

TABLE of CONTENTS

ABOUT THE AUTHORS	iii
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	vii
PREFACE to the THIRD EDITION	ix
Chapter 1. Introduction to American Legal Method.....	1
I. OVERVIEW OF THE METHODS OF LAW IN THE UNITED STATES.....	1
II. WRITING LIKE A LAWYER?	2
III. LEGAL METHOD.....	4
A. What is the law?	5
B. Sources of the law: primary and secondary authority	6
C. The role of the lawyer.....	9
Chapter 2. Rules of Law and Legal Reasoning.....	11
I. ISSUES, RULES, AND FACTS	11
II. FINDING, BREAKING DOWN, AND OUTLINING A RULE OF LAW	13
A. Sources of the law.....	13
B. Definitional and Interpretive Rules.....	15
C. Main Rules and Sub-Rules	15
D. Examples of a Main Rule, Sub-Rules, Definitional Rules, and Interpretative Rules.....	16
E. Breaking down a Definitional Rule into its parts— Elements or Factors ..	17
F. Outlining the parts of a definitional rule	19
G. Use of the outline of parts for structure	20
III. LEGAL REASONING	21
Chapter 3. Analysis of a Single Case.....	39
I. FINDING THE RULES IN A SINGLE CASE.....	40
A. The legal method of judges.....	40
B. The “Borrowed” Rule.....	41
C. The “Applied” Rule	42
D. How do you phrase the Applied Rule?	46
II. THE HOLDING OF THE CASE AND DICTA.....	49
Chapter 4. Analysis of Rules from Constitutions, Statutes, or Administrative Rules and Regulations	51
I. FINDING THE RULES IN STATUTORY OR CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS OR ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS ..	51
II. INTERPRETING THE RULES FROM CONSTITUTIONS, STATUTES, OR ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS.....	55

Principle 1. The text of a statute is the primary, essential source of its meaning	60
A. If the statute contains a definition of a word, its meaning is determined by the definition	60
B. If the statute does not contain a definition of a word, its meaning is determined by:	60
1. Common usage of the terms, including:	60
2. Words that have acquired a technical or particular meaning in a given context	61
3. Legal meaning as defined in the Dictionary Act, 1 U.S.C. §§ 1–7	62
4. Legal meaning as defined by state statute or common law	62
5. The context in which the terms appear	62
6. The rules of English grammar	62
Principle 2. Prospective and retrospective operation	63
Principle 3. Severability of invalid provisions	63
Principle 4. Statutes whose terms conflict	63
Principle 5. Comprehensive revisions of the law	64
Principle 6. Statutes incorporating another statute of the same jurisdiction	64
Principle 7. Use of headings and titles	64
Principle 8. Revisions to statutes	65
Principle 9. Repeal of a repealing statute	65
Principle 10. Effect of amendment or repeal of civil statutes on civil claims	65
Principle 11. Effect of amendment of criminal sentencing provisions on pending criminal actions	65
Principle 12. General avoidance of interpretations that doom a statute to fail	66
Principle 13. “Eiusdem generis” maxim	66
Principle 14. Statutes on the same subject	67
Principle 15. Language excluded from supplanting legislation	67
Principle 16. Interpretation of definitions of crimes	67
Principle 17. Statutes in derogation of the common law	67
Principle 18. Additional aids to construction	68
Principle 19. Legislative history	68
Chapter 5. Analysis of Multiple Authorities: Rule Synthesis	71
I. RULE SECTION CONSTRUCTION STEP 1: SORTING MULTIPLE AUTHORITIES	72
A. Determining Controlling and Potentially Controlling Authority	74

B.	Recap of the Sorting Principles So Far	78
1.	Federal law issues in federal court	81
2.	State law issues in state court	82
3.	Federal law issues in state court	83
4.	State law issues in federal court	84
II.	RULE SECTION CONSTRUCTION STEP 2: DETERMINING THE RELATIVE WEIGHT OF CONTROLLING AUTHORITIES	85
A.	Determining the weight of primary controlling authorities.....	85
1.	Rank in the Hierarchy of Authority: Higher authorities are better	85
2.	Date: Recent authorities are better	86
3.	Fame: Watershed cases, famous cases, famous judges are better	86
4.	Dicta from controlling cases	86
5.	Unpublished opinions	87
B.	Determining the weight of primary persuasive authorities	87
1.	Relative weight of primary persuasive authorities	88
2.	Use of Secondary Authority	92
III.	CONSTRUCTING THE RULE SECTION STEP 3: WRITING THE RULE SECTION	96
1.	Define the Main Definitional Rule with constitutions, statutes, or regulations.....	99
2.	Otherwise, start with a watershed opinion	99
3.	Do not change the contents or order of elements of a well-established rule	99
4.	Reconcile your authorities; do not formulate a rule with inherent contradictions	100
5.	List Interpretive Rules, supplemental Definitional Rules, and exceptions after the main rule	101
6.	List sub-rules on elements of the rule in the Sub-Rule section that discusses the individual element	102
7.	Accept the possibility that competing rules might exist	104
IV.	COMPLETING THE RULE SECTION: RULE SYNTHESIS	109
A.	Using Rule Synthesis to bring order to a disorderly area of law	110
B.	Using Rule Synthesis to induce rules from the holdings and outcomes of precedent cases, when the cases themselves do not state any rules on the issue	113
Chapter 6. Analysis of Multiple Authorities: Explanatory Synthesis	119
I.	THE PURPOSE OF THE EXPLANATION SECTION	119
A.	Explanation Sections must be distinct from Rule Sections	120
B.	The Explanation Section has different goals than the Rule Section	125
II.	METHODS OF EXPLANATION	125
A.	The Primary “Go-to” Method of Explanation: Explanatory Synthesis	126
1.	Explanatory Synthesis Method	126
2.	Examples of Explanatory Syntheses	129
3.	How many syntheses do you need in an Explanation Section?....	133

4. Examples of entire Explanation Sections using Explanatory Synthesis	134
B. The Back-Up Method: Case-to-Case Analogical Reasoning	137
C. Using both explanatory synthesis and case-to-case analogical reasoning in the same Explanation Section	139
D. When to prefer one method of explanation over the other	141
E. Treating the explanation section as a narrative on the development of the law	144
F. Explanation Sections and the “Deeper Analogy”	147
G. Comparing unsynthesized and synthesized Explanation Sections	149
H. Use of Secondary Authorities in the Explanation Section	155
III. THE EFFECT OF A GOOD EXPLANATION SECTION ON THE APPLICATION SECTION	156
Chapter 7. Legal Writing: The T-R-E-A-T Format	163
I. MOVING FROM ISSUES TO ANSWERS AND IRAC TO TREAT	163
A. Simple IRAC	163
B. Moving from IRAC to TREAT	164
II. THESIS HEADINGS	169
A. Drafting a Thesis Heading	169
B. Thesis Heading Placement	172
C. The formatting of a proper Thesis Heading	173
III. RULE SECTION	174
A. A presentation of the legal guidelines and requirements that govern the issue	174
B. Definitional Rules and Interpretive Rules	180
C. Guidelines and Advice on Drafting Rule Sections	183
IV. EXPLANATION SECTION	186
A. Purpose of the Explanation section	186
B. Explanatory Synthesis vs. Case-to-Case Analogical Reasoning	189
C. When to prefer one method over the other?	192
V. APPLICATION SECTION	193
A. Guidelines and Advice for Drafting the Application Section	194
B. Using the Explanation Section to improve the Application Section	196
C. Using Analogical and Converse Analogical Reasoning in the Application Section	200
VI. THESIS RESTATED AS A CONCLUSION	201
VII. IDENTIFYING MULTIPLE ISSUES FOR T-R-E-A-T-MENT, AND THE USE OF THE “ROADMAP”	204
A. What are the separate legal questions you have to answer?	204
B. Which elements or factors of the rules and sub-rules are at issue?	206
C. The ROADMAP tool for working around things not at issue	206
Chapter 8. Legal Writing: The Office Memorandum	213
I. FOCUSING ON THE READER OF THE OFFICE MEMO	214

II.	STRUCTURE OF THE OFFICE MEMORANDUM.....	215
III.	DRAFTING THE CAPTION	218
IV.	DRAFTING THE ISSUES OR QUESTIONS PRESENTED.....	220
A.	Drafting the Issue or Question Presented: Step-by-Step	220
B.	Fine-tuning your Issues and Questions Presented with the Two-Phrase Approach	222
C.	Fulfilling the requirements of an Issue or Question Presented: Getting the details right.....	223
V.	DRAFTING THE BRIEF ANSWER OR CONCLUSION.....	226
A.	Brief Answer and Conclusion Drafting: Step-by-Step	227
B.	Fine Tuning the Requirements of a Brief Answer or Conclusion.....	227
C.	Making Issues and Questions Presented and Brief Answers and Conclusions work together.....	230
D.	Parsing the law and the facts in a well-drafted Issue and Brief Answer..	231
VI.	DRAFTING THE STATEMENT OF FACTS	233
VII.	DRAFTING THE DISCUSSION SECTION	238
VIII.	DRAFTING THE CONCLUSION	244
IX.	SAMPLE OFFICE MEMORANDA.....	244
Chapter 9. Citation Form	281
Part I: The ALWD Citation Manual	282
I.	PLACEMENT OF CITATIONS: CITATION SENTENCES AND CITATION CLAUSES	283
A.	Citation sentence	284
B.	Citation clauses	284
II.	SIGNALS AND INTRODUCTORY PHRASES (ALWD R. 35)	285
III.	SHORTHAND DEVICES FOR REPEAT CITATIONS (ALWD R.10 and R.11)	290
IV.	STYLE OF THE CASE (ALWD R. 12).....	293
A.	Certain words are omitted	293
B.	Use ALWD standard abbreviations	293
V.	REQUIRED INFORMATION FOR CASES.....	295
A.	Page spans and pinpoint cites (a/k/a jump cites or pin cites).....	296
B.	Court information	297
VI.	SUBSEQUENT HISTORY	298
VII.	PARENTHETICALS (ALWD R. 12.10).....	298
VIII.	SHORT FORMS FOR CASES.....	299
IX.	CITATION FORMS FOR OTHER AUTHORITIES	300
Part II: The Bluebook (A Uniform System of Citation)	304
I.	CITATION SENTENCES AND CITATION CLAUSES	305
A.	Citation sentence	306

B. Citation clauses	306
II. INTRODUCTORY SIGNALS AND PHRASES (BB 1.2)	307
III. SHORTHAND DEVICES FOR REPEAT CITATIONS (BB 4.1, 4.2 and B4).....	312
IV. STYLE OF THE CASE (BB 10)	315
A. Certain words are omitted	316
B. Use Bluebook standard abbreviations	316
V. CITATION FORMS FOR CASES (BB 10 and B10)	318
VI. SUBSEQUENT HISTORY	323
VII. PARENTHETICALS (BB 10.6)	323
VIII. SHORT FORMS FOR CASES (BB 10.9 and B4)	324
IX. CITATION FORMS FOR OTHER AUTHORITIES	325
Chapter 10. Legal Writing: Methods for Revising and Editing Text.	329
I. STYLE ISSUES FOR THE OFFICE MEMORANDUM (AND LEGAL WRITING IN GENERAL).....	329
A. Plain English	329
1. Avoid legalese	329
2. Be concise	330
3. Limit your use of the passive tense	330
B. Quotations	331
1. Never plagiarize	331
2. Do not quote so much that the quotes attempt to replace your own analysis of the issues	332
3. Use proper quotation technique	333
4. When to use quotation marks	333
5. The mechanics of quotation	334
C. Parentheticals	335
D. Discuss dicta correctly so as not to trick the reader into thinking it is a holding from a case.....	337
1. Obvious and not so obvious ways to discuss a court's holding	337
2. How do you avoid communicating that something is the holding?	338
3. Avoid using the word "dicta" when discussing dicta	339
E. Formality of language	339
1. Do not use slang and colloquialisms	340
2. Avoid slash constructions unless that is the actual word, phrase, or address that you are quoting or referring to	340
3. Avoid contractions, but use shorthand words and phrases	341
4. Do not use symbols except where required.	342
5. Avoid first-person and second-person references.....	342
6. Avoid rhetorical questions.....	343
7. Write out dates	343
F. Strive for internal consistency and parallelism.....	344

G.	Track the language of the authorities when applying the rule to your facts	344
H.	Avoid sexist language	345
I.	Be accurate in references to cases and courts	345
J.	Include citation to authority.....	346
	1. The Golden Rule of Citation	346
	2. Pinpoint Cites (Pincites, Jump Cites) always should be provided	347
	3. Cite all the sources you need, but avoid string cites in the Rule Section	347
K.	Tone: humor and excessive emotion is out; vivid and engaging work is in	348
II.	FINE TUNING WITH MODIFICATIONS OF THE T-R-E-A-T FORMAT	350
A.	Layering your T-R-E-A-Ts	350
B.	Mini-TREATs (aka, Fun-Size TREATs)	353
III.	EDITING TIPS	358
A.	Write early, rewrite often	358
B.	Employ more than one editing and proofreading technique	358
C.	Stay objective	360
D.	Be as definite as you can be.....	360
E.	Statement of Facts: how much is too much?	360
F.	Tips for editing the discussion	361
	1. Side issues, interesting questions	361
	2. Redundancy is bad.....	361
	3. Too many authorities?	361
Chapter 11. Legal Writing: Client Letters, Email, and Texting		363
I.	THE CLIENT LETTER.....	363
A.	Structure of a Legal Analysis or Legal Advice Client Letter	367
B.	Structure of a Demand Letter or other Letter to an Opponent or Opposing Counsel	369
C.	Sample Client Letters	373
II.	PROFESSIONAL EMAIL AND TEXTING	377
A.	Is there a special writing style just for emails and messages?	378
B.	Client Emails reporting legal analysis	381
C.	Client Emails communicating legal advice	382
D.	Emails to other Lawyers.....	384
E.	Short-comings and special considerations of Email	389
Chapter 12. Rhetoric and Professionalism in Writing, Online, and in Social Media		393
I.	WHAT IS THE RHETORICAL SITUATION OF LEGAL WRITING?....	393
A.	What is rhetoric?	393
B.	What is a rhetorical situation?.....	393
C.	What are the simultaneous modes of rhetoric?	395

II.	COMMUNICATING AS A COUNSELOR FOR COMPREHENSION AND PERSUASION	396
A.	What does it mean to be persuasive in the objective analysis and communications of a counselor?.....	397
B.	The role of narrative reasoning in persuasion as a counselor	398
C.	The rhetorical concept of “arrangement”	399
D.	The next frontier: Visual Legal Rhetoric.....	400
III.	COMMUNICATING AS AN OFFICER OF THE COURT AND MEETING PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES.....	402
IV.	AN OFFICER OF THE COURT ON SOCIAL MEDIA	404
Appendix A. Preparing a Case Brief or Case Analysis for Class.....		407
Appendix B. Grammar and Punctuation for Legal Writing.....		413
I.	GRAMMAR	413
A.	Parallelism	414
B.	Word choice.....	415
C.	Dangling modifiers.....	416
D.	Misplaced modifiers	416
E.	Active vs. passive voice	417
II.	PUNCTUATION.....	418
A.	Comma usage.....	418
1.	Commas and independent clauses.....	418
2.	Commas in a series	418
3.	Commas in dates	419
B.	Quotation marks	419
1.	Quotation marks with other punctuation marks.....	419
2.	Single quotation marks.....	420
C.	Ellipsis dots . . . in writing	420
D.	Colons	422
E.	Semi-colons	422
Appendix C. The United States Legal System and Hierarchy of Authority		425
I.	THE LIFE OF A CASE IN CIVIL LITIGATION	425
II.	FEDERAL, STATE, AND LOCAL COURT SYSTEMS	433
A.	The Federal System	436
B.	The State System	438
1.	California	439
2.	New York	440
3.	Texas.....	441
III.	HIERARCHY OF JUDICIAL AUTHORITY	442
IV.	JURISDICTION	446
A.	Jurisdiction as a place	446
B.	Personal jurisdiction	447
C.	Subject matter jurisdiction.....	449

Appendix D. Preparing for and Taking Exams	453
I. OUTLINING and OUTLINES	453
A. What is “outlining”?	453
B. Why outline?	453
C. What about other people’s outlines or commercial outlines?	454
II. TAKING EXAMS	455
A. Closed book vs. open book	455
B. Types of questions	455
1. Issue-spotting	455
2. Big picture, policy questions	457
3. Information seeking—short answer	457
4. Multiple choice (multiple guess)	458
C. Time management	458
Index	461