

OUTLINE

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	V
FOREWORD TO THE SIXTH EDITION	VII
TABLE OF CASES	XXVII

Chapter One. Overview and Introduction to Water Law..... 1

I. The Study of Water Law.....	1
II. Legal Systems for Surface Water Allocation... 2	2
A. Riparian Rights	3
B. Prior Appropriation.....	4
C. Hybrid Systems	6
III. Special Types of Water	6
A. Groundwater.....	6
B. Diffused Surface Water.....	8
IV. Public Rights	9
V. Intergovernmental Problems	10
A. Reserved Rights.....	10
B. Federal Actions Affecting State Water Rights	11
C. Interstate Problems	12
VI. Water Institutions and Equity.....	12

Chapter Two. Riparian Rights 15

I. History of the Riparian Doctrine	16
A. European Precedents	16
B. Development in the Eastern United States	18
C. The Role of Riparian Law in the American West	20

II.	Contours of the Riparian Doctrine.....	21
A.	The Basis for Riparian Rights—
	Riparian Land	22
1.	Defining Riparian Land	23
a.	Watershed Limitation	23
b.	Divisions of Riparian Land	24
i.	Unity of Title Rule	24
ii.	Source of Title Rule	25
2.	Types of Watercourses	25
a.	Streams	26
b.	Lakes and Ponds.....	27
c.	Springs and Other Natural Water Bodies.....	27
d.	Underground Watercourses	28
e.	Oceans and Bays.....	29
f.	Out of Basin (Foreign) Waters	29
g.	Artificially Created Watercourses.....	30
B.	Measure of Riparian Rights—
	Reasonable Use	31
C.	Limits on Riparian Rights	35
1.	Unreasonable Use	35
2.	Prohibition of Use on Non- Riparian Lands and Its Exceptions.....	36
D.	Scope of Riparian Uses	37
1.	Preference for “Natural” Uses	37
2.	Irrigation, Industrial, and Mining Uses.....	38
3.	Municipal Uses	39
4.	Storage Rights	41

5.	Waterpower.....	41
a.	Waterwheels and Mills.....	41
b.	Hydroelectric Generation.....	42
6.	Recovery of Gravel.....	43
7.	Discharge of Waste and the Protection of Water Quality.....	44
8.	Reciprocal Rights Among Riparian Users to Use the Entire Surface.....	45
9.	Right to Wharf out.....	48
10.	Right to Maintain Water Levels.....	49
11.	Scenic Rights	51
E.	Transfers of Riparian Rights.....	52
1.	Granting Riparian Rights.....	52
2.	Reserving Riparian Rights.....	53
3.	Acquiring Riparian Rights by Prescription.....	54
F.	Loss of Riparian Rights.....	56
1.	Effect of Non-Use.....	56
2.	Accretion, Reliction, Erosion, and Avulsion	57
3.	Legislation—Moving from a Common Law to Statutory Law System.....	58
III.	Permit Systems—Regulated Riparianism.....	59
A.	Requiring a Permit to Divert Water	62
B.	Allowing Water Use on Non-Riparian Land	63
C.	Issuing Time Limited Permits.....	63
D.	Protecting the Public Interest in a Regulated Riparian Jurisdiction	65
E.	Allocating Water Through an Administrative Agency	67

Chapter Three. Prior Appropriation	69
I. Introduction to Prior Appropriation	69
II. Development of Prior Appropriation
Doctrine	72
A. Federal Statutes	73
1. 1866 and 1870 Mining Acts	73
2. 1877 Desert Land Act.....	74
B. Development of Modern Systems	76
III. Elements of Appropriation	77
A. Intent	78
B. Diversion.....	81
1. Types of Diversions	81
2. Due Diligence Requirement and Conditional Rights.....	82
3. Exceptions to the Diversion Requirement	84
C. Beneficial Use.....	87
D. Waters Subject to Appropriation.....	92
1. Watercourses	92
a. Streams	94
b. Lakes and Ponds.....	95
c. Springs	96
2. Waters Made Available by Human Effort	96
a. Foreign or Developed Water ...	97
b. Salvaged Water.....	99
3. Withdrawals from Appropriation.....	100
a. Maintenance of Instream Flows	100
b. Reservations for Future Uses	103

IV.	Priority and Preferences.....	103
	A. Priority.....	103
	B. Qualifications of the Senior's Right	105
	C. Enforcement of Priorities.....	106
	D. Preferences	107
V.	Extent of the Appropriative Right	108
	A. Measure of the Right: Beneficial Use.....	109
	B. Beneficial Use as a Limit.....	111
	1. "Duty of Water" Limitations	113
	2. Reasonably Efficient Means of Diversion	115
	3. The Evolving Concept of Beneficial Use and the Public Trust Doctrine	118
	C. Recapture and Reuse	121
	1. Total Use Must Not Exceed Water Right	122
	2. Reuse Limited to Original Land...	125
VI.	Procedures for Perfecting and Administering Rights.....	127
	A. Permit Systems	128
	1. Purpose.....	128
	2. Constitutionality	129
	3. Permitting Procedures	130
	a. Filing	131
	b. Notice.....	132
	c. Hearing.....	132
	d. Issuance of Permit	134
	4. Statutory Criteria.....	135
	5. Public Interest Considerations and the Public Trust.....	137

B.	Adjudication.....	142
1.	General Stream Adjudications (GSAs)	142
2.	Review of Agency Permit Decisions	144
3.	Conflicts Among Water Users	145
C.	Regulation of Water Distribution.....	145
D.	The Colorado System	146
VII.	Transfers and Changes of Water Rights	148
A.	Transfers Generally	149
B.	Restrictions on Transfers Apart from the Land.....	149
C.	Transbasin Diversions	151
D.	Changes in Use.....	153
1.	No Harm Rule.....	153
2.	Procedures.....	155
3.	Types of Changes.....	157
a.	Change in Point of Diversion	157
b.	Change in Place of Use.....	158
c.	Change in Purpose of Use	159
d.	Change in Time of Use	160
e.	Change in Point of Return	160
4.	Limits on Changed Use.....	161
VIII.	Loss of Water Rights.....	164
A.	Abandonment	165
B.	Forfeiture.....	167
C.	Adverse Possession and Prescriptive Rights	169
IX.	Physical Access to Source and Transportation of Water	170
A.	Across Federal Public Lands	171

B.	Across Private Lands Under State Law.....	173
1.	Status of Trespassing Appropriators.....	173
2.	Purchase of Rights-of-Way.....	175
3.	Condemnation of Rights-of-Way...	176
C.	Appurtenancy of Ditch Rights to Water Rights.....	177
X.	Storage.....	177
A.	Acquisition of Storage Rights.....	179
1.	Storage Water Rights.....	179
2.	Permission to Construct Storage Facilities.....	180
B.	Use of Storage Rights.....	182
C.	Limits on Storage.....	183

Chapter Four. Hybrid Systems and Other Variations 187

I.	Development of Hybrid Systems.....	188
A.	California's Early Recognition of Both Riparian Rights and Appropriative Rights.....	189
B.	Federal Recognition of Appropriative Rights.....	191
II.	Modifications of Riparian Rights in Hybrid Systems.....	194
A.	Reasonable Use Limitations.....	195
B.	Extinguishment of Unused Riparian Rights.....	195
C.	Constitutional Challenges.....	196
III.	Administration of Hybrid Systems.....	200
A.	Resolving Disputes Among Water Users.....	200

B.	Adjudication of Unused Riparian Rights	201
C.	Prescription	203
IV.	Other Water Law Variations.....	203
A.	Water Law in Louisiana	203
B.	Hawaiian Water Law	206
C.	Pueblo Water Rights	210
Chapter Five. Groundwater.....		215
I.	Basic Hydrology	216
A.	How Groundwater Occurs	216
1.	Permeability of Rock Formations.....	216
2.	Zones of Groundwater Occurrence	218
3.	Aquifers.....	218
4.	Underground Streams Distinguished.....	220
B.	Groundwater Pumping	221
1.	Drilling and Pumping	221
2.	Effects of Well Use	222
a.	Cone of Influence	222
b.	Effects of Depletion.....	223
3.	Common Pool Resource Management	225
II.	Allocating and Managing Rights in Groundwater	226
A.	Nature of Rights.....	226
1.	Rights Based on Land Ownership.....	227
a.	Absolute Ownership Doctrine.....	227
b.	Correlative Rights	229

2.	Rights by Prior Appropriation	232
3.	Groundwater as a Public Resource	233
B.	Rules of Liability	234
1.	No Liability Rule	235
2.	Prior Appropriation—"Junior- Liable" Rule	235
3.	Reasonable Use Doctrine	236
4.	Restatement (Second) of Torts § 858	237
5.	"Economic Reach" Rule	240
C.	Permits.....	241
1.	Well Permits	242
2.	Pumping Permits.....	243
D.	Limits on Pumping.....	244
1.	Protection of Existing Rights.....	244
2.	Forfeiture	246
3.	Legislative Schedules for Groundwater Mining.....	246
4.	Critical Area Legislation and Designations	248
5.	Takings.....	252
III.	Conjunctive Use and Management.....	253
A.	Regulation of Groundwater Connected with Surface Sources.....	254
1.	Interaction of Groundwater and Surface Water	254
2.	Definition of Hydrologically Connected ("Tributary") Groundwater.....	257
3.	Conjunctive Use Management.....	258

4.	Regulation of Tributary Groundwater: The Colorado Example	262
5.	Applying the Public Trust Doctrine to Interrelated Sources	263
B.	Imported Supplies and Intensive Management: The California Example	265
IV.	Groundwater Recharge and Storage.....	267
V.	Controlling Groundwater Contamination ...	270
A.	Regulation of Groundwater Pumping.....	271
B.	Regulation of Polluting Activities	273
1.	State Regulation.....	273
2.	Federal Regulation.....	275
C.	State Judicial Remedies.....	278
Chapter Six. Diffused Surface Waters.....		281
I.	Diffused Surface Waters Distinguished from Watercourses	281
A.	Diffused Surface Waters	281
B.	Watercourses	282
C.	Other Waters	284
II.	Protection from Damage by Surface Flows.....	285
A.	Common Enemy Rule	286
B.	Civil Law Rule: Natural Flow Theory	287
C.	Reasonable Use Doctrine.....	289
D.	Public Control of Surface Drainage	291
1.	Public Drainage Projects.....	291

2.	Public Restrictions on Draining Wetlands	292
III.	Use of Diffused Surface Waters	295
A.	Use of Diffused Surface Waters.....	295
B.	Rainwater Catchment.....	298
Chapter Seven. Navigable Waters		301
I.	Context Counts in Determining Navigability	303
II.	Navigability for Title	306
A.	Federal Definition of Navigability for Title	307
B.	State Definitions of Navigability for Title	312
C.	The Public Trust Doctrine	314
III.	Navigational Servitude.....	320
A.	Basis of the Navigational Servitude ...	320
B.	Extent of the Navigational Servitude.....	322
1.	Obstructions to Navigation.....	322
2.	Damage to Property in Navigable Waterways	323
3.	Projects on Navigable Streams Causing Damage to Property Rights on Non-Navigable Tributaries	324
4.	Waters Rendered Navigable by Private Effort.....	326
C.	Measure of Damages for Condemnation	328
1.	Value of Water Power	328
2.	Site Value.....	328

3. Water Rights Created Under State Law	332
IV. Hydropower	333
A. Federal Power Act	334
B. Conflict with State Law	338
C. Protection for Fish and Wildlife	341
V. Flood Control	347
A. The Rivers and Harbors Act	348
B. The Flood Control Acts	348
C. Fifth Amendment Takings Claims	353
VI. Ecological Concerns and Environmental Legislation	355

Chapter Eight. Federal and Indian Water

Rights	361
I. Reserved Rights Doctrine	361
A. Origin of the Doctrine— Winters v. United States	362
B. Application to Federal Non-Indian Reservations— Arizona v. California ...	364
C. Basis for the Exercise of Federal Authority	366
D. Relationship to State Water Law	368
1. Prior Appropriation Jurisdictions	368
2. Riparian Jurisdictions	370
II. Federal Water Rights for Indian Lands and Purposes	372
A. Determining Purpose for Water Rights—Distinguishing Winters , Winans , and Pueblo Water Rights	372
B. Quantifying Reserved Water Rights ...	374

1.	Winters Rights—Practicably Irrigable Acreage (PIA Standard)	374
2.	Winans Rights—Needs-Based Standards for Non-Irrigation Rights	376
3.	Pueblo Rights—Looking to Historic Uses.....	377
C.	Change in Use On-Reservation	378
D.	Uses Outside the Reservation—Transfer of Indian Water Rights	379
E.	Water Rights for Individual Indian Allotments.....	380
F.	Waters Subject to Reservation	383
III.	Federal Rights for Other (Non-Indian) Reservations of Land	384
A.	Express v. Implied Rights.....	385
B.	Priority Date.....	387
C.	Determining the Purposes of the Reservation	387
1.	Quantity	387
2.	Specific Purposes of the Reservation	388
3.	Securing Water for Secondary Uses Under State Law	389
4.	Other Regulatory Authority to Secure Water—Federal Regulatory Rights.....	391
D.	Application to Specific Categories of Federal Land	393
1.	National Forests	393
2.	National Parks and National Monuments	394

	3. National Wildlife Refuges	395
	4. Wild and Scenic Rivers	396
	5. National Recreational Areas.....	397
	6. Wilderness Areas.....	397
	7. Bureau of Land Management (BLM): Specified and Unspecified Public Lands	399
	8. Military Lands.....	400
	E. Water Subject to Reservation.....	401
IV.	Adjudication and Enforcement of Reserved Rights.....	402
	A. Quantification by Adjudication	403
	1. Joinder of the United States in State Court Actions—McCarran Amendment.....	404
	2. Reserved Rights Claims in Federal Court.....	407
	3. Duty to Assert Reserved Rights Claims	408
	B. Negotiated Settlements	410

Chapter Nine. Interstate and International

	Allocation.....	413
I.	Interstate Adjudication.....	414
	A. Litigation Between Private Parties	414
	1. Personal Jurisdiction	414
	2. Subject Matter Jurisdiction	414
	3. Applicable Law	415
	4. Parens Patriae Suits.....	417
	5. Enforcement.....	418
	B. Litigation Between States	418
	1. Original Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court	418

	2. Justiciability	419
	3. Sources of Law: The Doctrine of Equitable Apportionment	420
II.	Interstate Compacts.....	424
	A. Constitutional Authority	425
	B. Administration and Enforcement of Compacts.....	426
	C. Legal Effect of Compacts	427
	1. Limitations on Private Water Users	427
	2. Effect of Congressional Ratification	428
	D. Interpretation of Compacts.....	429
III.	Legislative Allocation	431
IV.	State Restrictions on Water Export.....	435
V.	International Allocations.....	438
	A. Supremacy of Treaties over State Water Law	439
	B. Notable International Treaties	440
	1. Mexico	440
	2. Canada	442
	3. The 1997 Watercourses Convention	444
	4. International Court of Justice and International Treaties	445

Chapter Ten. Water Institutions and

	Equity	449
I.	Water Organizations in History.....	452
II.	State Water Organizations.....	454
	A. Regulatory Structure at the State Level.....	454

B.	Municipal Water Companies and Public Utilities.....	457
III.	Private and Quasi-Public Water Suppliers Authorized by State Law	463
A.	Carrier Ditch Companies.....	463
B.	Mutual Ditch Companies.....	464
C.	Irrigation Companies	465
1.	Financing	466
2.	Ownership of Rights.....	467
3.	Transfers.....	468
4.	Priorities	469
5.	Regulation.....	470
IV.	Quasi-Public Irrigation Districts	471
A.	Formation of Districts.....	472
B.	Benefits of Districts.....	473
C.	Ownership of Water Rights	474
D.	Election of Boards	474
E.	Financial Aspects	476
F.	Functions	477
V.	State Owned and Operated Water Projects	478
VI.	Federal Organizations	479
A.	Army Corps of Engineers.....	480
B.	Bureau of Reclamation	482
VII.	The Interface of Water Organizations and Land Use Planning Organizations.....	486
	INDEX.....	489
