

OUTLINE

---

PREFACE .....	III
ABOUT THE AUTHORS .....	VII
ALSO BY THE AUTHORS.....	IX

PART I. INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1. A Philosophy of Drafting.....	3
A. The Characteristics of Good Legal Writing.....	4
1. Accuracy.....	4
2. Clarity .....	6
3. Concision.....	7
4. Simplicity.....	9
5. Tone.....	9
B. Three Types of Legal Writing .....	9
1. Normative Writing .....	10
2. Discursive Writing .....	10
3. Litigation-Related Writing .....	11
C. The Ultimate Consequence of Drafted Normative Documents.....	11
D. Drafting as a Facilitator of Self-Government and Economic Enterprise .....	13
E. Drafting as a Form of Preventative Lawyering.....	14
F. Drafting as an Intellectual Exercise.....	15
1. Knowledge of the Law.....	15
2. Investigation.....	16
3. Conceptualization.....	17
4. Forethought .....	19
5. Organization.....	19

G. Drafting as a Literary Exercise .....	20
1. Words .....	21
2. Sentences .....	22
3. Other Word Construction Techniques .....	23
4. Headings .....	24
H. Drafting as an Ethical Exercise .....	24
I. The Costs of Bad Drafting .....	26
1. Social Costs.....	26
2. Client Costs .....	27
3. Drafter Costs .....	27
J. Drafting from Scratch .....	29
 Chapter 2. Contract Drafting .....	 31
A. Basics.....	31
B. The Context: The Deal Timeline—Whether Big or Little, Deals Follow a Pattern .....	33
C. The Role of the Contract Drafter .....	36
D. Recurring Problems in Contract Drafting.....	38
1. Unintended Contracts.....	39
2. Documents Intended to Be Contracts That Fail .....	41
3. Contracts Containing Gaps .....	43
4. Terms That Are Ambiguous and Terms That Are Unintentionally Vague .....	44
5. Unanticipated Events .....	45
E. Types of Contracts .....	46
F. The Parts of a Contract .....	47
1. Caption or Heading .....	48
2. Introductory Paragraph.....	49
3. Recitals .....	50
4. Definitions .....	53
5. Statement of Consideration and Agreement .....	54

6.	Substantive Provisions .....	56
7.	Housekeeping Provisions or Boilerplate....	57
8.	Signature Blocks .....	62
9.	Date .....	64
10.	Notarization.....	65
11.	Appendices, Exhibits, Schedules.....	65
G.	Exemplar Considerations.....	67
H.	Amending Contracts.....	69
Chapter 3. Legislative Drafting .....		75
A.	Who Drafts Legislation?.....	75
B.	The Function of the Legislative Drafter.....	76
C.	Legislation Compared to Private-Law Documents.....	79
1.	Nature and Size of the Audience.....	81
2.	The Need for Precision.....	83
3.	Policy Considerations.....	83
4.	The Need for Factual Data .....	84
5.	Political Considerations .....	84
6.	Fitting the Document into an Existing Body of Law .....	85
7.	Legal Limits.....	86
8.	Legislative History .....	88
9.	Form, Style, and Usage.....	89
D.	The Parts of a Statute .....	90
1.	Heading and Title .....	91
2.	Enacting Clause .....	91
3.	Short Title Section .....	92
4.	Statement of Purpose or Findings .....	92
5.	Definitions .....	93
6.	Substantive Provisions .....	94
7.	Enforcement Mechanisms .....	94
8.	Remedies or Penalties.....	95

9. Housekeeping Provisions .....	95
E. Amending Statutes .....	98
1. When Are Amendments Drafted? .....	98
2. The Parts of an Amendment .....	99
3. What Amendments Do.....	99
4. Amendments Changing a Judicial Interpretation or Construction.....	102
Chapter 4. The Rules of Interpretation.....	105
A. Statutory Rules.....	106
B. Common Law Rules .....	107
1. Intent Controls .....	107
a. The Plain Meaning or Four Corners Rule.....	108
b. The Mischief Rule and Other Evidences of Intent .....	109
c. Effect on Drafters .....	111
2. The Rule of Strict Construction .....	112
a. Criminal Statutes .....	112
b. Statutes in Derogation of the Common Law .....	113
c. Statutes Depriving a Court of Jurisdiction .....	113
d. Statutes in Derogation of Sovereignty .....	114
3. The Rule of Liberal Construction .....	115
4. The Rule of Expressio Unius Est Exclusio     Alterius .....	115
5. The Rule of Eiusdem Generis .....	117
6. The Rule of Noscitur A Sociis .....	119
7. The Rule of Reddendo Singula Singulis ...	120
8. The Rule of Last Modification .....	121

9. The Rule That Handwritten Words Prevail over Typed or Printed Words .....	121
10. The Rule That Written Amounts Prevail over Arabic Number Amounts.....	122
11. The Rule That Specific Language Prevails over General Language or Provisions .....	123
12. The Borrowed Language Rule .....	123
13. The Rule Favoring Agency Interpretation .....	124
14. The Rule That a Document Must Be Read as a Whole .....	125
15. The Rule of Construing Statutes In Pari Materia .....	125
16. The Rule Disfavoring Repeals by Implication.....	127
17. The Rule of Lex Posterior Derogat Priori .....	128
18. The Rule of Construing a Document Against the Drafter .....	128
19. The Rule of Adopting a Construction That Favors Validity .....	129
20. The Rule Favoring the Construction of Contracts in a Manner Consistent with Public Policy .....	129
C. Tools for Analyzing and Interpreting Statutes .....	130
1. Using Tabulation to Explode a Statute ...	130
2. Using the Structure and Other Sections of the Same Statute.....	132
3. Using Case Law Interpreting a Statute .....	133

Chapter 5. Drafting Ethics .....	135
A. Solicitation .....	136
1. Advertising Specialization or Concentration .....	136
2. Mass Mailings .....	136
3. Solicitation of Former Clients, Family, and Friends.....	137
B. Competence and Diligence .....	137
C. Scope of Representation .....	138
1. Objectives and Means .....	139
2. Criminal, Fraudulent, and Otherwise Prohibited Transactions .....	140
D. Communication.....	144
E. Fees.....	144
F. Confidentiality .....	145
1. Ethical Requirements .....	146
2. Attorney-Client Privilege.....	147
G. Conflict of Interest.....	149
1. Representation Against a Current Client.....	150
2. Representation Against a Former Client.....	154
3. Imputed Disqualification .....	155
4. Former Government Lawyer-Drafters....	156
H. Dealings with Third Parties.....	157
I. Litigation Ethics .....	158
J. Aiding the Unauthorized Practice of Law .....	159
K. Providing Free Drafting Services .....	160
Chapter 6. Legal Drafting Overview.....	163
A. Determine the Client's Objectives .....	163
B. Identify the Audience .....	165

C. Explore the Broader Legal and Factual Context of the Document.....	165
D. Research the Law .....	168
E. Determine Substance .....	169
F. Get the Facts.....	170
G. Identify the Proper Legal and Factual Concepts .....	171
H. Develop an Organization.....	172
I. Write the Document .....	173
1. Ambiguities.....	174
2. Rules of Style and Usage .....	174
3. Definitions .....	175
4. Terms Creating Legal Consequences.....	175
5. Format .....	176
J. Review the Document for Substance and Style.....	176
K. Post-Execution Monitoring .....	177
L. 25 Contract Drafting Considerations That Comprise a Philosophy .....	177

PART II. PREPARATION AND PLANNING

Chapter 7. Getting Started .....	183
A. Determine Client Objectives .....	183
1. The Basic Questions.....	184
2. How the Information Is Used .....	185
3. Objectives from a Variety of Perspectives.....	187
a. Other Parties to the Transaction.....	187
b. Scope of Anticipated Use.....	188
c. Multiple-Client Objectives .....	188
4. Evaluating Client Objectives.....	190

B.	Know the Audience .....	192
1.	Identity of the Audience .....	192
2.	Characteristics of the Audience .....	193
3.	Accommodating the Various Audiences.....	194
C.	Determine the Context of the Document .....	195
1.	Legal Context .....	196
2.	Factual Context .....	198
Chapter 8. Drafting Within the Law .....		201
A.	Form .....	201
B.	Meaning.....	203
C.	Substance .....	205
1.	Prohibition .....	205
2.	Requirement .....	206
3.	Permission and Authorization.....	207
4.	Denial of Permission or Authorization ....	207
5.	Other Consequences.....	208
6.	Implied Terms .....	208
D.	Creating Legal Checklists .....	209
E.	Drafting with Statutory Language in Mind.....	210
F.	Validation Concerns .....	213
Chapter 9. Determining Substance .....		215
A.	Types of Provisions .....	215
1.	Required by Law .....	215
2.	Going to the Essence of the Transaction.....	216
3.	Extremely Important .....	217
4.	Optional .....	218
B.	Substantive Term Checklists.....	218
1.	Commercially Prepared .....	218

2. Drafter Prepared .....	219
C. The Elements of a Legal Rule .....	229
1. The Person .....	230
2. The Conduct.....	230
3. The Object of the Action .....	230
4. The Circumstances.....	231
5. The Consequences .....	231
D. Substantive Gaps.....	233
Chapter 10. Choosing the Right Concept .....	235
A. Definition.....	235
B. The Importance of Concepts in Drafting.....	236
C. Types of Concepts .....	236
1. Legal Concepts .....	236
2. Factual Concepts.....	238
a. General Versus Specific .....	239
b. Vague Versus Precise .....	243
c. Abstract Versus Concrete.....	249
D. Choosing the Right Word to Reflect the Concept.....	251
Chapter 11. Organization .....	253
A. Division.....	253
B. Classification.....	257
C. Sequence.....	259
1. Chronological.....	259
2. Importance.....	260
3. Frequency of Occurrence .....	261
4. Familiar Before Unfamiliar.....	261
5. Rules Before Exceptions .....	261
6. What Before How .....	262
7. Substance Before Procedure.....	262

PART III. DRAFTING TECHNIQUES

Chapter 12. Avoiding Ambiguities.....	265
A. Definition.....	265
B. The Consequences of Ambiguity.....	265
C. Types of Ambiguity.....	267
1. Contextual Ambiguity.....	267
2. Semantic Ambiguity.....	271
a. Homonyms .....	271
b. “And”.....	273
c. “Or” .....	275
d. “And/Or” .....	277
e. Specific Dates.....	279
f. Time Spans.....	281
g. Days, Weeks, Months, and Years .....	284
h. “Bimonthly,” “Biannually,” and “Biennially” .....	286
i. Hours .....	286
j. Relational Words .....	288
k. Ages .....	288
l. “Provided That” .....	289
m. Legalese.....	290
n. Shall, May, Will, and Must .....	291
o. “Among” and “Between” .....	293
3. Syntactic Ambiguity.....	294
a. Pronoun Reference.....	294
b. Modifiers .....	295
c. Participles .....	300
d. Chain Prepositions .....	300
e. Negative Pregnants .....	300
f. “If . . . Then” Sentences .....	301
g. “Because” Clauses.....	302
h. “Unless” Clauses .....	302

i.	“Only” .....	303
j.	Truncated Passive .....	305
k.	“Which” and “That” .....	305
l.	Plural Nouns .....	307
m.	Commas and Semi-Colons.....	309
Chapter 13. Drafting Style and Usage .....		315
A.	Consistency .....	315
1.	Consistent Terminology .....	315
2.	Consistent Grammatical Structure.....	316
3.	Consistent Document Structure and Approach.....	318
B.	Concision .....	319
1.	Unnecessary Content .....	319
2.	Cross-References and Section/Paragraph References.....	320
3.	Repetitious Substance.....	320
4.	Redundant Couplets, Triplets, and Other Chain Synonyms.....	322
5.	Other Redundant Expressions .....	329
6.	Legalese .....	332
7.	Compound Prepositions and Prepositional Phrases .....	335
8.	“The Fact That” .....	339
9.	Rhetorical and Transitional Words and Phrases .....	340
10.	The Phrase “of the . . . ” .....	341
11.	Unnecessary “Who’s,” “Which’s,” and “That’s” .....	342
12.	Substantive Numbers and Redundant Numeration.....	343
13.	Expletives .....	344
14.	Nominalizations .....	346

15. Passive Voice .....	347
16. "To Be" Verb Forms.....	348
C. Clarity and Simplicity .....	350
1. Short Sentences.....	350
2. Simple Sentence Structure.....	351
3. Present Tense .....	353
4. Simple, Ordinary Words .....	354
5. Terms of Art.....	359
6. Technical and Trade Terms.....	360
7. Foreign Words and Phrases .....	360
8. Words Ending in "-ee" and "-or" .....	361
9. Compound Adjectives and Noun Phrases .....	362
10. Unconventional Capitalization .....	363
11. Positive Versus Negative Expression .....	363
12. Exceptions.....	364
13. Personal Pronouns .....	365
D. Some Basic Rules of Grammar Relevant to Drafting .....	366
1. Forming the Possessive .....	366
a. Form the Possessive Singular of Nouns by Adding "'s" .....	366
b. Form the Possessive Plural by Adding an Apostrophe .....	366
c. Its, It's, His, and Hers .....	366
2. Use of the Semicolon Versus the Colon ..	367
a. The Semicolon .....	367
b. The Colon .....	367
3. Slashes .....	368
4. Subject and Verb Agreement.....	368
5. Parentheses .....	369
6. Quotation Marks .....	370
7. Spacing After Sentences .....	372

E. Misused and Abused Words and Expressions .....	372
F. Gender-Specific Language .....	374
Chapter 14. Definitions .....	381
A. General Principles of Usage.....	381
1. Terms with Established Meanings .....	383
2. Terms of Art and Technical Terms .....	384
3. Humpty-Dumpty Definitions.....	384
4. Circular Definitions .....	386
5. One-Time Definitions.....	387
6. Definitional Mazes .....	389
B. Substantive Matters .....	390
C. Definitions Incorporated by Reference.....	392
D. Types of Definitions and Terminology .....	394
1. Defined Terms .....	394
2. Full Definitions .....	396
3. Partial Definitions.....	398
a. Enlarging Definitions .....	399
b. Limiting Definitions .....	399
4. Combining Full and Partial Definitions .....	400
5. Examples .....	401
E. Methodology .....	402
1. Use Familiar Terms .....	403
2. Use Precise Terms.....	403
3. Identify Components.....	403
4. Identify Specific Referents.....	404
5. Indicate Relationship to a Larger Unit ..	404
F. Location of Definitions .....	405
G. When to Draft Definitions.....	406
H. Testing Definitions .....	406

Chapter 15. Terms Creating Legal Consequences .....	409
A. The Importance of These Terms .....	409
B. Identifying and Creating the Appropriate Legal Consequences.....	409
C. The Suggested Conventions .....	410
1. Duties.....	411
a. Statutory Duties .....	411
b. Privately Created Duties.....	413
2. Negation of Duties.....	413
3. Rights.....	415
4. Negation of Rights.....	416
5. Surrendering Rights or Causes of Action—Waiver and Releases.....	417
6. Privileges .....	418
7. Negation of Privileges .....	420
8. Immunity .....	420
9. Conditions.....	421
a. Definition and Types .....	421
b. Terminology .....	428
c. Objective Versus Subjective Conditions .....	430
D. Covenants.....	431
E. Representations, Warranties, Releases, Guaranties, and Indemnities .....	432
1. General Rules and Techniques: Typical Representations and Warranties .....	433
2. Representations.....	435
3. Warranties.....	438
4. Guaranties and Indemnities .....	439
5. Indemnities.....	439
6. Releases .....	440
7. Conclusion—Cautionary Procedures .....	440

F. Exceptions .....	443
G. Events of Default and Remedies.....	444

H. When Not to Follow These Conventions .....	448
---	-----

Chapter 16. Document Typography and Layout..... 451

A. Physical Appearance .....	451
1. White Space .....	451
2. Type Size and Font .....	452
3. Limited Use of All Capitals and Underlining .....	454
4. Line Length .....	455
5. Justification.....	456
6. Line Spacing .....	456
7. Blank Spaces .....	457
8. Sections and Paragraphs .....	458
B. Text.....	458
1. Table of Contents .....	458
2. Numbered Pages .....	459
3. Hierarchical Paragraph Headings .....	459
4. Lists and Enumerations .....	461
5. Tabbing .....	464
6. Charts and Graphs.....	465
7. Computations .....	466

Chapter 17. Reviewing and Revising..... 469

A. Prepare a Flowchart .....	469
B. Document Review .....	472
1. Review by the Drafter .....	472
a. Review for Content—a Ten Point Checklist.....	473
b. Review for Style and Usage .....	478
c. Prepare a Summary.....	482

2. Review by Other People .....	482
a. Your Colleagues and Supervisors .....	483
b. Review by the Client .....	486
c. Review by Opposing Counsel .....	488
C. Proofread the Document.....	492
Appendix.....	493
INDEX.....	497