticisms and Responses.....	394
The Irresistible Impulse Test and the Role of Volition	394
The Durham "Product" Test and the Scope of Psychiatric Expertise.....	395
The Model Penal Code's Substantial Capacity Test.....	396
The Hinckley Verdict and the Return of M'Naghten	398
Diminished Capacity and Partial Responsibility	399
Diminished Capacity	400
Partial Responsibility	401
Exam Tip: Figuring out the Type of Question.....	401
Outline for Chapter 26: Insanity and Related Defenses	401
Chapter 27. Tips for Writing Law School Exam	405
Answers	405
The Most Important Tip: Bird by Bird	405
How to Write About an Issue	407
Burglary as an Example.....	408
The Real Importance of the Conclusion	412
Dealing with Alternate Rules	412
One-Sided vs. Two-Sided Issues.....	413
Policy Issues.....	414
Large-Scale Organization	414
Using the Rules to Organize Your Answer	415

Common Mistakes	416
Don't Run Away from Trouble.....	416
Don't Freak out if You Can't Get to Every Issue	417
Don't Give the Professor an "Outline Dump".....	418
Don't Give the Professor a "Fact Summary".....	418
Don't Ignore the Call of the Question.....	419
Don't Ignore Time Budgets	419
Don't Start Writing Too Early	420
Don't Start Writing Too Late	421
Don't Write Overall Introductions or Conclusions.....	422
Don't Spend Time "Writing Pretty"	422
If You Panic, It Will Wear off.....	422
Practice, Practice, Practice	423
A Last Bit of Good News.....	424