

Man pleads innocent in Kentucky cheerleader rape, murder

188 words

29 January 1997

12:58 PM

Associated Press Newswires

APRS

English

Copyright 1997. The Associated Press. All Rights Reserved.

GREENVILLE, Ky. (AP) - A 22-year-old man who once served three years in prison for sexual abuse was charged with raping and killing a teen-age cheerleader whose body was found in a lake a few hours after she went out to rent a movie.

Robert Keith Woodall was arrested Tuesday and charged with kidnapping, rape and murder. His attorney entered innocent pleas to all charges today.

Sarah Hansen, 16, an honor student, left her parents' home in the family minivan early Saturday night. Her parents called police two hours after she left.

The minivan was found less than one mile from the home, and her body was pulled from Luzerne Lake a short time later. An autopsy showed the girl died of "multiple cut wounds" inflicted with a sharp instrument, possibly a knife.

Police said they do not believe Woodall knew the girl and said the evidence indicated the killer acted alone.

Court documents show that Woodall pleaded guilty in 1993 to two counts of first-degree sexual abuse. He was released from prison Feb. 20, 1996.

Rush

Document aprs000020011005dt1t02bkr