

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION.....	1
PART I. BACKGROUND
Introduction to the Insanity Defense	3
1. Context	3
2. The Criminal Law.....	3
3. Integrating Mental Health Knowledge with the Criminal Law	5
(i) The Concept of “Disease”	6
(ii) The Concept of “Dimensions”	6
(iii) The Concept of “Psychological Explanation”	7
4. Conclusion	8
History of the Insanity Defense.....	8
1. Early History.....	8
2. M’Naghten’s Case	10
3. The Meaning of “Know” and “Wrong”	12
(i) “Know”	13
(ii) “Wrong”	14
4. Other Early Formulations.....	15
(i) The “Irresistible Impulse” Test	16
(ii) The Product Test.....	18
5. The Model Penal Code	20
6. The Insanity Defense in the District of Columbia	22
(i) The Insanity Test.....	22
(ii) The Concept of “Mental Disease”	22
7. The Hinckley Case	23
PART II. THE HINCKLEY TRIAL
United States v. John W. Hinckley, Jr. (1982).....	25
1. Introduction.....	25
2. The Expert Testimony	25
(i) Hinckley’s Behavior	26
(ii) Hinckley’s Mental Disorder.....	30
Dr. William T. Carpenter, Jr., Defense Witness	33
Direct Examination by Defense Attorney Vincent Fuller.....	33
Cross Examination by Assistant U.S. Attorney Roger Adelman	38
Dr. Park Elliott Dietz, Government Witness	41

	Direct Examination by Mr. Adelman	41
	Cross Examination by Mr. Fuller	51
(iii)	Hinckley's Capacity to Appreciate Wrongfulness	54
	Dr. William T. Carpenter, Jr., Defense Witness	55
	Direct Examination by Mr. Fuller	55
	Cross Examination by Mr. Adelman.....	62
	Dr. Park Elliott Dietz, Government Witness	69
	Direct Examination by Mr. Adelman	69
	Cross Examination by Mr. Fuller	72
(iv)	Hinckley's Capacity to Conform.....	73
	Dr. William T. Carpenter, Jr., Defense Witness	73
	Direct Examination by Mr. Fuller	73
	Cross Examination by Mr. Adelman.....	74
	Dr. Park Elliott Dietz, Government Witness	91
	Direct Examination by Mr. Adelman	91
	Cross Examination by Mr. Fuller	93
3.	Closing Argument	95
	Closing Argument by Mr. Adelman for the Government.....	95
	Closing Argument by Mr. Fuller for the Defense	106
	Rebuttal by Mr. Adelman	119
4.	Jury Instructions	127
	Instructions by Judge Parker	127

PART III. REACTIONS TO THE VERDICT

Comments and Questions on the Hinckley Trial.....	133
1. Public Reaction	133
2. Mental Disease.....	134
(i) The Legal Questions	134
(ii) The Factual Questions.....	135
3. Appreciation of Wrongfulness	136
4. The Volitional Inquiry	137
5. Burden of Proof	138
6. Disposition.....	139
Reform of the Insanity Defense After Hinckley	139
1. Introduction.....	139
2. Narrowing the Defense.....	140
3. The Verdict of “Guilty but Mentally Ill”	144
4. Burden of Proof	146
5. The “Battle of the Experts”	146
6. Abolition of the Insanity Defense	149

PART IV. THE AFTERMATHHospitalization and Treatment of John W. Hinckley, Jr.:

1982–2007	155
1. Automatic Commitment (1982).....	155
2. Initial Complaints (1984–1986)	156
3. Aborted Request for Unsupervised Release (1987)	159
4. Tight Control Continues (1988–1997)	161
5. Request for Unsupervised Release (1997)	163
6. Unsupervised Outings (1999–2003)	164
7. Hearings on Request for Unsupervised Release (2003–2004)	165
8. Cautious Expansion of Privileges (2006–2007).....	167
9. Obstacles to Phase IV Transition (2007)	168
10. Goals of Treatment	169
The Transition to Freedom	169
1. Approval of Phase IV Transition (2009)	169
2. A Shift in the Court’s Attitude?	170
3. Limited Success of Phase IV (2009–2013).....	171
United States v. John W. Hinckley, Jr. (2013)	172
1. Question on the Court’s Analysis.....	180
The Release of John W. Hinckley, Jr.....	180
United States v. John W. Hinckley, Jr. (2016)	182
Notes and Questions on the Release of John W.
Hinckley, Jr.	203
1. Treatment or Punishment?	203
2. Risk Assessment	203
3. Unconditional Release	204
4. Civil Liability	205
5. Restoration of Personhood.....	206