Table of Contents

Introduction 1

Chapter 1. The MPRE Exam and Test Strategies for the MPRE 3
A. How Is Your MPRE Score Determined? 3
B. What Is the Scope of the Exam? 4
C. What Are the Questions Like? 4
D. How Should You Attack the Fact Patterns? 5
E. What Are Important Themes or Statements That You Need to Recognize for the MPRE? 5
1. Pay Attention to Statements About the Lawyer's or the Client's State of Mind 6
2. Pay Attention to the Lawyer's Motivation When He or She Acts or Fails to Act 7
3. Pay Attention to the Lawyer's Core Behavior 7
4. Don't Fall for a Question That Suggests That the Lawyer's Conduct, Though Questionable, Has Not Prejudiced the Client 7
5. A Client's Insistence on a Course of Conduct Doesn't Relieve the Lawyer of the Responsibility to Follow the Rules 8

Chapter 2. The Code of Judicial Conduct 9
A. What Are the Main Ethical Duties of Judges? 10
B. Can Judges Receive Compensation? 10
C. Can Judges Hold Outside Positions When Serving as a Judge? 11
D. Can Judges Participate in Political Activities? 11
E. How Does a Judge Remain Impartial? 11

Chapter 3. Dishonesty and Misconduct 15
A. What Is the Duty of Honesty? 15
B. What Is Attorney Misconduct? 17
C. What Are a Lawyer's Obligations to Report Misconduct? 19
D. What if the Misconduct Occurred in State A but the Lawyer Is Licensed in State B? 19

Chapter 4. Practicing Without a License and Fee Sharing Among Lawyers 21
A. What Is the Practice of Law? 21

B. Can a Lawyer Accidentally Assist Others in the Practice of Law? 22
C. Can Lawyers Pay for Referrals from Other Lawyers? Can Lawyers Share Fees with Each Other? 23
D. Can a Lawyer Share Fees with a Non-Lawyer? 25

Chapter 5. Competence, Diligence, and Communication 27
A. What Is the Rule of Diligence? 30
B. What Is the Duty to Communicate? 31

Chapter 6. Client Trust Accounts 33
A. What Is a Client Trust Account? 34
B. Where Are Advanced Legal Fees Kept? 35
C. What if There Is a Dispute About the Distribution of the Money by a Client? 35

Chapter 7. Lawyer Advertising and Solicitation 37
A. Can a Lawyer Directly Solicit a Client? 39
B. Can Lawyers Advertise That They Are Experts in Their Field? 40
C. Is an Attorney's Website Considered Lawyer Advertising Under the Ethics Rules? 41
D. Can a Lawyer Discuss Past Cases? 42
E. Is a Blog Subject to the Rules Regulating Attorney Advertising? 42

Chapter 8. Attorney's Fees 45
A. Does a Fee Agreement Always Need to Be in Writing? ... 47
B. When Does a Lawyer Need to Talk to the Client About Fees? 48
C. What Constitutes a "Writing"? Does It Always Have to Be a Formal Document? 49
D. What if the Lawyer Changes the Fee During the Course of the Representation? 49
E. Can a Lawyer Charge a Client for the Typical Expenses of Taking a Case to Trial? 50
F. Are Retainer Fees Covered by Rule 1.5? 50
G. Does a Client Have to Sign the Agreement for the Agreement to Be Valid? 51
H. What if a Client Disputes the Attorney's Fees? 51
I. What About Disputed Fees and the Client Trust Account? 52

J. Can a Lawyer Charge Interest on the Outstanding Balance of Fees? 53

Chapter 9. Limitations on the Right to Practice and Sale of a Law Practice 55
A. Are Non-Compete Agreements Enforceable? 56
B. What Is the Retirement Exception? 56
C. What Type of Restrictive Agreements Are Improper? 57
D. Can a Lawyer Sell a Law Practice? 57
E. What Notice Must Clients Receive When a Lawyer Sells a Law Practice? 58
F. What Is the Sale of Goodwill? 59

Chapter 10. Conflicts of Interests: Concurrent 61
A. What Are the Main Policies Behind the Conflicts of Interest Rules? 61
B. What Are the Conflicts Issues Between Current Clients? 62
C. Is There a Conflict of Interest? 63
D. What Does It Mean for a Representation to Be "Directly Adverse?" 64
E. What Is a "Materially Limited" Representation? 65
F. Can Conflicts of Interest Arise with Former Clients? 66
G. Can a Lawyer's Personal Interest Cause a Conflict of Interest? 67
H. If There Is a Conflict of Interest, Can the Attorney Continue with Client Consent? 69
I. How Does a Client Provide Informed Consent? 70
J. Can a Client Consent to Waive Future Conflicts? 72
K. What if a Conflict Arises During the Course of the Representation? 73
L. Can a Firm Drop an Existing Client to Take on a New Client? 74

Chapter 11. Conflicts of Interests: Corporations 77
A. Who Is the Client for Conflict Purposes? 78
B. Does a Corporate Lawyer Have Special Duties of Confidentiality to the Corporation? 79
C. How Does the Corporate Lawyer Protect the Organization by Reporting Out? 80

Chapter 12. Conflicts of Interests: Former Clients and Imputation 83
A. What Is a "Same or a Substantially Related Matter?" 84
B. Who Is a Former Client? 85
C. Can Client Consent Waive the Conflict? 85
D. Does the Taint of One Conflict Spill Over to Another Lawyer in the Same Law Firm? 86
E. What Duties Does the Lawyer Have to the Former Client? 87
F. What Happens When a Lawyer Transitions from One Law Firm to Another? 87
G. What Constitutes Adequate Screening? 90

Chapter 13. The Attorney-Client Relationship and the Duty of Confidentiality 93
A. Who Makes Decisions During the Course of Representation? 94
B. What if the Client Engages in Fraudulent or Criminal Activity? 95
C. What Is the Duty of Confidentiality? 95
D. How Is the Duty of Confidentiality Different from the Attorney-Client Privilege? 96
E. How Broadly Is the Duty of Confidentiality Defined? 98
F. What Are the Exceptions to the Duty of Confidentiality? 98
G. When Must a Lawyer Disclose Confidential Information Despite the Duty of Confidentiality? 98
H. When May a Lawyer Reveal Confidential Information? 99
I. If Allowed, How Much Confidential Information Can Be Disclosed by the Attorney? 100
J. Can You Tell Your Client That "Everything You Tell Me as Your Attorney Is Confidential?" 101
K. Can There Be Confidentiality Concerns Among Joint or Co-Clients? 101
L. How Long Does the Duty of Confidentiality Last? 102
M. Can a Lawyer Talk to Family and Friends About Their Clients? 102

Chapter 14. Zealous Representation and Candor Towards the Tribunal 105
A. What Is Zealous Representation? 106

B. How Does a Lawyer Show Respect for the Rights of Others? 107
C. What Does a Lawyer Do When She Inadvertently Receives Confidential Information? 108
D. Does an Attorney Have a Duty of Honesty Toward Third Parties? 109
E. Does an Attorney Violate the Duty of Honesty by Omitting Information? 110
F. Does the Duty of Honesty Apply in Settlement Negotiations? 110
G. Can a Lawyer Disclose a Material Fact to Avoid Assisting a Client's Crime or Fraud? 111
H. Does a Lawyer Have a Duty of Honesty to the Court? 112
I. What if the Lawyer Knows a Witness Is Going to Offer False Evidence? 115
J. What Happens if the Lawyer Discovers False Evidence After It Was Presented to the Court? 117
K. Are Prosecutors Limited About What They Can Say About a Case? 117
L. What Kinds of Extrajudicial Statements Are Permitted? 118

Chapter 15. Termination of the Attorney-Client Relationship 121
A. When Must an Attorney-Client Relationship End? 121
B. When May a Lawyer Withdraw from the Representation of a Client? 123
C. When Does the Court Have to Agree to the Withdrawal? 126
D. After Termination or Withdrawal, What Are the Lawyer's Obligations? 126